Does the Quran Talk about Jesus's Crucifixion?

What was Ɛīssā to Muḥammad SAWS?

Salaamun Alaykum

Today Insha'Allah, we're going to answer a very serious question which is does the Qurʿān actually talk about the crucifixion of Jesus? That is a surprising question. I know most of you have not even considered the possibility that the Qurʿān doesn't even mention it at all. I know what you're thinking. There is a clear aya that says they did not 'Salabo', but as you will see, there's something else going on.

And Insha'Allah in this segment, we're going to cover another very interesting question. Most of you have been asking this question after part six in this series. Question is what is the relationship between Ɛīssā and our Muhammad ﷺ ? So, in this segment Insha'Allah, which is part seven, we will address both of these questions. We start.

أعوذبِٱللَّهِ مِنَ ٱلشَّيۡطَٰنِ ٱلرَّجِيمِ

بِسۡمِ ٱللَّهِ ٱلرَّحۡمَٰنِ ٱلرَّحِيمِ

ٱلۡحَمۡدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ ٱلۡعَٰلَمِينَ

رَبِّ ٱشۡرَحۡ لِي صَدۡرِي وَيَسِّرۡ لِيٓ أَمۡرِي وَٱحۡلُلۡ عُقۡدَةٗ مِّن لِّسَانِي يَفۡقَهُواْ قَوۡلِي

As I said, we're going to address two very critical questions. This is a very serious, but very impactful segment in this series on Ɛīssā son of Maryam. The first question shall be does the Qurʿān even address the issue of the crucifixion of Ɛīssā? Does the Qurʿān have to address something that is a fiction in the first place? We will see.

The second question is, as we said ,in the last segment there is a relationship, some sort of correlation between Mohammed ﷺ our beloved ﷺ and the Ɛīssā upon his second return. And we demonstrated this with plenty of evidences, six as a matter of fact very irrefutable evidences. The question that remained that we need to address is what is the relationship between the two? Are they one and the same? Is there a mathematical equal between them as someone jumped to the conclusion and proclaimed that I said equal where I did not say that. We will deal with this specific relationship, as we will see in accordance with evidence directly from the Qurʿān.

Again, we follow the same Qurʿānic methodology. We let the Qurʿān teach us. We ask Allahh (swt) to show us the 'Bayyinat'; the instruments for extracting evidence from inside the Qurʿān. We let the Qurʿān take us and lead us to the right answer. We don't have to make it up. And when the evidence persistently shows a clear indication, we totally surrender 'Nusalim Tasleem'. We submit fully surrender to the evidence from Allahh (swt).

Just to remind you, this is part seven of the series. In other words, if you have not watched the prior segments, please go back and watch them before you watch this one. I will include specifically ambiguous language, making sure that those of you who have not seen the prior segments will not get much out of the segment. So, you're really wasting your time if you choose to watch the segment without watching the prior. This segment includes potentially big evidence that will leave you stunned if you are thoughtful. If you are reflecting. If you're able to think in accordance with the Abrahamic Locution and the methodology we have used consistently since the beginning of this channel.

Hopefully you will be one of those people and you will benefit the most if you have watched the prior segment. We use the Abrahamic Locution and the Organic Qurʿānic Methodology. We accept the truth from the Qurʿān above all else. The Qurʿān is our primary guide. Allahh (swt) provides us the understanding when we submit and surrender in a disciplined fashion in accordance with the Qurʿānic Methodology. Please do not ask or criticize if you have not watched the full segment and all the prior segments in the series.

What did we learn from the story of Why Ɛīssā was rejected by Banī Issrāʿīl?

We're going to start right away. We're not going to even include a table of content because it's very simple, two simple questions. Before we jump into the first question we need to review what did we really learn from the story of why Ɛīssā was rejected by Banī Issrāʿīl? If you remember, we've covered this in full detail, in several parts of this series already. The father of Ɛīssā was kept hidden, unknown, secret. Maryam and her sons were told to keep the fatherhood of Ɛīssā a secret. As a matter of fact, the name that was given by Allahh (swt) to Ɛīssā, which is Ɛīssā Ibn Maryam, son of Maryam is purposefully ambiguous. It is purposefully deceiving those who are attached to the ethnic superiority and the claims made by Banī Issrāʿīl. Therefore, we have covered this in full detail before.

The question is, what did we learn from that story? Why did Allahh (swt) make Ɛīssā a counterexample as we said before. مَثَلًا لِّبَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ it is a counterexample to their claim that every new messenger must be from their ethnic lineage. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is setting up Ɛīssā and his story to be a counterexample and a test and a trap for those who are attached to certain preconceived notions, biases, fanciful and wishful thinking. Therefore, the question is, what did we Muslims learn from this? What can we learn when we come and approach the story of Ɛīssā? To answer this question, let's review a couple of ayas and remind you of the seriousness of this question. Allahh (swt) in Sūrah Yunus aya 10:39 tells us

بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِمَا لَمْ يُحِيطُوا بِعِلْمِهِۦ وَلَمَّا يَأْتِهِمْ تَأْوِيلُهُۥ كَذَٰلِكَ كَذَّبَ ٱلَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَٱنظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَٰقِبَةُ ٱلظَّٰلِمِينَ
﴿10:39﴾ - يونس

Nay! They belied that which they did not understand, and its interpretation has not reached them yet. This is similar to why those before them belied. Ponder, therefore, how the transgressors turned out.

Allahh (swt) tells us they belied that which they did not understand. And its interpretation had not yet reached them. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is testing those of us who see the evidence, but because they don't understand what it means they reject the evidence. No, you don't reject the evidence. You wait until the understanding comes from Allahh (swt). You hold on to this evidence 'Bayyinat' that Allahh (swt) showed you. And then you wait patiently, diligently and submissively waiting for Allahh (swt) to decide when you are ready. Allahh (swt) is testing us. This is partly why I delayed the last segment last week. I wanted to make sure that people who are patient who are practicing this discipline understand this lesson.

Remember the story of Ɛīssā is عِلْمٌ for سَّاعَةِ knowledge, essential evidence-based knowledge, a prerequisite for achieving سَّاعَةِ , which we discussed in the prior segment. Remember these concepts. Therefore, if you insist on understanding everything before we accept it, that means you're subjecting the evidence from Allahh (swt) to the limitations of your own weltanschauung, to the limitations of your own conditioning, to the limitations of your own attention, to the limitations of your own intellect. Who knows if you're ready or not? Allahh (swt) decides if you are ready and when you are ready. He will give you the understanding. You just have to submit and trust Allahh (swt).

Another ayat from Sūrah Al-Baqarah 214

أَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ أَن تَدْخُلُوا ٱلْجَنَّةَ وَلَمَّا يَأْتِكُم مَّثَلُ ٱلَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِن قَبْلِكُم مَّسَّتْهُمُ ٱلْبَأْسَآءُ وَٱلضَّرَّآءُ وَزُلْزِلُوا حَتَّىٰ يَقُولَ ٱلرَّسُولُ وَٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُۥ مَتَىٰ نَصْرُ ٱللَّهِ أَلَآ إِنَّ نَصْرَ ٱللَّهِ قَرِيبٌ ﴿2:214﴾ - البقرة

Or did you think that you enter Jannah while you had yet to receive the example of those who came before you: They were affected by affliction and adversity, and they were shaken to the point where the messenger and the ones with him would say: “When will Allahh’s victory come?” Indeed, Allahh’s victory is near!

Or did you think that you entered Jannah while you had yet to receive the example of those who came before you, they were affected by affliction and adversity, and they were shaken to the point where the messenger and the ones with him would say, when will Allahh (swt) victory come indeed, Allahh (swt) victory is near. You just need to be patient.

Allahh (swt) in Sūrah Āl-Ɛimrān aya 142 tells us a similar message

أَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ أَن تَدْخُلُوا ٱلْجَنَّةَ وَلَمَّا يَعْلَمِ ٱللَّهُ ٱلَّذِينَ جَٰهَدُوا مِنكُمْ وَيَعْلَمَ ٱلصَّٰبِرِينَ ﴿3:142﴾ - آل عمران

Or did you think that you shall enter Jannah while Allahh had not yet exposed the evidence about those who strove among you, and had not yet exposed the evidence about the patient ones?

Or did you think that you shall enter Jannah while Allahh had not yet exposed the evidence about those who strove جَٰهَدُوا ‘Jahadu’ among you and had not yet exposed the evidence about the patient ones. Therefore, it is up to us to wait patiently and to show discipline and to restrain ourselves from running away with unproven theories and even questions where we don't have any evidence to indicate to us which direction, we should follow to answer these questions.

So, while we're waiting, this is the perfect approach to submit to Allahh (swt). It's a way of devoting ourselves to Allahh (swt). It's a practice to empty the Weltanschauung. Just like when we fast, it's a practice to empty our stomach and to empty our desires and to empty our wishful thinking to put them aside and say I'm going to wait. It's a very similar process to fasting. This patience that is required to understand is part of the process. I hope this lesson was learned in the last two weeks.

We continue with a very simple conclusion. It's a very simple matter either you believe this is from or you don't. If you believe the Qurʿān is from Allahh (swt), you let the evidence lead you and you do not establish your own rational faculty as a judge. In other words, those who enjoy this channel because it speaks to their reasoning and mental comfort should really ask a very important question to themselves. Are we worshiping Allahh (swt) or are we worshiping our own predilections are on biases are on wishful assumptions, our own Iblees, our own comfort? which one?

We worship Allahh (swt) because Qurʿān is from Allahh (swt). We practice تسليم 'Tasleem' full willing surrender to the evidence. Not stupidly surrendering to any claim anyone makes. No, we need to seek evidence, but when the evidence presents itself and the evidence is clear, even if we don't understand it, we say that a way. In that direction, this is where we need to go. Now we apply the verification, the validation, the rest of the steps of the methodology. And we patiently toil on the scripture until Allahh (swt) opens up the gates for us and then we learn. Until that happens, we practice patience. And that is تقْوى Taqwah. That is the discipline that we talked about so many times before.

So, remember it is likely that our own intellect and our own Weltanschauung 'Ɛarsh' have not yet developed to encompass the truth. Allow for the modesty for you to need more before you reach that level of understanding. So, this was a great background, a great occasional practice and application of what happened with us since part six of this series. I hope we learn the lesson and we continue. This is a way for Allahh (swt) of to teach us.

Reminder: الرُّسُل indicates all messengers

I want to remind you of the word الرُّسُل 'Al-Russal' we discussed this in evidence number one from part six of the series, when we discussed the return of Ɛīssā, and we said this aya 3:144

- وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ أَفَإِين مَّاتَ أَوْ قُتِلَ ٱنقَلَبْتُمْ عَلَىٰٓ أَعْقَٰبِكُمْ وَمَن يَنقَلِبْ عَلَىٰ عَقِبَيْهِ فَلَن يَضُرَّ ٱللَّهَ شَيْـًٔا وَسَيَجْزِى ٱللَّهُ ٱلشَّٰكِرِينَ ﴿3:144﴾ - آل عمران
- مَّا ٱلْمَسِيحُ ٱبْنُ مَرْيَمَ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ وَأُمُّهُ صِدِّيقَةٌ كَانَا يَأْكُلَانِ ٱلطَّعَامَ ٱنظُرْ كَيْفَ نُبَيِّنُ لَهُمُ ٱلْءَايَٰتِ ثُمَّ ٱنظُرْ أَنَّىٰ يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿5:75﴾ - المائدة shows that this expression إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ is the exact same expression that is applied both to Mohamed ﷺ to Al- Massīḥ Ibn Maryam. Both of them are described as the last one in this series of messengers, so to speak. We said, الرُّسُل 'Al-Russal' clearly identifies all of them, all of them. In other words, all of them have passed before Muhammad ﷺ and all of them have passed before, Ibn Maryam Ɛīssā.

Now Allahh (swt) did not make a mistake astugfirullah in saying الرُّسُل 'Al-Russal' the messengers, because this aya 6:34 from Sūrah Al-Anʿām, Allahh (swt) used a similar expression

وَلَقَدْ كُذِّبَتْ رُسُلٌ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَصَبَرُوا عَلَىٰ مَا كُذِّبُوا وَأُوذُوا حَتَّىٰٓ أَتَىٰهُمْ نَصْرُنَا وَلَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمَٰتِ ٱللَّهِ وَلَقَدْ جَآءَكَ مِن نَّبَإِى ٱلْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿6:34﴾ - الأنعام

And there have been some messengers before you who have been belied …

وَلَقَدْ كُذِّبَتْ رُسُلٌ مِّن قَبْلِكَ And there have been some messengers before you who have been belied. So Allahh (swt) knows how to use رُسُلٌ 'Russal' or الرُّسُل 'Al-Russal'. Allahh (swt), knows how to make this distinction. We should not presume that the majority of the translations and the majority of the interpretations who just totally overlooked this 'Al-Tareef' the definite article that proceeded the word رُسُلٌ 'Russal', those who dismissed this article are correct. They're wrong. They're dismissive of the words of Allahh (swt) and the precision indicated by the expressions of the Qurʿān. This was just an example to show you that the intentionality principle is extremely important to observe in the Qurʿān.

You want more evidence, here's another aya and we're going to give you more evidence by the way, this aya from Sūrah Al-Ḥadīd aya 57:27, Allahh (swt) says

ثُمَّ قَفَّيْنَا عَلَىٰٓ ءَاثَٰرِهِم بِرُسُلِنَا وَقَفَّيْنَا بِعِيسَى ٱبْنِ مَرْيَمَ وَءَاتَيْنَٰهُ ٱلْإِنجِيلَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِى قُلُوبِ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱتَّبَعُوهُ رَأْفَةً وَرَحْمَةً وَرَهْبَانِيَّةً ٱبْتَدَعُوهَا مَا كَتَبْنَٰهَا عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَّا ٱبْتِغَآءَ رِضْوَٰنِ ٱللَّهِ فَمَا رَعَوْهَا حَقَّ رِعَايَتِهَا فَـَٔاتَيْنَا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِنْهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ وَكَثِيرٌ مِّنْهُمْ فَٰسِقُونَ ﴿57:27﴾ - الحديد

"And then we trailed them (Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm), upon their legacies, by our messengers, and we trailed (everyone) by Ɛīssā ibn Maryam, and we allowed him to learn the Injeel, and we remanded in the cores of those who followed him compassion and mercy and fearfulness (of Allahh), which they innovated (into monasticism and clergy); We did not prescribe it for them except for seeking the contentment of Allahh. But they did not observe it with due observance. So, we gave the ones who believed among them their reward, but many of them are deviant".

And then we trailed them. The context is about Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm, upon their legacies عَلَىٰٓ ءَاثَٰرِهِم , by our messengers بِرُسُلِنَا . So our messengers, Allahh (swt) is saying came after Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm. That's fine. And then Allahh (swt) adds another expression وَقَفَّيْنَا بِعِيسَى ٱبْنِ مَرْيَمَ and we trailed by Ɛīssā Ibn Maryam, meaning Ɛīssā Ibn Maryam was the last in the trail. And notice that there is no object given to this verb وَقَفَّيْنَا بِعِيسَى ٱبْنِ مَرْيَمَ.وَقَفَّيْنَا required وَقَفَّيْنَا whom? We trailed whom. And that is left open as if Allahh (swt) is challenging us to think that everyone came before Ɛīssā Ibn Maryam. Therefore, this is another confirmation to the discussion that we had in part six of the series that Ɛīssā Al- Massīḥ Ibn Maryam just like our beloved ﷺ , was the last in the series, were at the end of the trail so to speak.

I remember I never claimed that Ɛīssā equal Muhammad ﷺ ; meaning one person. I never said that. I said they were addressed as if they were the same person. I said they were addressed using some sort of correlation or congruence between the two. And we left that relationship undefined. In the last five minutes of part six of the series purposefully I was ambiguous and left it for you to just contemplate and reflect and pray and ask Allahh (swt) for guidance and practice patience. We will see exactly what that relationship. The point is, this is not a mathematical equation. This is not a full equality. This one equals this one. I never said that.

Who Was 3īssā to Muḥammad ﷺ ?

We continue now with a very important question, who was 3īssā to Muḥammad ﷺ ? To understand this, we look at aya 13:43 from Sūrah Al-Raʿd. Allahh (swt) tells us why

وَيَقُولُ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا۟ لَسْتَ مُرْسَلًا ۚ قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِٱللَّهِ شَهِيدًۢا بَيْنِى وَبَيْنَكُمْ وَمَنْ عِندَهُۥ عِلْمُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ ﴿13:43﴾ - الرعد:

And those who rejected say “You are not divinely sent!” Say: “Sufficient are Allahh, as direct/observer witness(es) between me and you, and anyone who has the knowledge of the Kitāb (scriptural message or personal register).”

Allahh (swt) says, and those who rejected meaning rejected the message or rejected the Qurʿān or rejected our beloved ﷺ . They say to Mohammad ﷺ , you are not divinely sent لَسْتَ مُرْسَلًا addressing Mohammad ﷺ . And then the Qurʿān addresses our beloved ﷺ telling him say, sufficient are Allahh (swt) as a direct observer witness between me and you and anyone who has the knowledge of the Kitāb, meaning the scriptural message or the personal registered that we talked about before. And we will address it a little bit more in detail in this segment.

So, what is this aya saying Allahh (swt) is telling us or is teaching our beloved ﷺ to say suffices to have Allahh (swt) and anyone who has the knowledge of the Kitāb. As what? As direct observer witnesses, plural, or singular. It's a role that's described in here, meaning that genre of a direct witness. And you will see exactly why I'm saying direct witness in just one second.

It is sufficient to have Allahh (swt) and this person وَمَنْ عِندَهُ عِلْمُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ as a witness between بَيْنِى me وَبَيْنَكُمْ and you meaning the rejectors who have rejected. So, what is this aya saying? This aya is saying there is someone who has the full knowledge. عِندَهُ عِلْمُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ he has the full knowledge of Al- Kitāb, who will stand as a witness. This is beautiful. This is stunning. You need to really internalize this because this is going to be followed up by another aya that will clarify it. And another Hadeeth for those of you who take to accept such Hadeeth and you will see Insha'Allah, I'm addressing all possible gateways to negate this evidence. And you will see for yourself, there is no denying it. There's no way to refuse what we're looking at. So Allahh (swt) has identified someone who has the full knowledge of Al- Kitāb. The question is who is this person?

Key observations about Aya 13:43:

Let's make some key observations about this aya.

First Allahh (swt) is vouching for someone who has the knowledge of the scriptural message, meaning this قُلْ is a direct statement in the voice of Allahh (swt) teaching our beloved ﷺ . So, our beloved ﷺ is being taught with the voice of Allahh (swt). The voice of Allahh (swt) is vouching to someone who has the full knowledge of Al- Kitāb. Okay. Who is that person? Obviously, it could be an angel, but it's not likely to be an angel because angels don't just appear and testify on behalf of Mohammad ﷺ . So, who is that person?

Now let's analyze the word شَهِيد 'Shaheed' versus شَاهِد 'Shahid'. This is really important in the Qurʿān it uses 'Shaheed' sometimes and it uses 'Shahid' sometimes. And there is a big difference. So for example, in Sūrah Yousaf the word 'Shahid' is used

قَالَ هِيَ رَٰوَدَتْنِي عَن نَّفْسِيۚ وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْ أَهْلِهَآ إِن كَانَ قَمِيصُهُۥ قُدَّ مِن قُبُلٍ فَصَدَقَتْ وَهُوَ مِنَ ٱلْكَٰذِبِينَ

and a witness, expert witness, testified who is a qualified person. So, what is that 'Shahid' described for or used for? He provided an expert testimony that if Yousaf's shirt was split from the front, then he was attacking her. And if Yousaf's shirt was split from the back then she was attacking him and therefore he provided expert testimony. The Qurʿān referred to him as ‘Shahid’ word right here. Okay. What about ‘Shaheed’? Whenever ‘Shaheed’ is used in the Qurʿān, it is referring to a direct observer or a direct firsthand witness or an eyewitness. In other words, someone who saw someone who can be there during the event, during the act, during the observation opportunity, not an expert witness, not a secondary witness, a direct firsthand witness. I hope this is clear.

Allahh (swt) is telling us in this aya that Allahh (swt) is ‘Shaheed’ of course, Allahh (swt) is a firsthand observer of everything in the universe. Who else? And this man, this person وَمَنْ عِندَهُۥ عِلْمُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ. Again, who is that person? In the Qurʿān the only person who is vouched for by Allahh (swt) to have been taught by Allahh (swt) the knowledge of the scriptural message is Ɛīssā himself. So, you look at aya 3:48, Allahh (swt) describes Ɛīssā

وَيُعَلِّمُهُ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَٱلْحِكْمَةَ وَٱلتَّوْرَىٰةَ وَٱلْإِنجِيلَ ﴿3:48﴾ -- آل عمران

Allahh (swt) taught him Al- Kitāb and whenever Allahh (swt) is teaching someone it's a perfect knowledge. There's no guess. There's no gaps. There are no holes in his knowledge. Perfect knowledge. Therefore, Ɛīssā عِندَهُۥ عِلْمُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ. Ɛīssā has the knowledge of the scripture or the Kitāb.

Where else? In Sūrah Al-Māʾidah 5:110. Again, this is the second ‘Jannah’. If you remember any evidence, we need two at least or more ‘Jannah’. Remember this rule, because this rule is going to be really relevant when we come to talk about the aya about the crucifixion. Now, what does Allahh (swt) says in aya 5:110. Allahh (swt) is addressing Ɛīssā

إِذْ قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱذْكُرْ نِعْمَتِى عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَىٰ وَٰلِدَتِكَ إِذْ أَيَّدتُّكَ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ تُكَلِّمُ ٱلنَّاسَ فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ وَكَهْلًا وَإِذْ عَلَّمْتُكَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَٱلْحِكْمَةَ وَٱلتَّوْرَىٰةَ وَٱلْإِنجِيلَ وَإِذْ تَخْلُقُ مِنَ ٱلطِّينِ كَهَيْـَٔةِ ٱلطَّيْرِ بِإِذْنِى فَتَنفُخُ فِيهَا فَتَكُونُ طَيْرًۢا بِإِذْنِى وَتُبْرِئُ ٱلْأَكْمَهَ وَٱلْأَبْرَصَ بِإِذْنِى وَإِذْ تُخْرِجُ ٱلْمَوْتَىٰ بِإِذْنِى وَإِذْ كَفَفْتُ بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ عَنكَ إِذْ جِئْتَهُم بِٱلْبَيِّنَٰتِ فَقَالَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْهُمْ إِنْ هَٰذَآ إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿5:110﴾ - المائدة

Ya Ɛīssā Ibn Maryam and then he gives him a bunch of information. And then he says وَإِذْ عَلَّمْتُكَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ I have taught you the book. I have taught you the Kitāb, the scripture, the message, the science of the register all of those things are wrapped up in the word Kitāb. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is vouching twice for Ɛīssā that عِندَهُۥ عِلْمُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ that he has the knowledge of Al-Kitāb. Therefore, this aya 13:43 when Allahh (swt) is teaching Mohamad ﷺ to say I have a witness. Guess who that witness is? It is a Ɛīssā himself present as a ‘Shaheed’ direct observer. Observing the events, observing everything that is taking place.

That's not enough. We need more and there is more coming, just hold on and you will see that there is more compelling evidence. This aya from Sūrah Al-Zukhruf 43:45, Allahh (swt) addresses our beloved ﷺ with a strange request, with a strange instruction. You will read it and you'll scratch your head what is this talking about? All of the translators translated it and left it alone. Did not say anything about it. Most of the commentators went all over the place to try to come up with a justification for this aya. And yet the justification is screaming right in front of us. The aya says to Muhammad ﷺ

وَسْـَٔلْ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِن قَبْلِكَ مِن رُّسُلِنَآ أَجَعَلْنَا مِن دُونِ ٱلرَّحْمَٰنِ ءَالِهَةً يُعْبَدُونَ ﴿43:45﴾ - الزخرف

And ask some of the messengers whom we sent before you: Did we insert as intermediaries to Ar-Raḥmān any gods to be worshiped?

Ask some of the messengers whom we have sent before you. Listen! Allahh (swt) is instructing Muhammad ﷺ ask the prior messengers that we have sent before you. You asked them. What does that mean? They're not there. Well, they are at least one of them. Allahh (swt) referred to him as a Shaheed, a direct witness who was there. Who is witnessing the events in the life of our beloved ﷺ and witnessing that Muhammad ﷺ was a messenger from Allahh (swt).

The rest of this aya shall become extremely relevant in the next segment Insha'Allah when we talk about Ɛīssā and close the series with segment part eight. But for now, the first part of this aya is really the most important and most pertinent to the conversation that we're having, which is what is the relationship between Ɛīssā and Muhammad ﷺ ? So far, we have established new evidence in addition to the six that we've provided in part six, that Ɛīssā was there and Ɛīssā himself was called upon as a witness. Ɛīssā himself was called upon as a reference for Muhammad ﷺ to inquire from, to learn from and to ask questions.

Importance of using شَهِيد Shaheed as a descriptor in Aya 13:43?

Therefore, now we have to move to the next part, which is what is the importance of using 'Shaheed'? Why is the word 'Shaheed' specifically used? And does this shed any information on the question of who was Ɛīssā to Mohammed ﷺ ? This is going to be stunning. This is going to leave you absolutely speechless. Yes. Some of you will not understand anything I'm going to say. And some of you are going to say, wow, this is so powerful because it ties a million things together in the Qurʿān. It brings so many things together and explains them with a beautiful elegance that only the Qurʿān can provide.

So, to do this, we go to Sūrah Qāf, which we have covered before in "YT 76 What is Shayṭān and what is the 'Qareen'?" We're not going to describe the full paragraph that I covered in that segment. I encourage you to go back and watch that segment in full to refresh your memory and to relearn the concept of 'Qareen'. Suffices for us in this segment that we go to aya number 50:21, where Allahh (swt) is describing in that scene.

وَجَآءَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّعَهَا سَآئِقٌ وَشَهِيدٌ ﴿50:21﴾

And every 'nafs' comes, and with it is a driver and a dutiful witness.

And every 'Nafs' at that time, at the time of death if you remember the daze of death وَجَآءَتْ سَكْرَةُ ٱلْمَوْتِ the daze before death or the daze before deep sleep. If you remember, we've talked about this before. And every 'Nafs' at that time comes and with it a driver and a dutiful witness 'Shaheed'. 'Shaheed' is a direct observer. 'Shaheed' is a firsthand witness as we described. We talked in that segment about the 'Shaheed' becoming 'Qareen'. Someone who is yoked. Someone who is adjoined to this 'Nafs. Separate from that 'Nafs' but totally adjoined. They are two, but they're really so tied together that you cannot separate them from one another. But still, there's two of them, not just one because the Qurʿān clearly says وَجَآءَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّعَهَا سَآئِقٌ وَشَهِيدٌ with the 'Nafs' is a driver and a witness. We've covered all of this in that segment. Please refer to it.

Now we go to aya 50:23 and Allahh (swt) continues.

وَقَالَ قَرِينُهُۥ هَٰذَا مَا لَدَىَّ عَتِيدٌ ﴿50:23﴾

And one who is adjoined to the dutiful witness (i.e., the Insān that is the subject of this story) says: "I have this one (i.e., the dutiful witness) as the consenting justifier with me!" [see Aya 43:36]

And the one who is adjoined to the dutiful witness, not necessarily the witness, but the 'Nafs' itself. Remember the 'Qareen' and the 'Nafs' are adjoined. They're tied together. They're yoked. They are indistinguishable, but yet they're two separate beings. They're two separate entities. Do we really understand this? No, we don't. Let's admit it. Allahh (swt) is telling us there is a 'Qareen' for every 'Nafs', as we will see our beloved ﷺ confirmed this in a Hadeeth about himself. We're going to see this, but we understand only what the Qurʿān is teaching us. Some of it is part of 'Ghayb'. We don't really understand the how, but the fact that the Qurʿān is talking about 'Qareen' is absolutely undeniable. It is absolutely irrefutable. We cannot throw it away. We cannot do away with it. We cannot say I don't comprehend it therefore I reject it.

No, the ‘Qareen’ is mentioned and it's mentioned as something that comes along with the ‘Nafs’ at the time of the daze; daze before death and daze before deep sleep as we discussed.

Now, this person, this ‘Nafs’ comes, who is adjoined to the dutiful witness, and says, I have this one, this dutiful witness, this ‘Shaheed’ as my consenting justifier testifying on my behalf. Meaning he is the one to blame. Allahh (swt) with the rest of this paragraph tells us you are to blame and ‘Al-Nafs’ is to blame, regardless of who you want to throw the responsibility upon. This is the gist of the whole paragraph. And I invite you to go back to that segment where we discussed Shayṭān and ‘Qareen’ in and all of this stuff.

Did our beloved ﷺ know this????

Now, the obvious question is, did our beloved ﷺ know this? Did Muhammad ﷺ know this about himself that he had the possibility of a ‘Qareen’. This is just supporting evidence. This is just to answer people who claim Muhammad ﷺ never told us this. No, he did. He did. And you need to learn how to interpret the narrations that you claim are primary sources for you. We provided the primary sources from the Qurʿān. Now we have over nine specific primary references and direct evidence. If those are not sufficient for you then you go to the Hadeeth and you will find this Hadeeth and watch what this Hadeeth says. I'm not going to tell you what it says. It's so obvious. Right In front of your face.

وفي الحديث الصحيح: «أن النبي - صلى الله عليه وسلم - قال: ما منكم من أحد إلا وقد وكل به قرينه من الجن وقرينه من الملائكة، قالوا: وإياك؟ قال :وإياي إلا أن الله أعانني عليه فأسلم فلا يأمرني إلا بخير». (رواه مسلم وأحمد)

In a hadeeth (deemed Ṣaḥeeḥ), that the prophet said: “None of you is without an arbiter over him: Either a ‘Qareen’ from the Jinn, or a ‘Qareen’ from the angels.” They (the Ṣaḥābas) asked: “Even you?” He said: “Even I, except that Allahh was my source against him, and he surrendered. And thus, he commands me only towards good understanding!”

In that Hadeeth, which is deemed “Saheeh’ by the way, it is reported that the prophet ﷺ said none of you is without an arbiter over him, either a ‘Qareen’ from the Jinn or a ‘Qareen’ from the angels. So, the prophet ﷺ is talking about a ‘Qareen’, at least a ‘Qareen’ from Jinn and ‘Qareen’ from Malaika. Remember the language of the Abraham Locution, that we defined is very likely what the prophet ﷺ was using. He used the word 'Wukela'. It doesn't mean he is responsible for him. 'Wukela', as in the Qurʿān, it means he is an arbiter over him. Meaning he provides the justification. He provides the explanation. He provides the description in the definitions and those details that help a person makes a decision. Remember the Sūrah Qāf as we just described it.

Now, if we understand the language this way, this is indeed a Hadeeth Saheeh. This is the Hadeeth that uses the Abrahamic Locution correctly. Allahh (swt) taught us the Abrahamic Locution. Our beloved ﷺ is using it in his Hadeeth perfectly. He continues. They asked him even you? And he answered. Even I, accept that Allahh (swt) was my source against him "Ayanani Alehi'. Remember إِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ وَإِيَّاكَ نَسْتَعِينُ discussion about Sūrah Al-Fātiḥa. Our beloved ﷺ is using this verb "Ayanani Alehi'. And then he helped me against him or he provided me information against what he was telling me. Why do we say this? Because the rest of the Hadeeth explains it. 'Faaslama' He became a Muslim. His guardian became a Muslim. Think, don't reject it. Think, at the end of the segment, I'm going to ask you some piercing questions that you need to reflect. Don't dismiss that which you do not understand.

Our beloved ﷺ says 'Faaslama'. 'Fala yamurin ila bikhair' He only commands me toward good understanding. Hmm so Allahh (swt) supported the 'Nafs' of our beloved ﷺ against his 'Qareen' and his 'Qareen' became a full submitting Muslim to help in the understanding. To help in which understanding? In the understanding of 3ilm Al-Kitāb. I hope this is clear.

I'm not going to say it. Don't write it in the comments. I'm going to delete anyone who writes anything in the comment to blurt it out. This is knowledge for you. This is knowledge for your سَّاعَةِ. This is knowledge for your interpretation and understanding and reflection. Take the time, internalize it, stew on it, brew on it. Think about it. Think about it especially before you go to sleep. Insha'Allah, Allahh (swt) will open up more knowledge and more understanding.

Remember

وَسْـَٔلْ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِن قَبْلِكَ مِن رُّسُلِنَآ أَجَعَلْنَا مِن دُونِ ٱلرَّحْمَٰنِ ءَالِهَةً يُعْبَدُونَ ﴿43:45﴾ - الزخرف

And ask some of the messengers whom we sent before you: Did we insert as intermediaries to Ar-Raḥmān any gods to be worshiped?

Asked some of the messengers whom we sent before you. Allahh (swt) is not making a silly request of Muhammad ﷺ . Allahh (swt) is telling him something very real. This is not metaphorical. This is real. This is clearly indicating that someone was there to answer those questions.

The Supposed Crucifixion Aya

We continue now with the important second question, the supposed crucifixion aya or the aya of the supposed crucifixion. We're going to see it has nothing to do with crucifixion. It has nothing to do with crucifixion; I mean, what I'm saying. Just be patient, watch the evidence and you will see for yourself. Remember the rule you need two 'Jannah'. You need two 'Jannah' that single aya which is the only aya that is supposed to have talked about crucifixion of Jesus does not have any other wing. Does not have any other evidence. Does not have any other 'Jannah' to carry it, to lift it, to provide us the understanding. Therefore, right away there's a big huge blinking question mark on whether or not that aya is really talking about what we were told it was talking about.

Hundreds maybe thousands of scholars have debated and discussed and no one asks, do we have any other supporting evidence from the Qurʿān? No, they ran directly to the stories that were told to us, brought to us by the corrupted gospels and they accepted them hook, line and sinkers. They started discussing whether or not part of them were right and part of them were wrong. And now we have YouTube channels and websites and books that are written about what the Qurʿān supposedly says in that one aya, one word. Where in reality, as you will see, it has nothing to do with crucifixion. And I'm going to show you with your own eyes. The evidence is absolutely incredible and unbelievably strong and powerful.

The Qurʿān is not talking about this cross or the crucifixion that they reportedly said it was talking about. Now, I want to remind you that Allahh (swt) in Sūrah Al-Kahf reminded us that the Qurʿān was sent to warn those who claimed that Allahh (swt) has taken an intermediary as a son and confirm they have no knowledge about him and neither did their forefathers. Conceited is that word that comes out of their mouths. Everything they say is but lies. Please remember this, have this engraved in your Weltanschauung everything they told us everything. Everything they told us about Ɛīssā is a lie. And I mean everything you're going to see at the end of this segment.

وَيُنذِرَ ٱلَّذِينَ قَالُوا ٱتَّخَذَ ٱللَّهُ وَلَدًا ﴿18:4﴾ مَّا لَهُم بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ وَلَا لِآبَآئِهِمْ كَبُرَتْ كَلِمَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَفْوَٰهِهِمْ إِن يَقُولُونَ إِلَّا كَذِبًا ﴿18:5﴾ - الكهف

(The Qurʿān was sent) To warn those who claimed that Allahh has taken an intermediary as a son (18:4) They have no knowledge about him (Ɛīssā), and neither did their forefathers. Conceited is that word that comes out of their mouths. Everything they say is but lies (18:5)

I'm going to ask you some questions that will leave you stunned and Insha'Allah in the next segment we will elaborate even more for those who are ready to receive the truth and to receive سَّاعَةِ. All of this knowledge is so urgent and so important and so relevant for your benefit. This is why I'm taking this risk. This is why I'm putting myself on the line. My reputation, my background, my name on the line for your benefit, just to make sure you receive this information. You want to believe it. You want to reject it. That's your story. I want to clear my conscience and present myself to Allahh (swt) that I've done my job. I've done the best I can to put out the knowledge that the Allahh (swt) has allowed me to have access to.

Further warning against guessing related to Ɛīssā's story:

Another warning that Allahh (swt) has provided us also in Sūrah 4:157.

وَقَوْلِهِمْ إِنَّا قَتَلْنَا ٱلْمَسِيحَ عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ رَسُولَ ٱللَّهِ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ وَمَا صَلَبُوهُ وَلَٰكِن شُبِّهَ لَهُمْ وَإِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ لَفِى شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ مَا لَهُم بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِلَّا ٱتِّبَاعَ ٱلظَّنِّ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ يَقِينًا ﴿4:157﴾ - النساء

… and those who have disagreed about him are in great doubt about him: They have no knowledge through him, except following the guesses…

وَإِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ لَفِى شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ مَا لَهُم بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِلَّا ٱتِّبَاعَ ٱلظَّنِّ those who have disagreed about him (about Ɛīssā), this is specifically talking about Ɛīssā, are in great doubt about him. They have no knowledge through him or about him except following their guesses. This is clear. The Qurʿān is telling us they don't know anything. Don't listen to them. Don't even ask them. Don't inquire from their books. Don't seek any kind of ideas or opinions from them. They have no knowledge about him, period.

REVIEW OF KEY POINTS:

But before we discuss this aya, let's review some key points.

1. First. There is one 'Siraat' not many. Never in the Qurʿān it says 'Siraat' in the plural. One 'Siraat'; one methodology. One way to explore the truth. Specifically, the stories. The stories that are reported to us in the Qurʿān cannot possibly have multiple interpretations. So, don't tell me it is this one and this one, and maybe both are correct. Not with stories. Stories are either black or white. It's either this way or that way. It cannot be possibly both. Allahh (swt) is not playing games with stories. Allahh (swt) is telling us the truth. Some of this information may be concealed and requires toiling and work on our behalf but it is important that we do this. Because when we get to the truth, we establish this tranquility and confidence within our core, and we feel the truth touching us. Therefore, stories cannot possibly have multiple interpretations. Take that idea out of your head.

2. The second point is إسمه أحمد his name is more praiseworthy, just like إسمه المسيح his name was wiped or is wiped. As I described it as a descriptor for the name, it is not a proper name for the person Ɛīssā. Remember this, this is something we talked about in part two and part three.

3. Third point صراط الذين أنعمت عليهم the methodology of those upon whom you have favored. We ask for this صراط 'Siraat' in every time we read Al-Fātiḥa. This صراط 'Siraat' clearly indicates that those Allahh (swt) favored applied the methodology. Therefore, we are asking for this methodology to learn the stories of these people and to learn from them. Therefore, it behooves us to learn the right questions and the right stories.

4. Number four, there is no Hadeeth nor a clear agreement among the predecessors regarding crucifixion. I don't want to hear anybody saying oh, you're going against the predecessors the salaf. No, this is bogus. They don't have an agreement on this. As a matter of fact, the Qurʿān is telling us they are all wrong. Let me repeat it. The Qurʿān is telling us all of them are wrong. As I just demonstrated from these ayas.

5. Finally, all the currently available opinions were available before the Qurʿān. Remember this, none of the current opinions are new after the Qurʿān. All of them were already available before the Qurʿān, and this can be demonstrated historically.

So Allahh (swt) tells

وَإِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ لَفِى شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ مَا لَهُم بِهِۦ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِلَّا ٱتِّبَاعَ ٱلظَّنِّ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ يَقِينًا ﴿4:157﴾ - النساء

All those who disagreed about him (Ɛīssā) are in doubt about him: They have no knowledge about him, except the guessing… And they did not kill him, in certainty!

They have no knowledge about him or through him. Therefore, we accept the Qurʿān.

All 4 Current Theories about Ɛīssā's Crucifixion are Wrong:

What are these four current theories about our Ɛīssā ʿs crucifixion? All of them are wrong by the way, as we will see.

1. He was substituted (knowingly or unknowingly)
   The first one is he was substituted knowingly or unknowingly. There is a disagreement if the person who substituted for Ɛīssā on the cross, supposedly knew he was doing this or voluntarily that this are not irrelevant. The point is he was substituted by someone else.

2. He was crucified but survived the crucifixion
   The second theory he was crucified but survived the crucifixion. Because they brought him down early on Friday night supposedly before the sunset and he was not yet dead.

3. He was crucified but died a natural death
   The third theory says he was crucified but died a natural death. Died in natural death! In other words, it was not the cross that killed him. It was Allahh (swt) who decided that it was time for him to die. But he happened to be, just happened to be taking a rest, a comforting position nailed to the cross. That's a true opinion. Actually, the blogging theology guy has invited this one Professor who keeps talking about this theory and he keeps iterating it on the blogging theology. That's why I keep telling you, there is a dubious agenda at work. You need to pay attention. They're not as innocent as they look. They're representing certain trends and interests. And they're trying to insert certain creeds in the minds of the educated Muslims. So, this theory says, he was crucified, nailed, pain, all of this stuff, bleeding, you know, the thorns, all of the scene, but he didn't die because of that. Allahh (swt) caused him to die. Allahh (swt), caused him to die.

4. He was crucified and died on the cross
   And of course, the fourth theory he was crucified and died on the cross.

All these four theories, according to the Qurʿān are bogus. They're lies. They're guesses. They have no knowledge through him or about for making any of these claims. So, what is the truth? What is the Qurʿān really telling us? Let's analyze the Qurʿān.

The Supposed Crucifixion Aya

The aya is 4:157, Allahh (swt) tells us

وَقَوْلِهِمْ إِنَّا قَتَلْنَا ٱلْمَسِيحَ عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ رَسُولَ ٱللَّهِ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ وَمَا صَلَبُوهُ وَلَٰكِن شُبِّهَ لَهُمْ وَإِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ لَفِى شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ مَا لَهُم بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِلَّا ٱتِّبَاعَ ٱلظَّنِّ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ يَقِينًا ﴿4:157﴾ - النساء

And their claim, “We have slayed Al-Massīḥ, Ɛīssā, son of Maryam, the messenger of Allahh.” And they did not slay him, and they did not identify his biological lineage, but it (the affair about Ɛīssā) was made confusing for them. And indeed, those who have disagreed about him are in great doubt about him: They have (acquired) no knowledge (of Kitāb) through him, except following the guesses! And they have not destroyed it (his knowledge of Kitāb), for sure!

And their claim we have slayed Al-Massīḥ, Ɛīssā, son of Maryam, the messenger of Allahh (swt). Let me
