Yahya and his Mother, Maryam?

Irrefutable Evidence from the Qurʿān on Who Was Yahya's Mother!

Salamun Alaykum,

I don't think I exaggerate when I say that this segment is probably going to be the most revealing segment you have heard on this channel so far. Hopefully there will be more revealing segments in the future, but this one definitely is the top so far. I hope you stay with us all the way to the end. I promise you it is jam packed with new revelations and new discoveries and new disclosures that you've never heard before. Insha'Allah, you will learn a lot from this segment on how to apply the methodology and how we can engage the Qurʿān for better purposes Insha'Allah.

This segment is titled Yahya and his mother, Maryam. And I know this is the shock and this is sort of spoiling the ending a little bit. But I need to get you ready Insha'Allah so that you appreciate the depth of analysis and research that we provide from directly from the Qurʿān. Directly with irrefutable evidence from the Qurʿān Insha'Allah. We will also deal with a lot of other disclosures. Things that you can't expect right now. So please be patient and ready to receive a lot of additional information.

I have a small warning to those who are not willing to empty their cup before entering the segment. This segment is going to give you a major existential crisis. If you have attached yourself to any of what was written by human beings, and you're not willing to accept what Allahh (swt) is clearly showing us, as I will demonstrate, then you're going to have a major existential crisis. I don't say this with any sort of happiness. I'm just letting you know that you're in for a really tough ride, unless you empty your cup before starting.

This is segment part two out of four parts in the series “Ɛīssā, son of Maryam”, which we started a week ago. The theme of the series is to explore methodical Quranic evidence away from myths, legends, and folklores.

Before we start, let's review a couple of disclosures. We base our interpretation and the translation on the Abrahamic Locution. This is a concept that we fully developed within this channel exclusively, you're not going to learn about it from anywhere else. It's directly extracted from the Qurʿān. I hope you go back and revisit the playlist called Abrahamic Locution. We apply the organic Qurʿānic methodology, which is a methodology extracted from within the Qurʿān itself. We don't make it up. We don't have to invent how to deal with the Qurʿān. We don't have to presume that we know what the Qurʿān is better than what the Qurʿān tells us about itself. We accept the truth above all from the Qurʿān alone. If we have other corroborating evidence such as Hadith or Seerah or any kind of historical documentation and linguistic documentation, that's fine. But the primary source is the Qurʿān above all other sources. I advise you, please don't ask questions unless you have watched the whole segment and not all questions will be answered in this segment.

The Series “Ɛīssā, Son of Maryam?”:

This is part of a four-part series. Remember that we will discuss additional questions in future parts Insha’Allah. Let's review a little bit what the series is all about.

Part one, we discussed “Zakaryia and his son Yahya”. In this part, which is part two we will be discussing “Yahya and his mother Maryam”. The third part, which is the one after this one, “Ɛīssā his birth and mission”. We will talk about a lot of details. There will be a lot of surprises I promise you. Things that you haven't even thought about are right there in front of our eyes, waiting to be explored and Insha’Allah, we will disclose them. In part four, we will deal with “Ɛīssā's death and his potential return”. Will he return or not?

In this segment

We will start with answering a very critical question which will be the foundation upon which everything else will unfold and unravel. So, all of the hoor, all of the ayat about the story of Ɛīssā, Yahya, Zakaryia and Maryam in the Qurʿān will arrange themselves magically. Once we answer the single most important question; Did baby Ɛīssā speak from the crib? I know this is shocking to most of you because we are all raised believing that he did. You will see for yourself whether or not he did and whether or not that paragraph from Sūrah Maryam is actually pointing to baby Ɛīssā or not. We will also answer

Who was Zakaryia's woman? Of course, Maryam, as I've been saying. We will give all of the evidence, very clear evidence Insha'Allah. We will deal with the story of Zakaryia and his woman from Sūrah Maryam first, and then from Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān next.

We will answer a very important question that I left you with during the last part, which is وَلَيْسَ ٱلذَّكَرُ كَٱلْأُنثَىٰ this parenthetical statement that was put in one of the ayats in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. Why was it there? Why didn't anyone talk about this?

We will answer other questions such as why did Allahh (swt) describe Maryam as إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصْطَفَىٰكِ وَطَهَّرَكِ وَٱصْطَفَىٰكِ twice ٱصْطَفَىٰكِ in the same ayat. We will answer that question and you will see the evidence for yourself with your own eyes. No guesswork. It will be right there.

No controversy. No question marks left about either of these questions. We will answer of course, a lot of other questions and some of them that you did not even expect. Some questions will be left to the future and we will identify some of these questions. Then in the last part of this segment, which I know is long and really happy that you're going to stick with us all the way to the end. Because I promise you at the end, there are some amazing things coming up. Why were we told about Yahya? The answer to this question is very serious disclosure. You're going to learn for yourself with your own eyes. The last part, we will deal with a heart melting conclusion, eight lessons of endearment and tenderness in families that we learned from the story of Zakaryia, Maryam, Yahya and Ɛīssā Insha'Allah. So, get yourself your favorite beverage, find yourself a cozy corner to snuggle in, pay attention to everything that we're saying. Get your notebook ready and make sure that you're not disturbed because this is going to be a really, really interesting and fun ride Insha'Allah.

Quranic Principles for engaging the Dhikr

We review a little bit of the Qurʿānic principles for engaging the Dhikr. We've covered them fully in part one. I hope you go back to that. If you have any doubt about how we engage the Dhikr first in Sūrah Al-Kahf Allahh (swt) tells us specifically about the story that relates to Ɛīssā (as),

وَيُنذِرَ ٱلَّذِينَ قَالُوا ٱتَّخَذَ ٱللَّهُ وَلَدًا ﴿18:4﴾ مَّا لَهُم بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ وَلَا لِآبَآئِهِمْ كَبُرَتْ كَلِمَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَفْوَٰهِهِمْ إِن يَقُولُونَ إِلَّا كَذِبًا ﴿18:5﴾ - الكهف

Warning those who claim that Allahh has taken an intermediary as a son (18:4) They have no knowledge about him (īssā), and neither did their forefathers. Conceited is that word that comes out of their mouths. Everything they say is but lies (18:5)

Everything they say is but lies. If we don't believe the Qurʿān, then there's no sense in wasting any time engaging with the Qurʿān. Either we believe the Qurʿān or we don't believe the Qurʿān. You have to make a choice before entering the Qurʿān. إِن يَقُولُونَ إِلَّا كَذِبًا Allahh (swt) is clearly telling us everything they say is a lie, everything. And I mean everything. You're going to see it for yourself. Everything they told us, which was brought from the corrupted in Injīl. Let me underline this statement, which they brought from the corrupted Injīl. Yes. It was not based on our beloved prophet (saws) telling them this or telling them that. They brought the stories written in the books of Tafseer from the corrupted Injīl. Then they over imposed those stories over the Qurʿān. I'm not bulldozing anyone. I'm giving you a fair advanced warning. This is the fact. This is the history. And you're going to see it. Everything they say is a lie.

Another principle is

ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ أَنْبَآءِ ٱلْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهِ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا كُنتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ يُلْقُونَ أَقْلَٰمَهُمْ أَيُّهُمْ يَكْفُلُ مَرْيَمَ وَمَا كُنتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿3:44﴾ - آل عمران

That (i.e., the story of Maryam and Ɛīssā and Zakariya and Yaḥya recounted in this sūrah) is an account of the truth that is (currently) beyond disclosure (to anyone at the time of the revelation of this sūrah), and that we enjoin (as guidance in your prophetic career) upon you (Muḥammad)… (3:44)

ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ أَنْبَآءِ ٱلْغَيْبِ which we will see in the middle of the story of Zakaryia, Maryam, Yahya and Ɛīssā in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. Allahh (swt) is clearly telling us and telling our beloved prophet (saws), whatever we're bringing you in here (Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān) of that story was beyond disclosure was "ghayib"غَيْبِ. Listen to that word, "ghayib" غَيْبِ means unknown. No one knew this at the time it was revealed. Which means that corrupted Injīl which existed at that time was telling a bogus story. If our Tafseer scholars brought that story, they're wrong. They're contradicting this ayat right there in front of us.

Did they do it for good intentions or for bad intentions? To be honest with you, I don't care. All I care about is making sure that I point out to you where we have some significant problems in our own tradition books, so that we can fix them and keep moving forward. So that we don't burden future generations with the same problems that we have inherited. We have to fix it and keep moving forward. I hope you all join me in supporting this effort instead of criticizing it and labeling me with all sorts of negative names. I don't care what you label me with. I have a Teflon back to be honest with you. Everything slides off my back. I don't care. The problem is what will you do with your own children? What will you tell your own grandchildren? Are you going to keep telling them these stories that they don't accept? And as soon as they have the opportunity to revolt, they run away from Islam and you all know what I'm talking about. Therefore, please take this seriously learn so we can discuss these stories. Maybe my interpretation is wrong. Improve on them. Maybe the methodology is not complete, help us make it better. Engage in a positive way and active way, instead of criticizing and rejecting everything before you invest any time in learning it.

We will continue with the principals, Insha'Allah

إِنَّ هَٰذَا لَهُوَ ٱلْقَصَصُ ٱلْحَقُّ وَمَا مِنْ إِلَٰهٍ إِلَّا ٱللَّهُ وَإِنَّ ٱللَّهَ لَهُوَ ٱلْعَزِيزُ ٱلْحَكِيمُ ﴿3:62﴾ - آل عمران

These are the true stories, and there is no deity other than Allahh, and Allahh is the mighty, the source of discernment.

Allahh (swt) tells us إِنَّ هَٰذَا لَهُوَ ٱلْقَصَصُ ٱلْحَقُّ again in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān which we're gonna discuss today about the story of Zakaryia, Yahya, Maryam and Ɛīssā. These are the true stories. We're telling you the true stories, except the Qurʿān don't accept anything else imposed over the Qurʿān.

And then finally,

وَلَئِنْ أَتَيْتَ ٱلَّذِينَ أُوتُوا ٱلْكِتَٰبَ بِكُلِّ ءَايَةٍ مَّا تَبِعُوا قِبْلَتَكَ وَمَآ أَنتَ بِتَابِعٍ قِبْلَتَهُمْ وَمَا بَعْضُهُم بِتَابِعٍ قِبْلَةَ بَعْضٍ وَلَئِنِ ٱتَّبَعْتَ أَهْوَآءَهُم مِّنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَكَ مِنَ ٱلْعِلْمِ إِنَّكَ إِذًا لَّمِنَ ٱلظَّٰلِمِينَ (2:145) – البقرة

…And if you follow their fancy after what has come to you of the evidence-based knowledge, then you are certainly among the transgressors!

I asked Allahh (swt) that we're all going to shun and avoid being among the transgressors.

A Few Abrahamic Locution Reminders:

A few Abrahamic Locution reminders we've discussed in prior segments. This is really relevant because some people insist on coming into a middle of a four-part series, this is part two, without reading anything or learning anything about what we have done in over 80 different segments already on this channel. So that's fine. Let's review a few concepts. If you want to question them, please go back and watch the prior segments.

Nabiy (Prophet):

The first concept is about Nabiy which we translate as prophet roughly this is not the best translation, but this is the best word in English that we have. Prophet is someone who is given a divine mission. A divine mission, not message. He is expected to execute, to carry out a task of some sort or multiple tasks based on an existing scripture. So, a Nabiy does not exist in the absence of a scripture. There must be a scripture that he applies to perform the mission with which he is tasked.

Rassool (Messenger):

A Rasool on the other hand is someone who is given a new scripture of some sort. someone who is bringing a new scripture to deliver to people verbatim. We proved this and we showed you this from the Qurʿān. This definition is very clear in the Qurʿān Allahh (swt) sends a messenger and expects to deliver verbatim the message/the scripture. In this role a Rasool is not tasked with the implementation of the law. A Rasool is not tasked with the implementation. So, if someone is Rasool and Nabiy, of course, they will be tasked with the implementation. But a Rasool by himself, such as Ɛīssā, Ɛīssā was not tasked with the implementation. He was just a Rasool bringing a message. So those are some basic details. If you want some more information refer to this segment titled: "YT55 How to Know if you can trust a Qurʿān translation? Quick tests for everyone based on Sūrah Yussuf".

Rūḥ (Message or Messenger):

Another concept is the concept of Rūḥ. We talked about this, it means message or the messenger bringing that message from Allahh (swt). He is a divine emissary or the divine message itself. Rūḥ does not mean spirit or soul as they told us. It has no basis for that interpretation in the Qurʿān. Rūḥ in the Qurʿān is very clear and it occurs in over a dozen different ayats. Very clearly it is the message or the messenger; the delivery vehicle or the message itself. So, it could be an angel. It could be another person, etc. That's the definition of the word Rūḥ.

Waḥy:

The definition of the word Waḥy is the specific divine instructions given to prophets and to others. Other people? So, for example, we will see when we talk about different prophets, they are given instructions. This instruction is called Waḥy. But there are other people such as the mother of Mūssa̅, she was given a Waḥy and other people that we will see Insha'Allah in the future.

The Gentle Breath in the Ear:

فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِى ٱلصُّورِ نَفْخَةٌ وَٰحِدَةٌ ﴿69:13﴾ - الحاقّة

And thus, when a single, gentle breath is blown into the curved instrument (the ear),

And finally, we talked about the gentle breath in the ear نُفِخَ فِى ٱلصُّورِ. This is a concept that we explored a little bit in the last part of the prior series part 3.5 of the series "Why no stories equal no Qurʿān". We explored even further in the very first part of this series part one of "Ɛīssā, son of Maryam". Please go back to this. But basically, a single gentle breath is blown into the curved instrument, which is the ear. ٱلصُّورِ is not the horn that we were led to believe. It means the curved instrument, which is right here on our head and all of the references to hearing or blowing in the ٱلصُّورِ in this curved instrument, refer to this divine revelation that we all receive, especially during the daze that I talked about in prior segments. If you want to learn more about that referred to Part 3.5 of the series "Why No Stories = No Quran?".

Please do not belie that which you do not understand. If you don't take the time to really understand this very, very complex subject and very involved set of evidences in this segment, please don't belie it's for your own good. Don't block yourself from believing that, which you don't understand. So, admit I don't understand it. Tell me the evidence is not clear. That's fine. I accept that. But don't argue against something. You don't understand. Allahh (swt) teaches us in Sūrah Younas

بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِمَا لَمْ يُحِيطُوا بِعِلْمِهِ وَلَمَّا يَأْتِهِمْ تَأْوِيلُهُ كَذَٰلِكَ كَذَّبَ ٱلَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَٱنظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَٰقِبَةُ ٱلظَّٰلِمِينَ ﴿10:39﴾ - يونس

Nay, they belied that which they did not comprehend, and they had yet to receive its interpretation. That’s how those before them have belied too. And thus, look at how was the outcome for the transgressors.

“Nay, they belied that which they did not comprehend, and they had yet to receive its interpretation”. Meaning they could not handle the interpretation. Not because the interpretation is not given. They did not have the ability to receive it. Therefore, don't belie it, admit that you are short on these abilities. That's how those, before them have belied too. And that's look at how the outcome for the transgressors ظَّٰلِمِينَ is going to be for the transgressors. Please don't be among the ظَّٰلِمِينَ. Give yourself time, be patient with yourself. Allow yourself the opportunity to learn. Even if you have to watch this segment 10 times, I promise you it's worth it. It is really critical to everything else that's going to come later in your own life and in the lives of your own children and grandchildren. All right, enough introductions.

Did Baby Ɛīssā speak from the crib, in defense of his mother?

Who spoke in Aya 19:27-32? Answer: IT WAS YAHYA!

We will start with the part that I told you about “Did Baby Ɛīssā speak from the crib, in defense of his mother?” Who actually spoke in ayat 27 to 32 from Sūrah Maryam? The answer is, it was Yahya. I'm going to give you the answer and we'll dive into the details. We really need to answer this question straight forward, head on with all the evidence, all the markings and Insha'Allah, you will see it for yourself.

And thus, she brought him forth, to her (original) community, taking the burden for him. They said: "O Maryam! You have presented something concocted!	فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ قَوْمَهَا تَحْمِلُهُۥ ۖ قَالُوا۟ يَٰمَرْيَمُ لَقَدْ جِئْتِ شَيْـًٔا فَرِيًّا ﴿19:27﴾
"O 'sister' of Hārūn! You father was not a subordinate to a regime of aberration, and your mother was not a harlot!" LEAVE THIS AYA UNTIL WE DISCUSS THE STORY OF MUSSA! THIS WAS AN ACCUSATION, NOT AN EXPRESSION OF ENDEARMENT !!!!!	يَٰٓأُخْتَ هَٰرُونَ مَا كَانَ أَبُوكِ ٱمْرَأَ سَوْءٍ وَمَا كَانَتْ أُمُّكِ بَغِيًّا ﴿19:28﴾
And thus, she referred (them) to him. They said: "How are we to converse with someone who has been upon the way of the scripture since being a boy?"	فَأَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ ۖ قَالُوا۟ كَيْفَ نُكَلِّمُ مَن كَانَ فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ صَبِيًّا ﴿19:29﴾
He said: "I am a wayfarer of Allahh! He gave me the opportunity to learn the scripture, and made me a Nabiyy,	قَالَ إِنِّى عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ ءَاتَىٰنِىَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَجَعَلَنِى نَبِيًّا ﴿19:30﴾
"And made me blessed wherever I may be, and he enjoined upon me 'Salaat' and purification as long as I am alive,	وَجَعَلَنِى مُبَارَكًا أَيْنَ مَا كُنتُ وَأَوْصَٰنِى بِٱلصَّلَوٰةِ وَٱلزَّكَوٰةِ مَا دُمْتُ حَيًّا ﴿19:31﴾
"And constancy of faith through my mother, and he did not make me overbearing nor disconnected from Allahh."	وَبَرًّۢا بِوَٰلِدَتِى وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْنِى جَبَّارًا شَقِيًّا ﴿19:32﴾

We get started with ayat 27, which comes after the scene that we were told Maryam went by the Palm tree and she had this river and the falling dates and all of this stuff. We will leave that part of the scene till next segment. Only the part about being near that Palm tree. That part, we will deal with it in the next segment, because it's dealing with advanced topics that we need to build to understand. We're starting with the part where she came to her people, supposedly with baby Ɛīssā, we're going to see. So, bring your Qurʿān, make sure you keep notes of what we're doing. We're going to jump into a lot of different parts that are sprinkled throughout the two or three different Sūrahs that we're discussing so that we can assemble them in the right order and understand them clearly. So please be patient there's a lot of new techniques that we're using for the first time in this segment.

Ayat 27 starts

فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ قَوْمَهَا تَحْمِلُهُۥ ۖ قَالُوا۟ يَٰمَرْيَمُ لَقَدْ جِئْتِ شَيْـًٔا فَرِيًّا ﴿19:27﴾

And thus, she brought him forth, to her (original) community, taking the burden for him. They said: “O Maryam! You have presented something concocted!

I'm highlighting all sorts of different colors so you can keep track of exactly how I translate different expressions and different words. And thus, she brought him forth to her original community (قَوْمَهَا) taking the burden for him (تَحْمِلُهُ). They said, oh, Maryam, you have presented something concocted. I know that a lot of my Arabic speaking brothers are wondering, where am I coming up with these translations? Just be patient. I'm going to show you as we do in every segment, every word, every expression we give you the foundation why we came up with this translation. Why this interpretation is the most valid interpretation based on the Qurʿānic methodology that we're using?

We take the first part of the ayat فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ. The meaning of فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ, is she exposed him or she brought him forth. She let people recognize or realize what's going on. That's the meaning in a metaphorical way of فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ. Of course, the expression فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ or ٱۡتِ بِهَآ could mean literally to accompany him physically along, but not always. We cannot determine unless we understand the context exactly. If the physical accompaniment is indicated is warranted is justified, or if it is to expose him or to bring him forth. So, both occur in the Qurʿān. And here are some examples from Sūrah Luqmān, which we covered if you remember in part one

يَٰبُنَيَّ إِنَّهَآ إِن تَكُ مِثۡقَالَ حَبَّةٖ مِّنۡ خَرۡدَلٖ فَتَكُن فِي صَخۡرَةٍ أَوۡ فِي ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ أَوۡ فِي ٱلۡأَرۡضِ يَأۡتِ بِهَا ٱللَّهُۚ إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ لَطِيفٌ خَبِيرٞ ﴿31:16﴾ - لقمان

(Luqmān continued:) “O my son! If anything of the weight of a mustard seed, and even if it were in the way of (those whose cores are impenetrable like) a boulder or in the way of the layers of understanding with the scripture, (know that) Allah will bring it forth. Surely Allah is most subtle, all-aware.

“O my son, if anything of the weight”. Remember we're talking about weight. We're not talking about something physical, the weight of mustard seed. “And even if it were in the way of those whose cores are, impenetrable like a Boulder”. Remember we talked about this in the last part. Don't question this interpretation, unless you watch part one. A Boulder or in the way of the layers of understanding with the scripture know that Allahh (swt) will bring it forth. Bring it forth, Allahh (swt) does not carry it and bring it to your attention physically. Of course, that's not what the ayat is talking about. The ayat is talking about letting you understand all of that stuff that ayat was talking about. So يَأْتِ بِهَا ٱللَّهُ is metaphorical, for sure. It is not talking about physical; Allahh (swt), carrying it (AstagfirAllah) and bringing it and putting it in front of you. And to confirm this إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ لَطِيفٌ خَبِيرٌ Allahh (swt) is the most subtle all aware خَبِيرٌ. So, he's not talking about physical things. He's talking about knowledge and information and the 3ilm. This is what the ayat is talking about. This was an instruction from Luqmān to his son, as we said, that was the Zakaryia and Yahya.

And another ayat (258) is from Sūrah Al-Baqarah

قَالَ إِبْرَٰهِـۧمُ فَإِنَّ ٱللَّهَ يَأْتِى بِٱلشَّمْسِ مِنَ ٱلْمَشْرِقِ فَأْتِ بِهَا مِنَ ٱلْمَغْرِبِ ﴿2:258﴾ البقرة -

فَأْتِ بِهَا so Ibrāhīm was having this conversation with this oppressor that he met. Ibrāhīm told him Allahh (swt) brings the sun from the east for the sunrise. Go ahead and you bring it from the west. Of course, he's not talking about the king going to pick up the sun and bring it physically. This is a metaphorical representation, meaning let it appear from the west and so on. I have a number of other examples in here

قَالَ إِنَّمَا يَأْتِيكُم بِهِ ٱللَّهُ إِن شَآءَ وَمَآ أَنتُم بِمُعْجِزِينَ ﴿11:33﴾ - هود

قَالَ إِن كُنتَ جِئْتَ بِـَٔايَةٍ فَأْتِ بِهَآ إِن كُنتَ مِنَ ٱلصَّٰدِقِينَ ﴿7:106﴾ - الاعراف

فَعَقَرُوا ٱلنَّاقَةَ وَعَتَوْا عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِمْ وَقَالُوا يَٰصَٰلِحُ ٱئْتِنَا بِمَا تَعِدُنَآ إِن كُنتَ مِنَ ٱلْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿7:77﴾ - الاعراف

وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا يَأْتِينَا بِـَٔايَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّهِۦٓ ۚ أَوَلَمْ تَأْتِهِم بَيِّنَةُ مَا فِى ٱلصُّحُفِ ٱلْأُولَىٰ ﴿20:133﴾ - طه

وَنَضَعُ ٱلْمَوَٰزِينَ ٱلْقِسْطَ لِيَوْمِ ٱلْقِيَٰمَةِ فَلَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْـًٔا وَإِن كَانَ مِثْقَالَ حَبَّةٍ مِّنْ خَرْدَلٍ أَتَيْنَا بِهَا وَكَفَىٰ بِنَا حَٰسِبِينَ ﴿21:47﴾ - الأنبياء

For those of you who want to follow through, do the investigation by yourself, you will realize exactly that the word فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ is really talking about exposing. Exposing whom? We will see Insha'Allah.

So now قَوْمَهَا her community we've talked about this in many different segments. تَحْمِلُهُ We've talked about this when we talked about Sūrah Al- Massad. حَمَّالَةَ ٱلْحَطَبِ is not really talking about physically carrying the wood or the firewood. We talked about حَمَّالَةَ in the Qurʿān meaning to take the burden, to carry the burden for someone or for something. Therefore, in here she's taking the burden for him. Who is she talking about? We will see, we will understand exactly. Don't think you already know, empty your cup, throw away what you think you know. You let the Qurʿān talk to us, explain to us. And they said, Maryam, you have presented لَقَدْ جِئْتِ you have approached or came to us with something concocted فَرِيًّا. And where did we get فَرِيًّا? And it's from the verb" iftara" to make up a lie. The "iftara" word is used a lot in the Qurʿān. This is from the same root فَرِيًّا. And that means concocted. They're talking about some reports, some explanation she gave. So, they're telling her what you have given us as an explanation to what you're bringing forth is a lie. Therefore, they're not talking about the act itself. They're talking about belying what she told them. Right. There is the first information from this ayat.

The second ayat is they talked to her.

يَٰٓأُخْتَ هَٰرُونَ مَا كَانَ أَبُوكِ ٱمْرَأَ سَوْءٍ وَمَا كَانَتْ أُمُّكِ بَغِيًّا ﴿19:28﴾

"O 'sister' of Hārūn! You father was not a subordinate to a regime of aberration, and your mother was not a harlot!"

They said, يَٰٓأُخْتَ هَٰرُونَ O sister of Hārūn, your father was not a subordinate to a regime of aberration ٱمْرَأَ سَوْءٍ that's what the word سَوْءٍ mean. A regime of aberration from "Su", which is the singular act. سَوْءٍ is the whole regime, the whole system, a group of people over time, doing "Su" and also your mother was not a harlot. Your mother was not بَغِيًّا and this is what the word means. Now. I'm not going to dive into this a lot. Know that the word sister in here is not biological sister. The Qurʿān uses "akhu", "akhwa", "akhwan" in many different places to indicate that this is not a biological relationship but more of a spiritual relationship. So same thing in here أُخْتَ they're not talking about a biological relationship. Please don't let your mind be so confined to the very limited interpretation of each word. The Qurʿān makes a habit of using a lot of analogies and a lot of metaphorical references as we have seen in so many different ayats. So, this is a metaphorical sisterhood, not a physical biological sisterhood. I don't want anyone to think that Qurʿān make such a simple mistake of assuming that Maryam is the actual biological sister of Hārūn who came over a thousand years later. This is obviously not what the Qurʿān is talking about.

فَأَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ قَالُوا كَيْفَ نُكَلِّمُ مَن كَانَ فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ صَبِيًّا ﴿19:29﴾

And thus, she referred (them) to him. They said: "How are we to converse with someone who has been upon the way of the scripture since being a boy?"

There are several things here that we need to unpack very carefully and very slowly. "And thus, she referred them to him". She did not point to him. No, no. She referred them to him. Listen carefully, the verb أَشَارَتْ is from the gerund "Sha-Wa-Ra" شَوَرَ. This gerund is exclusively used in the Qurʿān to mean consultation, advice and giving the opinion to another person to lead that is شَوَرَ. So أَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ is not pointing to him. That's in traditional Arabic of the seventh century Arabs. Yes, but in the Qurʿānic locution it's never used in that meaning. أَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ that means she gave him the lead opinion. She told them; he gives you the information. He gives you the conclusion within our family and you're going to see it.

The word إِلَيْهِ is also used in Sūrah Al-Namal to give us the same sense, the same taste of how the Qurʿān uses that إِلَيْهِ

قَالُوا نَحْنُ أُولُوا قُوَّةٍ وَأُولُوا بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ وَٱلْأَمْرُ إِلَيْكِ فَٱنظُرِى مَاذَا تَأْمُرِينَ ﴿27:33﴾ - النمل

Allahh (swt) is telling us about this group of people around the queen of Sheba. When she received the message from Sulaymān, she consulted them. She consulted them, but they referred the final opinion to her. They said the opinion or the matter goes back to you إِلَيْكِ. This is exactly same إِلَيْهِ used in here. Is this a definite proof? No, it's learning the style of the Qurʿān. How the Qurʿān uses such words.

So فَأَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ that means she gave the final opinion to him. She gave her advice or her opinion, and she let him be the final opinion giver to those people. How do we know this? Because their answer explains it. They said قَالُوا كَيْفَ نُكَلِّمُ مَن كَانَ فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ صَبِيًّا. Thers is فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ Dr. Hany they are saying فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ that means in the crib. No, it does not. This is not Qurʿānic locution. قَالُو They said, how shall we address? How shall we converse with someone who has been (has been كَانَ past tense) upon the way of the scripture since being a boy? Why do you say the way of the scripture? Because the word ٱلْمَهْدِ is consistently used in the Qurʿān to refer to "ardh" ٱلْأَرْضَ, which we defined very clearly as the scripture text. So, you need to see evidence of ٱلْمَهْدِ. I have it ready for you. And Insha'Allah, we will review the ayats. Again, this is not a marking be careful because it's also used for Ɛīssā and is not a marking, but it's used in the same meaning. It's used in the meaning that Ɛīssā was also studying the scripture and you will see Insha'Allah. So ٱلْمَهْدِ is the scripture.

مَهْدً is a metaphorical representation. مَهْدً, which is a prelude, a way to enter into the interpretation and engagement of ٱلْأَرْضَ which is the scripture.

فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ upon the scripture, meaning studying the scripture since he was a boy

How do we know this? Here's one ayat, there are many ayats by the way, I only selected a few. Sūrah Al-Zukhraf ayat 10,

ٱلَّذِى جَعَلَ لَكُمُ ٱلْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ ﴿43:10﴾ - الزخرف

Allahh (swt) gave you or made "Ardh" ٱلْأَرْضَ, which is the scripture for you. مَهْدً is not a crib in here. مَهْدً is a prelude, a way to enter into knowledge through this scripture, as we keep saying. So, مَهْدً is a metaphorical representation. It doesn't literally mean the baby's crib. She didn't have a baby crib. She was already coming from a desert place where she was worried how she's going to deal with this. So, obviously she didn't have furniture. She didn't have any of this stuff. The Qurʿān is not talking about that stuff. It's talking about this definition of the مَهْدً, which is a prelude, a way to enter into the interpretation and engagement of ٱلْأَرْضَ which is the scripture.

Here's another idea from Sūrah 28 ayat 53. Exactly the same thing.

ٱلَّذِى جَعَلَ لَكُمُ ٱلْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَسَلَكَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا وَأَنزَلَ مِنَ ٱلسَّمَآءِ مَآءً فَأَخْرَجْنَا بِهِۦٓ أَزْوَٰجًا مِّن نَّبَاتٍ شَتَّىٰ ﴿20:53﴾ - طه

Finally, Sūrah 51 ayat 48. The same concept.

وَٱلْأَرْضَ فَرَشْنَٰهَا فَنِعْمَ ٱلْمَٰهِدُونَ ﴿51:48﴾ - الذاريات

All of those concepts based on the word ٱلْمَهْدِ refer to ٱلْأَرْضَ the scripture. And that's the ayat from Sūrah Maryam is talking about ٱلْمَهْدِ as the scripture. What does that mean? Well, it means they realized that this person to ask him to finalize the opinion or how to deal with this situation, that person has been studying this scripture since he was a boy "Sabean" صَبِيًّا. And where did we see this? We saw this in the opening part of the description of Yahya. After Allahh (swt) told us about how his father is Zakaryia was given the good news, ﴿19:12﴾ ءَاتَيْنَٰهُ ٱلْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا. This is the first marking that gives us a clear indication. The one we're talking about in here is not Ɛīssā. Ɛīssā is never described as "Sabean" صَبِيًّا in the Qurʿān. Yahya is. Yahya is clearly with her in this scene. This is the first revelation. I hope you accept this. Empty your cup, throw away everything you were told it was wrong. Here's the evidence I'm going to give you more and more and more markings and detailed proof.

The second evidence مَن كَانَ, they told us the baby was in her arms and they're saying he was in the crib right now. He was a baby right now and he's speaking as a baby. That's what they taught us in the books of Tafseer. As a matter of fact, I myself have peddled this erroneous story for over 20 years before stopping to think no this could not be what the Qurʿān is talking about. So, what is going on here? كَانَ is a past tense. If they're talking about someone right there in front of them, watching him, as they told us he's going to talk very soon. They would have said, who is in the crib "man fil mahdi" right now. And they wouldn't have said صَبِيًّا meaning a boy. They would have said that baby "Tiflan", which the Qurʿān uses "Tiflan". Yet the ayat doesn't say "Tiflan" the baby. Doesn't say he is, the Quran says that he was. He was raised فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ . Well, فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ means in the crib or in the earth.

No, because the preposition فِى "fi" means many different types of meanings in the Qurʿān. For example, the very last ayat in Sūrah Al-Ankaboot, as I mentioned before, "Walazina Jahaduwhen Fina" The fi same in fina is the same preposition fi here that means upon us. That means in the way of we prescribed. So, فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ upon the scripture, meaning studying the scripture since he was a boy. And this is clearly Yahya. It's a very clear marking right in front of you. So, those of you who told me it was Ɛīssā the same as Yahya. No, this is a separate person, ayat 85, as we will see from Sūrah Al- Anam clearly tell us that Yahya and Ɛīssā are two different people because they are mentioned enumerated in the same ayat. So, they cannot be the same person. Is that it? No, there's a lot more. So, we continue with the ayat number 30,

قَالَ إِنِّى عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ ءَاتَىٰنِىَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَجَعَلَنِى نَبِيًّا ﴿19:30﴾

He said: "I am a wayfarer of Allahh! He gave me the opportunity to learn the scripture, and made me a Nabiyy,

He said إِنِّى عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ, just be patient. I underline this because it's a marking to something else. Phenomenal something else you will see. قَالَ إِنِّى عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ ءَاتَىٰنِىَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ Over there, Allahh (swt) earlier in the story of Zakaryia and Yahya mentioned وَءَاتَيْنَٰهُ ٱلْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا the linguistic discernment of the message of the scripture. So, it's clear marketing. ءَاتَىٰنِىَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَجَعَلَنِى نَبِيًّا a prophet, a prophet Nabiy. We talked about the difference between Nabiy and Rasool. Is Ɛīssā ever anywhere in the Qurʿān called a Nabiy. The answer is no, never. Check every ayat you want in the Qurʿān, he's never mentioned or associated with a list of Nabiy. Ɛīssā t is described as "Rassolan ila Banī Issrāʿīl" a Rassool to Banī Issrāʿīl very clear. So, this is not Ɛīssā. This is Yahya who is also described as a nabiy. So, this is another marking.

وَجَعَلَنِى مُبَارَكًا أَيْنَ مَا كُنتُ وَأَوْصَٰنِى بِٱلصَّلَوٰةِ وَٱلزَّكَوٰةِ مَا دُمْتُ حَيًّا ﴿19:31﴾

"and he made me blessed wherever I may be. And he enjoined upon me "Salaat" and purification, as long as I am alive"

As long as I am my alive? Yes, because this is a property of the man who died a hundred years that we've talked about before that same man ءَايَةً لِّلنَّاسِ is also described in Sūrah Maryam وَلِنَجْعَلَهُۥٓ ءَايَةً لِّلنَّاسِ. ءَايَةً لِّلنَّاسِ is a very unique marking that is shared between Yahya and the man who died a hundred years. I know a million questions are going and running through your heads right now. Just be patient because we have a lot to cover as I promise. So, just be patient, keep that pencil working over your notepad and then be patient, take some questions and we will continue Insha'Allah. So, ٱلزَّكَوٰةِ over there, Allahh (swt) describes the Yahya as Zakiya and you're going to see it.

وَبَرًّا بِوَٰلِدَتِى وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْنِى جَبَّارًا شَقِيًّا ﴿19:32﴾

"And constancy of faith through my mother, and he did not make me overbearing nor disconnected from Allahh."

وَبَرًّا بِوَٰلِدَتِى Well, Yahya was described as بَرَّاً بوالديه that's how he was described in the segment that we saw from last time in the first part of Sūrah Maryam. So, what's going on. The answer is, as you will see from Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān, his father was no longer in the picture. Literally his mother and Yahya went back to her people. And this is exactly what this first ayat is talking about.

Let's review it again. فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ she brought him out, exposing him. Exposing who he was. who was he? He was the son of Zakaryia. Well, what do you mean you married Zakaryia? You were together with him? Yes, I was his woman and they told her no, you came up with something concocted. They belied her and they proceeded to accuse her a very derogatory type of accusation as we will see Insha'Allah. So, we will leave ayat 28 to discuss it when we discuss the story of Mūssa̅. But no, this is not an expression of endearment. It's not something out of respect they're saying to Maryam. They're saying you are a bad person. They're accusing her. They're really harassing her. This is not a set of nice expressions to say to Maryam. This is an accusatory, really horrible type of spreading information about Maryam. That's what they said. So now this ayat makes sense.

We continue with the last part وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْنِى جَبَّارًا شَقِيًّا "And he did not make me overbearing nor disconnected from Allahh". Remember شَقِيًّا is the opposite of Shakoor. Shakoor is to have the right connection and communication with Allah (swt) شَقِيًّا is the opposite of it sort of like Shayāṭan. When Zakaryia talked about وَلَمْ أَكُن بِدُعَآئِكَ رَبِّ شَقِيًّا it's exactly the same word. The same word that this person Yahya learned from his father. So, he is saying بَرًّا بِوَٰلِدَتِى I have constancy of faith through my mother. And I told you والديه while both of them provided him constancy of faith. So, the constancy of faith that he's talking about right here is because his father, as I said, was no longer part of the picture. And we saw بَرًّاً بوالديه earlier in the part that we discussed about Zakaryia and Yahya, Allahh (swt) gave us that marking. So, this is the same marking, except his father is no longer in the picture. Why you will see Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān does not leave any room for guessing. We will see it with our own eyes and we don't need to make it up. We don't need to invent, fill in the blank kind of details. It's all there. We just need to decipher it and to assemble this puzzle in the right way. So, I hope you're patient and you keep taking notes. And again, if you have questions, we will deal with them, maybe in the next segments Insha'Allah.

Finally, something really fun that will shock you and surprise you. When we talked about Jinn and Iblees and the following segment, which was about Jinn and the seven gateways of Jahanum. And then the third segment, which was about Shayāṭan. I explained to you that Sūrah Al-Jinn, number 72 deals with a group of people who were followers of Mūssa̅. It wasn't about some unknown creatures that hide in the dark etc. It was all metaphorical language describing the people who follow the ways of Iblees becoming Jinn. And that specific group of people mentioned in Sūrah Al-Jinn is about a group of people, followers of Mūssa̅. How do we know this? Because right here, Allahh (swt) is telling us another marking Yahya is speaking, as I have just demonstrated, he calls himself Abdullah عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ. This exact same marking is only used one other time in Sūrah Al-Jinn and this ayat says الجن - ﴿72﴾ وَأَنَّهُۥ لَمَّا قَامَ عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ يَدْعُوهُ كَادُوا يَكُونُونَ عَلَيْهِ لِبَدًا So, Allahh (swt) is telling us that the Jinn said or confessed that when Yahya rose as a prophet to them, they almost jumped all over him to kill him. This is a very clear marking that that group of people in Sūrah Al-Jinn have something to do with the time of Yahya. This is a very clear marking right in front of your eyes. Go check it out. Abdullah عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ. This expression right here is never mentioned anywhere else in the Qurʿān, other than in these two locations that I just gave you.

It's a fun little fact. I always tell you that I give you the markings, but I keep something behind my back all the time, because there are some advanced topics. Had I given you this marking at that time, you wouldn't have believed me because I needed to prove to you that this Abdullah عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ is actually Yahya. Abdullah عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ in here is Yahya. Abdullah عَبْدُ ٱللَّهِ in Sūrah Al-Jinn is also Yahya. And the Jinn, meaning the followers of Mūssa̅ were talking about him. Which means this is a group of people who lived during the life of our beloved Prophet (saws), because the Sūrah is talking about meeting or discussions between our beloved Prophet (saws) and this group of Jinn. I hope this is closing the subject once and for all. There is no unknown, separate creatures called Jinn. They are part of human beings who follow Iblees. In this case, they are part of a group of people who are followers of Mūssa and who came and confessed to our beloved Prophet (saws) all of the things that they used to do and they used to relieve.

Who Was Zakariya's Woman? [Refer to Part 1]

The 'Tafṣeel' that cracked the story wide open!

He said: "My lord! How would I have a 'Ghulām' (a young man) while my subordinate woman has been pinned down, and after I have reached an escalation of excessive arrogance from the elders."	قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ ٱلْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ﴿19:8﴾
He (Allahh) said: "That is (exactly) how!" Your lord said: "It is easy for me, and I had created you too before (in the same way), while before, you were yet to be willed into existence!"	قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَىَّ هَيِّنٌ وَقَدْ خَلَقْتُكَ مِن قَبْلُ وَلَمْ تَكُ شَيْـًٔا ﴿19:9﴾
He said: "My lord! Designate a sign for me!" He said: "Your sign is that she shall remain silent for three straight nights!"	قَالَ رَبِّ ٱجْعَل لِّىٓ ءَايَةً قَالَ ءَايَتُكَ أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ ٱلنَّاسَ ثَلَٰثَ لَيَالٍ سَوِيًّا ﴿19:10﴾

This is the part that I'm really, really excited about. When Allahh (swt) first revealed this to me, I was literally standing up and jumping and dancing because it's something that's so in front of us, and yet nobody has been able to see this. Nobody has been given the ability to see this. You're going to be amazed. I promise you if you know a little bit of Arabic, this is going to be wow, how come nobody saw this before? This is the Tafṣeel that cracks the whole story wide open for me. Initially, when I first discovered this, I thought, wow, everything we knew is wrong. Everything we knew has to be revisited. Indeed, it turned out that everything they told us about this story was wrong. Watch this. This is the part that we discussed earlier, but I had left one last ayat and I told you, this is the wrong translation. Now, this is the correct translation. You're going to see for yourself how relevant it is to the story that we are sharing with you about the family of Zakaria, Maryam, Ɛīssā and Yahya.

قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ ٱلْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ﴿19:8﴾

We explained all of these terms. I don't want anyone to ask me about them in this video. If you really need to know why I translated them this way, go back to part one full detail available. “My Lord, how would I have a ‘Ghulām’, a young man while my subordinate woman has been pinned down”. We said عَاقِرًا does not mean barren. It does not mean she cannot have children or infertile. It meant pinned down as they do to the ٱلنَّاقَةَ. فَعَقَرُوا ٱلنَّاقَةَ that means pinned her down. “And after I have reached an escalation of excessive arrogance from the elders”. ٱلْكِبَرِ is not about his own old age. It's about the group of people who are the leaders in his community. And the proof we gave is عِتِيًّا. all right.

قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَيَّ هَيِّنٌ وَقَدْ خَلَقْتُكَ مِن قَبْلُ وَلَمْ تَكُ شَيْـًٔا ﴿19:9﴾

He (Allahh) said: “That is (exactly) how!” Your lord said: “It is easy for me, and I had created you too before (in the same way), while before, you were yet to be willed into existence!”

Allahh (swt) said, that's exactly how. Your Lord says it is easy for me. And I have created you too before in the same way while before you were yet to be willed into existence. We talked about this in the part, one of the series. قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَيَّ هَيِّنٌ This is a marking. We're going to see pay attention to this one.

Now this is the new revelation. Watch this

قَالَ رَبِّ ٱجْعَل لِّيٓ ءَايَةً قَالَ ءَايَتُكَ أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ ٱلنَّاسَ ثَلَٰثَ لَيَالٍ سَوِيًّا ﴿19:10﴾

They told us this part “Designate a sign for me” was a challenge from Zakaryia to Allahh (swt). Wrong. Allahh (swt) is not telling us this story to tell us how Zakaryia challenged Allahh (swt). It has nothing to do with Zakaryia challenging Allahh (swt), because he just finished supplicating to Allahh (swt), asking him for a 'Ghulām' and Allahh (swt) gave him the good news. Then he asked, how am I going to have this etc. And Allahh (swt) answered him. And then he says, designate a sign for me, a signal.

What is that sign? أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ ٱلنَّاسَ ثَلَٰثَ لَيَالٍ سَوِيًّا . Watch this. This is the magic. This is the magic that changes everything. The verb تُكَلِّمَ is in the Arabic morphology indicative of two different things. Depending on the context, it's either this one or that one. So, you can say, أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ that means you don't speak as if the sign that a Allahh (swt) is giving to the Zakaryia is about him. Second person being addressed. You should not speak it also mean she does not speak or she should not speak. Ah, so now this ayat is not talking about Zakaryia. It's talking about a she. Who is she? Well, he just finished telling us a little earlier about ٱمْرَأَتِى, my woman. So, what is the sign that the Zakaryia is asking for?

أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ

أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ means "You don't speak"

BUT ALSO:

أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ means "She does not speak"

This is the beautiful part. The part that we're talking about in this ayat is that Zakaryia is saying, okay, I will have this child with my woman who is Maryam, but how do I know that she's in agreement? So, give me some sign that says she will agree to it. قَالَ رَبِّ ٱجْعَل لِّىٓ ءَايَةً give me a sign. So beautiful. It's so touching. Give me a sign that she's okay with this. I don't want to force myself upon her. Give me a sign. Allahh (swt) told him she will not talk to anyone for three nights سَوِيًّا straight. Hmm three nights. Well, how would Zakaryia know about her silence during the night if she's not with him? The answer is she was with him and we're going to see it because in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān, the exact same expression أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ, she should not speak for three days for three days. In other words, over there it's days here it's nights. That means days and nights, they were constantly together and thus, عَاقِرًا, she's pinned down. She's always with me.

This is the beauty of the Qurʿān. This is the wonderful connectiveness between the ayats. This linking that keeps stunning you every time you discover it. It's just unbelievable that people have missed this. They just brought the fake stories and imposed them over the Qurʿān and brought down the level of intellect of Allahh (swt) AstagfirAllah down to their low intellect. They told us Zakaryia was being punished for questioning Allahh (swt). Therefore, he was told you must remain for three days and three nights unable to speak and not speak to anyone. No, Allahh (swt) is very merciful. He was giving him assurance, just like he gave Ibrāhīm assurance when Ibrāhīm asked. But those who don't want us to ask are telling us these fake stories. The Qurʿān is so tender, so beautiful that he was sensitive to the needs of this woman with him. He described her as عَاقِرًا and he felt sorry for her. And he so sensitive to her needs. He wants to make sure he w he doesn't impose himself over her. So, he asked Allahh (swt), helped me with a sign. You will see the sign; the beautiful story unfolds.

This is the ayat from Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān

قَالَ رَبِّ ٱجْعَل لِّىٓ ءَايَةً قَالَ ءَايَتُكَ أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ ٱلنَّاسَ ثَلَٰثَةَ أَيَّامٍ إِلَّا رَمْزًا وَٱذْكُر رَّبَّكَ كَثِيرًا وَسَبِّحْ بِٱلْعَشِىِّ وَٱلْإِبْكَٰرِ ﴿3:41﴾ - آل عمران

He said: “My lord! Designate a sign for me!” He said: “Your sign is that she shall remain silent for three days, except in signals!” And engage the Dhikr, a lot, and follow the way (in prayer), during evenings and mornings.

أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ same thing as we saw here. She should not talk for three days except in signals and engage the Dhikr a lot and follow the way in prayer during evenings and mornings. SubhanAllah the Qurʿān tells us that when people who really appreciate and understand the Qurʿān, you see their eyes overflowing with tears, tears of joy, tears of happiness, tears of connectedness with Allahh (swt). I hope you are feeling it right now as we speak. This is phenomenal discovery disclosure from Allahh (swt) to allow us to understand the true story of what's going on. It's such a marvelous, beautiful story.

And then we continue with this very important signal in here from Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān from the same type of scene, Allahh (swt) is telling him in the Qurʿān. وَٱذْكُر رَّبَّكَ كَثِيرًا وَسَبِّحْ بِٱلْعَشِيِّ وَٱلْإِبْكَٰرِ. And follow the way in prayer during evenings and mornings, this is clearly addressing Zakaryia. You should do this. And that's why we said, when we talked about the same scene earlier, فَخَرَجَ عَلَىٰ قَوْمِهِۦ He came out against his community فَأَوْحَىٰٓ إِلَيْهِمْ Allahh (swt) instructed him just like he is instructing him right here in this aya, وَٱذْكُر رَّبَّكَ كَثِيرًا وَسَبِّحْ بِٱلْعَشِيِّ وَٱلْإِبْكَٰرِ.

Again, the consistency is uncanny. The integration among the ayats doesn't leave any room for doubt whatsoever. Allahh (swt) tells us the story, tells us another version of the same story, but they integrate and fit so well together. Like pieces of the puzzle coming together to make us believe the whole thing and to understand the whole thing. What was missing in one part of the story is provided in the other part of the story and vice-a-versa. Unless you are really engaging the Qurʿān on fully aware, fully awake, making sure you don't underestimate Allahh (swt), making sure you don't belie the Qurʿān, making sure you don't take one part and forget about the rest. You don't understand these stories. This is why engagement of the Qur'an takes time, patience, diligence and help from Allahh (swt). Allahh (swt) discloses these facts. How many people in the past 1400 years have seen and read this expression right here? And every single one of them was not allowed by Allahh (swt) to see it as addressing about her third person, feminine. So Allahh (swt) gives the information to whomever he pleases. Our responsibility is to share it.

Now, one last comment here, before we move on, we will see the same Tafṣeel, the same kind of Tafṣeel where a word appears to be in the masculine form, but it's actually in a third person feminine form. We will see this again in the third part of the series. So remember this Tafṣeel this Bayyana that I just shared with you.

Continuing the Story of Yahya [Refer to Part 1]

And thus, he came out against his community, out of (or from) the tabernacle! And then, he (Allahh) enjoined upon them to submit to the way (in prayer), mornings and evenings.	فَخَرَجَ عَلَىٰ قَوْمِهِۦ مِنَ ٱلْمِحْرَابِ فَأَوْحَىٰٓ إِلَيْهِمْ أَن سَبِّحُوا۟ بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًّا ﴿19:11﴾
"O Yahya! Take the message of the scripture firmly!" And we gave him the opportunity to learn the linguistic discernment as a young boy,	يَٰيَحْيَىٰ خُذِ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ بِقُوَّةٍ وَءَاتَيْنَٰهُ ٱلْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا ﴿19:12﴾
And a melodic weeping in reciting scripture (like the bleats of a mother she-camel calling for her calf) from our knowledge, and purification, and he was disciplined,	وَحَنَانًا مِّن لَّدُنَّا وَزَكَوٰةً وَكَانَ تَقِيًّا ﴿19:13﴾
And constancy of faith through his two parents, and he was not overbearing nor disobedient,	وَبَرًّۢا بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ وَلَمْ يَكُن جَبَّارًا عَصِيًّا ﴿19:14﴾
And exclusivity is given to him on the day he was born, on the day he dies, and on the day he is raised to life!	وَسَلَٰمٌ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمَ وُلِدَ وَيَوْمَ يَمُوتُ وَيَوْمَ يُبْعَثُ حَيًّا ﴿19:15﴾

Continuing with the story of Yahya again refer to part one. If you want to see the details, here's the idea that I was telling you about فَأَوْحَىٰٓ إِلَيْهِمْ Allahh (swt) instructed them, gave them the enjoyment, the instructions سَبِّحُوا۟ بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًّا as we just saw Allahh (swt) gave that instruction to Zakariya in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. This is Sūrah Maryam Allahh (swt) أَوْحَىٰٓ إِلَيْهِمْ to all of them. That's why I am a hundred percent confident that this أَوْحَىٰٓ the subject of it is not Zakaryia. That's why we translated it with full confidence, because Allahh (swt) told us that Allahh (swt) gave the instructions to Zakaryia in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. So, when we put together the two descriptions of the same scene, it leaves no doubt whatsoever. يَٰيَحْيَىٰ خُذِ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ بِقُوَّةٍ وَءَاتَيْنَٰهُ ٱلْحُكْمَ صَبِيًّا We discussed all of this stuff. صَبِيًّا is a marking. وَءَاتَيْنَٰهُ ٱلْحُكْمَ the linguistic discernment is a marking and we just saw all of these things when we discussed the question who was with Maryam when she went back to her community.

By the way, we're going to continue that segment and we're going to understand more Insha'Allah, but first we're taking it one step at a time to unravel the hoor. وَبَرًّا بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ here Allahh (swt) told us the constancy of faith through his two parents. But over there in that segment that we just discussed, she was alone with him. He did not have his father with them. Therefore, he says وَبَرًّا بِوَٰلِدَتِى my mother. So that was not Ɛīssā speaking that was Yahya speaking.

وَسَلَٰمٌ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمَ وُلِدَ وَيَوْمَ يَمُوتُ وَيَوْمَ يُبْعَثُ حَيًّا and I translated it exclusivity as I described it and detailed it in part one. I don't want anyone to write me peace and all of that stuff. It is not. Leave those interpretations that are really not based on the Qurʿān aside and go back to part one to learn "exclusivity is given to him on the day he was born on the day he dies. And on the day he's raised to life", this is not a marking. This is where most of you have made a mistake in trying to seek who was the man who died a hundred years. Yes, it was Yahya. And Yahya is separate than Ɛīssā. This is the part that tricked you because in the description of Ɛīssā, which we're going to see a little later, he himself says Asalamo. There is a definite article preceding Salamun. And those two are not the same thing. Salamu and Asalamo don't mean the same thing as we will see. This is clearly Yahya.This is not a marking. Over there it's a separate different type of expression and Yahya is not the same person as our Ɛīssā, as I explained to you earlier.

Ayat 6:85 mentions Yahya and Ɛīssā in the same ayat, therefore they're not the same person.

وَزَكَرِيَّا وَيَحْيَىٰ وَعِيسَىٰ وَإِلْيَاسَ كُلٌّ مِّنَ ٱلصَّٰلِحِينَ ﴿6:85﴾ - الأنعام

And Zakariya and Yahya and Ɛīssā and Ilyās: Each among the ones who toil on the scripture (in accordance to the divine lexicon)

فَٱسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُۥ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُۥ يَحْيَىٰ وَأَصْلَحْنَا لَهُۥ زَوْجَهُۥٓ... ﴿21:90﴾ - الأنبياء

And we dignified his supplication and we granted him Yahya and we made his pair ‘Ṣāliḥeen’ (those who toil on the scripture)…

Allahh (swt) in Sūrah Al-Anam ayat 85 describe all of these listed in among them Yahya and Ɛīssā are صَّٰلِحِينَ. “Saliheen” صَّٰلِحِينَ are those who toil on the scripture in accordance with the divine lexicon. We've talked about this many, many, many times before “Amilo Salihat”. The word “Ṣlaḥa” صلَحَ is a terminology according to the Abrahamic locution. Allahh (swt) in Sūrah Al-Anbiya 21:90 is also talking about Zakaryia. Zakaryia made a duaa and Allahh (swt) responded فَٱسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُۥ is and we dignified his supplication and we granted him Yahya وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُۥ يَحْيَىٰ . We granted him Yahya. And we made his pair زَوْجَهُۥ “saliheen” وَأَصْلَحْنَا لَهُۥ زَوْجَهُۥ. I know some of you are going to complain right away because none of the translations and none of the interpretations gave you this explanation that I'm giving you in here. But let me justify, be patient listen, learn. You can develop this certainty “Yaqeen” confidence that Allahh (swt) does not mislead us. Human beings can make up their own mind, but Allahh (swt) does not mislead us Allahh (swt) is very clear. If you follow the rules, the Qurʿān is “Mobeen” very clarifying. It clarifies itself.

So. أَصْلَحْنَا and صَّٰلِحِينَ is a clear marking and this is the part that we need to see. Yahya and Ɛīssā there are two of them. Therefore, زَوْجَهُۥ, which I translated it as pair. Why زَوْجَهُۥ is pair, not counterpart because as you will see, Maryam, his woman was already among the “Aṣlaḥa” أصلَحَ is never used in the Qurʿān to mean “repair” or “amend” or “rehabilitate” or “made her fit” or “amended” or “adjusted”

“Aqirann” عَاقِرًا does not means barren. It means pinned down

“Aqeem” عقيم means barren

“Saliheen” صَّٰلِحِينَ. So this is not زَوْجَهُ who meaning his counterpart or Zakaryia’s counterpart, meaning Mayiam or ٱمْرَأَتِى who remember she's not barren. They thought that أَصْلَحْا means to repair, to amend, to fix, to rehabilitate, to make her fit for having children and to adjust her. Those are all the translations and they conform to what the books of Tafsir said. Why? Because to them عَاقِرًا means barren. I've proven to you عَاقِرًا does not mean barren. “Aqeem” عقيم means barren and it is used in the Qurʿān. عَاقِرًا when it's applicable to his woman, to Zakaryia’s woman means pinned down and therefore أَصْلَحْنَا does not mean to repair. أَصْلَحْنَا means made them “Saliheen” صَّٰلِحِينَ. And therefore, it's talking about a pair, a pair of “Saliheen” زَوْجَهُ صَّٰلِحِينَ who are mentioned right here Yahya and Ɛīssā. It's very clear that we're talking about two people, not just one person. I hope it's very, very clear. It's so beautiful. It's so much fun to uncover all of these detective type of clues that Allahh (swt) left for us in the Qurʿān. It leaves the heart dancing because you're really engaging the Qurʿān as it should be engaged. I hope you're enjoying it as much as I am.

Evidence that Maryam was Yahya’s Mother

2 parallel Accounts of events that seem similar!

We continue with the next part evidence that Maryam was indeed Yahya’s mother. There are two parallel accounts of the events that seem similar. This is the first thing you need to notice. Allahh (swt), as I said before, gave us two parts of the story. One in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān (Sūrah 3) and one in Sūrah Maryam (Sūrah 19). Sūrah Maryam was revealed to our beloved Prophet (saws) much earlier than Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. How do we know? Because Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān, which is Sūrah three, includes a lot of details about war and about different engagements with the enemies and different facts and events that came later in the life of our beloved Prophet (saws). It couldn't have come before Sūrah Maryam. So, Sūrah Maryam clearly came first. Sūrah Maryam had a partial account, but it didn't cover all the clues. It didn't give us all the answers. So, for over 10 years, approximately by my count Allahh (swt) left the Muslims with only a part of the story. The rest of the story came in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān, which is Sūrah number three. We're going to discuss both descriptions of the same story in the two different Sūrahs in full detail, partly in this segment and partly in the segment to come.

One in Sūrah 19, Another in Sūrah 3

'Ghulām' (Yahya) vs. 'Walad' (Ɛīssā)!

Zakariya: قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ ٱلْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ﴿19:8﴾ - مريم

Maryam: قَالَتْ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا ﴿19:20﴾ - مريم

Notice: No رَبِّ

Zakariya: قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَقَدْ بَلَغَنِىَ ٱلْكِبَرُ وَٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرٌ ... ﴿3:40﴾ - آل عمران

Maryam: قَالَتْ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى وَلَدٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ ... ﴿3:47﴾ - آل عمران

The first part from Sūrah Maryam Allahh (swt) is talking about Zakaryia. Zakaryia says قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ ٱلْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا . As we saw before, Maryam in Sūrah Maryam (Sūrah 19) says قَالَتْ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا using the same marking غُلَٰمٌ Notice in ayat 20 of Sūrah Maryam there is no رَبِّ . There is رَبِّ in this part (19:8), there is رَبِّ in this part (3:40). There's رَبِّ in this part (3:47). So, who is she talking to in here (19:20)? We're going to see. This is part of what we're going to reveal in the next segment Insha'Allah.

But for now, I need you to pay attention. It's right there رَبِّ is missing from otherwise four ayats that almost say the same thing. And in the Qurʿān what's missing is just as important as what's there and you have to pay attention. Observation skills is everything. You have to be here. Not anywhere else. Shut down your cell phone, shut down your TV. Don't let anyone disturb you as you're engaging the words of Allahh (swt). This is how Allahh (swt) brings you closer to him by letting you see look, this is missing. I did put it there on purpose. Had the Qurʿān been modified while being copied, there would have been really tempted to add this one. Very easy and very justifiable. No one did because Allahh (swt) is preserving the Qurʿān.

It's beautiful, baby. It's beautiful. Three ayat that say رَبِّ. This one does not. Clear evidence that something is missing and Allahh (swt) is pointing us. Pay attention. She's not talking to Allahh (swt). She's not talking to the angels. She's talking to a human being as we will see. She said the غُلَٰمٌ. This is the marking that's really important. That means what happened to Zakaryia with regard to Yahya is what's being discussed in ayat 20 with regards to Maryam. So that means it's not talking about Ɛīssā. No, this part is talking about Yahya.

Now we go to Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. Again, the similar kind of pairing Zakaryia is saying قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَقَدْ بَلَغَنِىَ ٱلْكِبَرُ وَٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرٌ ... Whom is he talking about? Yahya. The part where Maryam comes in and says, قَالَتْ رَبِّ. قَالَتْ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى وَلَدٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ ... now she's talking to Allahh (swt) and saying'walad' وَلَدٌ not غُلَٰمٌ now she's talking about somebody else. This is Ɛīssā. This part right here is Ɛīssā. The first three are clearly about Yahya. Allahh (swt) added a little more detail in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān to kind of see if we're really paying attention, but this time she used 'walad' وَلَدٌ. So the scene that we're going to see about the new announcement of a new baby for her is about Ɛīssā in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. In Sūrah Maryam it's غُلَٰمٌ.

Guess why she was selected twice? We will see because the first time was with the Yahya. The second one was with Ɛīssā and they are from the same parents as we will see. They are brothers and both of them are her. So, as I promised you, there are a lot of disclosures in the segment. I hope you're keeping track of how many new things we're sharing with you. We're going to continue. We have a long segment ahead of us. So again, find yourself a comfortable place and keep going. If you need to take a break, take a break, but come back. You deserve this. You ought to yourself and to your children to teach them the right story.

Now, how do we know the last sentence in here is talking about وَلَدٌ is talking about Ɛīssā, because Allahh (swt) use this as a marking when discussing Ɛīssā in Sūrah Al-Nisa 4:171

يَٰٓأَهۡلَ ٱلۡكِتَٰبِ لَا تَغۡلُواْ فِي دِينِكُمۡ وَلَا تَقُولُواْ عَلَى ٱللَّهِ إِلَّا ٱلۡحَقَّۚ إِنَّمَا ٱلۡمَسِيحُ عِيسَى ٱبۡنُ مَرۡيَمَ رَسُولُ ٱللَّهِ وَكَلِمَتُهُۥٓ أَلۡقَىٰهَآ إِلَىٰ مَرۡيَمَ وَرُوحٞ مِّنۡهُۖ فَـَٔامِنُواْ بِٱللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِۦۖ وَلَا تَقُولُواْ ثَلَٰثَةٌۚ ٱنتَهُواْ خَيۡرٗا لَّكُمۡۚ إِنَّمَا ٱللَّهُ إِلَٰهٞ وَٰحِدٞۖ سُبۡحَٰنَهُۥٓ أَن يَكُونَ لَهُۥ وَلَدٞۘ لَّهُۥ مَا فِي ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَمَا فِي ٱلۡأَرۡضِۗ وَكَفَىٰ بِٱللَّهِ وَكِيلٗا ﴿4:171﴾ - النساء

…Allahh is but a single deity! (there is only) His way which negates that he has a ‘walad’ (son)….

‘Walad’ وَلَدٌ is always used in reference to Ɛīssā. This is the reference right here. And this is the exact same word that's used in Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān. Beautiful integration, beautiful consistency. This is the Qurʿān. Bring us what you have against the Qurʿān. Throw it at us and let's see if what you have can even come close to one inch of what the Qurʿān has to offer. This is the beautiful consistency in the Qurʿān. Nowhere to make a mistake if you are paying attention. Only if you follow the erroneous stories, we stand to defeat our own Qurʿān. If you follow the Qurʿān, as I'm showing you Allah will give “Alizzah” وَلَا تَهِنُواْ وَلَا تَحۡزَنُواْ وَأَنتُمُ ٱلۡأَعۡلَوۡنَ إِن كُنتُم مُّؤۡمِنِينَ You are the upper ones if you are believers. If you really truly submit to what the Allahh (swt) is telling us. Unbelievable and undeniable evidence that I'm sharing with you. So, we continue with a reading of the story of Zakaryia and Maryam. And we're going to start with Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān, which came later, as I told you. Remember Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān came later, Sūrah Maryam came approximately 10 years earlier.

Reading the story of Zakariya and Maryam!

From Sūrah Āl-Ɛimrān (Sūrah 3)

Indeed Allahh selected ādam and Nuḥ, and the followers of Ibrāhīm and the followers of Ɛimrān, in line with all the realms:	إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصۡطَفَىٰٓ ءَادَمَ وَنُوحٗا وَءَالَ إِبۡرَٰهِيمَ وَءَالَ عِمۡرَٰنَ عَلَى ٱلۡعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:33﴾
A progeny, some of them are from some, and Allahh provides the hearing, and provides the evidence-based knowledge!	ذُرِّيَّةَۢ بَعۡضُهَا مِنۢ بَعۡضٖۗ وَٱللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿3:34﴾

provider of hearing, the provider of evidence-based knowledge!
And when she delivered her, she said: “My lord! I have delivered her as a female!” - And Allahh is the best provider of knowledge regarding what she delivered, and the male is not like the female - “And I have named her Maryam. And I seek refuge in you for her and for her progeny against the Shayṭān who is ‘Rajeem’ (i.e., liable to cast people away from a direct connection with you)!”	فَلَمَّا وَضَعَتْهَا قَالَتْ رَبِّ إِنِّى وَضَعْتُهَآ أُنثَىٰ وَٱللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا وَضَعَتْ وَلَيْسَ ٱلذَّكَرُ كَٱلْأُنثَىٰ وَإِنِّى سَمَّيْتُهَا مَرْيَمَ وَإِنِّىٓ أُعِيذُهَا بِكَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهَا مِنَ ٱلشَّيْطَٰنِ ٱلرَّجِيمِ ﴿3:36﴾
And so, her lord accepted her (Maryam) by (her) insightful acceptance, and caused her to sprout an insightful yield (i.e., knowledge and/or progeny), while he had put her under the mentorship of Zakariya: Every time Zakariya approached her in (trying to teach her of) the tabernacle, he found her with sustenance, he would say: "O Maryam! How come you have this?", (and) she would say, "It is from the dominion of Allahh! Indeed, Allahh provides sustenance for whom wills without bounds!"	فَتَقَبَّلَهَا رَبُّهَا بِقَبُولٍ حَسَنٍ وَأَنۢبَتَهَا نَبَاتًا حَسَنًا وَكَفَّلَهَا زَكَرِيَّا كُلَّمَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا زَكَرِيَّا ٱلْمِحْرَابَ وَجَدَ عِندَهَا رِزْقًا قَالَ يَٰمَرْيَمُ أَنَّىٰ لَكِ هَٰذَا قَالَتْ هُوَ مِنْ عِندِ ٱللَّهِ إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ يَرْزُقُ مَن يَشَآءُ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿3:37﴾
There, Zakariya supplicated his lord, saying: “My lord! Grant me from your ways a volitional progeny. Indeed, you are receptive to supplication!”	هُنَالِكَ دَعَا زَكَرِيَّا رَبَّهُۥ قَالَ رَبِّ هَبْ لِى مِن لَّدُنكَ ذُرِّيَّةً طَيِّبَةً إِنَّكَ سَمِيعُ ٱلدُّعَآءِ ﴿3:38﴾
And the angels called upon him, while he was persistent in ‘Salaat’ in the tabernacle, that “Allahh gives you the glad tidings about Yahya, affirming a ‘kalimah’ (i.e., an accepted supplication) from Allahh, and a household leader, and a keeper of secrets, and a prophet among the ones who toil properly on the scripture!”	فَنَادَتْهُ ٱلْمَلَٰٓئِكَةُ وَهُوَ قَآئِمٌ يُصَلِّى فِى ٱلْمِحْرَابِ أَنَّ ٱللَّهَ يُبَشِّرُكَ بِيَحْيَىٰ مُصَدِّقًۢا بِكَلِمَةٍ مِّنَ ٱللَّهِ وَسَيِّدًا وَحَصُورًا وَنَبِيًّا مِّنَ ٱلصَّٰلِحِينَ ﴿3:39﴾
He said: “My lord! How would I have a ‘Ghulām’ (a young man) while the elders have reached (an escalation) with me, and while my subordinate woman has been pinned down.” He said: “That is (exactly) how! Allahh carries out whatever he wills.”	قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَقَدْ بَلَغَنِىَ ٱلْكِبَرُ وَٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرٌ قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ ٱللَّهُ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَآءُ ﴿3:40﴾
He said: “My lord! Designate for me a sign!” He said: “Your sign is that she shall remain silent for three days, except in signals!” And engage the Dhikr, a lot, and follow the way (in prayer), during evenings and mornings.	قَالَ رَبِّ ٱجْعَل لِّىٓ ءَايَةً قَالَ ءَايَتُكَ أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ ٱلنَّاسَ ثَلَٰثَةَ أَيَّامٍ إِلَّا رَمْزًا وَٱذْكُر رَّبَّكَ كَثِيرًا وَسَبِّحْ بِٱلْعَشِىِّ وَٱلْإِبْكَٰرِ ﴿3:41﴾
And when the angels said: “O Maryam! Allahh has selected you, and purified you, and selected you upon women in the realms.	وَإِذْ قَالَتِ ٱلْمَلَٰٓئِكَةُ يَٰمَرْيَمُ إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصْطَفَىٰكِ وَطَهَّرَكِ وَٱصْطَفَىٰكِ عَلَىٰ نِسَآءِ ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:42﴾
“O Maryam! Practice silence for the sake of your lord, and prostrate and bow with those who bow.”	يَٰمَرْيَمُ ٱقْنُتِى لِرَبِّكِ وَٱسْجُدِى وَٱرْكَعِى مَعَ ٱلرَّٰكِعِينَ ﴿3:43﴾

That (i.e., the story of Maryam and Ɛīssā and Zakariya and Yaḥya recounted in this sūrah) is an account of the truth that is beyond disclosure (to anyone at the time of the revelation of this sūrah), and that we enjoin (as guidance in your prophetic career) upon you (Muḥammad), and you were not listening to them as they cast their lots, (competing) who would end up being a mentor over Maryam, and you were not listening to them as they were arguing (over Maryam),	ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ أَنۢبَآءِ ٱلْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهِ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا كُنتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ يُلْقُونَ أَقْلَٰمَهُمْ أَيُّهُمْ يَكْفُلُ مَرْيَمَ وَمَا كُنتَ لَدَيْهِمْ إِذْ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿3:44﴾ Where is Zakaryia????? Answer: No longer in the picture!!!!

We're going to start with the later one. We gather some clues and then we go apply them to Sūrah Maryam. Some of you are going to ask, well, how did the early companions understand? Who told you they understood everything? Where did you get this concept from? Allahh (swt) was testing them just as he is still testing us today. Those of them who stuck by our beloved Prophet (saws) showed unbelievable determination and faith in the messenger. And they stuck with him. Even though they had probably a million questions. They did not know how to respond to. This is faith. You see it in front of your eyes. If you don't understand something, it doesn't mean it's wrong.

We read from Sūrah Al- Ɛimrān first so that we can get the clues. And then we go back and apply them to a Sūrah Maryam. We start with Sūrah Al-Ɛimrān, ayat 33

إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصْطَفَىٰٓ ءَادَمَ وَنُوحًا وَءَالَ إِبْرَٰهِيمَ وَءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ عَلَى ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:33﴾

Indeed Allahh selected ādam and Nūḥ, and the followers of Ibrāhīm and the followers of Ɛimrān, in line with all the realms:

We will have a lot more to say about this ayat in the next segment. So, stay tuned. I promise you, there are some disclosures that will change a lot of things we were told. And again, when I keep saying we need to reinterpret the whole Qurʿān, you're going to see it for yourself. There are so many beautiful and amazing details given in every word in the Qurʿān. We will deal with this a lot more in the next part. Part three of this series.

ذُرِّيَّةًۢ بَعْضُهَا مِنۢ بَعْضٍ وَٱللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿3:34﴾

A progeny, some of them are from some, and Allahh (swt) provides the hearing, and provides the evidence-based knowledge!

Now I want you to pay attention to something already Allahh (swt) is giving us a clue. ذُرِّيَّةً بَعْضُهَا مِنْ بَعْضٍ. What are we talking about? “Alla- Ibrāhīm” ءَالَ إِبْرَٰهِيمَ includes the community where Zakaryia was from. Remember Maryam ran away from her people from “Ale-Ɛimrān”ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ and came to the community where Zakaryia was. She took refuge with him and he was her mentor. And as I just described, she was with him all the time. Therefore, that means she was his woman. Allahh (swt) is telling us “Alla- Ibrāhīm” ءَالَ إِبْرَٰهِيمَ, the people of Zakaria and “Ale-Ɛimrān” ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ, the people of Maryam inter married ذُرِّيَّةً بَعْضُهَا مِنْ بَعْضٍ. They're a progeny. Some of them are from some others again in the same Sūrah Al- Ɛimrān, the same expression clearly describes this detailed that I'm sharing with you. So right away in ayat 34, Allahh (swt) telling us pay attention. We're telling you the story of who is a child of whom and who is the parent of whom, who is the progeny from whom etc?

Now, Allahh (swt) is telling us he selected ādam and Nūḥ, and the followers of Ibrāhīm and the followers of Ɛimrān. Again, there's a lot more detailed coming in part three. So, hold your horses a little bit on this ayat. But understand that already Allahh (swt) is telling us he selected them when the subordinate woman of Ɛimrān, meaning the mother of Maryam, as we shall see.

إِذْ قَالَتِ ٱمْرَأَتُ عِمْرَٰنَ رَبِّ إِنِّى نَذَرْتُ لَكَ مَا فِى بَطْنِى مُحَرَّرًا فَتَقَبَّلْ مِنِّىٓ إِنَّكَ أَنتَ ٱلسَّمِيعُ ٱلْعَلِيمُ ﴿3:35﴾

Such as when the subordinate woman from 3imrān said: “My lord! I have dedicated what is in my belly, emancipated, and thus, accept from me. You are the provider of hearing, the provider of evidence-based knowledge!

She said, my Lord, I am dedicating, or I have dedicated what's in my belly emancipated مُحَرَّرًا and thus accept from me, you are the provider of hearing the provider evidence-based knowledge ٱلسَّمِيعُ ٱلْعَلِيمُ. Pay attention to this expression because it's going to happen again. And ٱلسَّمِيعُ ٱلْعَلِيمُ already happened right in ayat 3:34. Allahh (swt) is bringing to our attention that this ذُرِّيَّةً. This progeny happened as a result of the duaa. The duaa of whom? بَعْضٍ some from this side, and بَعْضٍ some of them from that side, some of them from the other side.

What do we know so far? We know that Zakaryia made the duaa. We know that the mother of Maryam before she delivered Maryam, as we will see in ayat 36, she made a duaa for her and for Maryam. The duaa from Maryam's mom is cited in 3:35. Allahh (swt) tell us, what she asked for we gave her therefore you have to accept it.

فَلَمَّا وَضَعَتْهَا قَا لَتْ رَبِّ إِنِّى وَضَعْتُهَآ أُنثَىٰ وَٱللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا وَضَعَتْ وَلَيْسَ ٱلذَّكَرُ كَٱلْأُنثَىٰ وَإِنِّى سَمَّيْتُهَا مَرْيَمَ وَإِنِّىٓ أُعِيذُهَا بِكَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهَا مِنَ ٱلشَّيْطَٰنِ ٱلرَّجِيمِ ﴿3:36﴾

And when she delivered her, she said: "My lord! I have delivered her as a female!" - And Allahh is the best provider of knowledge regarding what she delivered, and the male is not like the female - "And I have named her Maryam. And I seek refuge in you for her and for her progeny against the Shayṭān who is 'Rajeem' (i.e., liable to cast people away from a direct connection with you)!"

فَلَمَّا وَضَعَتْهَا When she delivered her قَا لَتْ رَبِّ إِنِّى وَضَعْتُهَآ أُنثَىٰ She said, my Lord, I have delivered her as a female وَٱللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا وَضَعَتْ And Allahh (swt) is the best provider of knowledge regarding what you delivered. Meaning Allahh (swt) already knew this, but we can't translate it this way. We have to translate it in a way that ascribes due reverence to Allahh (swt). So, we say Allah (swt) is the best provider of knowledge regarding what she delivered. And the male is not like the female وَلَيْسَ ٱلذَّكَرُ كَٱلْأُنثَىٰ. I already showed you an example where you have to give preference to the feminine أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ is not talking about male Zakaryia. It's talking about her feminine woman, third person Maryam. I hope it's already starting to come together. So, as you see, the Qurʿān gives us clues and the clues are for those who are attentive, aware, paying attention.

وَإِنِّى سَمَّيْتُهَا مَرْيَمَ وَإِنِّىٓ أُعِيذُهَا بِكَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهَا مِنَ ٱلشَّيْطَٰنِ ٱلرَّجِيمِ I have named her Maryam and I seek refuge in you for her and for her progeny. Progeny, multiple. So right away, Allahh (swt) is telling us the duaa that she made was for multiples. Multiple what? Multiple children, as you will see, as we said it wasn't just one son. If Allahh (swt) gave her just one son, don't you think that he would have told us duaa about one son? Of course, Allahh (swt) told us ذُرِّيَّةً a multiple. That's why we need to pay attention that when Allahh (swt) tells us later in ayat 37 فَتَقَبَّلَهَا Allahh (swt) accepted her. That means he accepted the supplication from her mom. وَإِنِّىٓ أُعِيذُهَا بِكَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهَا مِنَ ٱلشَّيْطَٰنِ ٱلرَّجِيمِ From the Shayāṭan who is “Rajeem” i.e., liable to cast people away from a direct connection with Allahh (swt).

فَتَقَبَّلَهَا رَبُّهَا بِقَبُولٍ حَسَنٍ وَأَنۢبَتَهَا نَبَاتًا حَسَنًا وَكَفَّلَهَا زَكَرِيَّا كُلَّمَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا زَكَرِيَّا ٱلْمِحْرَابَ وَجَدَ عِندَهَا رِزْقًا قَالَ يَٰمَرْيَمُ أَنَّىٰ لَكِ هَٰذَا قَالَتْ هُوَ مِنْ عِندِ ٱللَّهِ إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ يَرْزُقُ مَن يَشَآءُ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿3:37﴾

And so, her lord accepted her (Maryam) by (her) insightful acceptance, and caused her to sprout an insightful yield (i.e., knowledge and/or progeny), while he had put her under the mentorship of Zakariya: Every time Zakariya approached her in (trying to teach her of) the tabernacle, he found her with sustenance, he would say: "O Maryam! How come you have this?", (and) she would say, "It is from the dominion of Allahh! Indeed, Allahh provides sustenance for whom wills without bounds!"

You really need to pay attention to this one. This is one of the most stunning at ayat about this whole story. Allahh (swt) is telling us. So, her Lord accepted her, meaning Allahh (swt) accepted Maryam فَتَقَبَّلَهَا رَبُّهَا بِقَبُولٍ حَسَنٍ by her insightful acceptance. What do you mean by her insightful acceptance? Well, Allahh (swt) accepted Maryam because of Maryam acceptance to the insights of the scripture. Remember she came to the Zakaryia to learn, to run away from the ignorance that existed back in her Homeland. She came to Zakaryia and Allahh (swt) had her put under the mentorship of the Zakaryia. The Zakaryia, as we saw is a very pious person, very learned and a leader in his own community.

Allahh (swt) continues every time Zakaryia approached her in trying to teach her of the tabernacle of ٱلْمِحْرَابَ, pay attention to this one. كُلَّمَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا زَكَرِيَّا ٱلْمِحْرَابَ that means Zakaryia approached her to give her something or to request something or to teach her right. That's what دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا. It doesn't mean physically entered where she was. It may mean that, but in general, the Qurʿān, if you review all of the places where “dakahala Ala” it's usually with the request or with an offer or with an assistance of some sort or teaching that kind of feeling for the word “dakahala Ala”. Approached her and trying to teach her of the tabernacle, meaning anything he learned from ٱلْمِحْرَابَ. He found her with sustenance رِزْقًا. They told us that رِزْقًا includes fruits and includes this and that, and some vegetables and some bread, and the Zakaryia would not know where all of this food was coming from already putting a question mark, by the way, hint, hint. No, it's not like that. رِزْقًا in the Qurʿān is described as spiritual sustenance; meaning knowledge, new ideas, new learnings and the revelations that Allahh (swt) provide.

How do we know this? Her answer gives us the answer. We don't need to make it up. So Zakaryia would ask O Maryam, how come you have this? And she would say it is from the dominion of Allahh (swt) مِنْ عِندِ ٱللَّهِ. Allahh (swt) is not sending you bananas, apples, walnuts and almonds and all of this stuff they told us about in the tafseer. Allahh (swt) is sending her the knowledge and the understanding. She continues “indeed. Allahh (swt) provides sustenance for whom wills to be receiving such sustenance without bond”. All you have to do is to will it, to work for it, to seek it, to ask Allahh (swt) sincerely, and as Maryam is telling Zakariya Allahh (swt) gives you anything you ask for.

So already we see a beautiful relationship based on this love of knowledge between Maryam and Zakaryia to the point where Zakaryia is going to teach her. And he finds that she knows already some things, and he asked, where are you getting this from? Where is this coming to you? Of course, he would know, but he wanted to make sure that no one else is coming and teaching her behind his back. Of course, she was with him all the time. That's why he's asking how come you have all of this? And she would answer the right answer. She would say it's from Allahh (swt) and Allahh (swt) gives without bounds. I ask Allahh (swt) to give us all without bounds.

هُنَالِكَ دَعَا زَكَرِيَّا رَبَّهُۥ قَالَ رَبِّ هَبْ لِى مِن لَّدُنكَ ذُرِّيَّةً طَيِّبَةً إِنَّكَ سَمِيعُ ٱلدُّعَآءِ ﴿3:38﴾

There, Zakariya supplicated his lord, saying: “My lord! Grant me from your ways a volitional progeny. Indeed, you are receptive to supplication!”

This is the beautiful part. “There” هُنَالِكَ, Zakaryia supplicated his Lord, saying: “My Lord! Grant me from your ways a volitional progeny”. We talked about volition in the prior two segments, especially in the segment about Ayat-Al Kursiy. Please go back to that. This is really an important concept and term. So that Zakaryia is saying, give me from your ways a volitional progeny “tayyiba”طَيِّبَةً , willingly following you. إِنَّكَ سَمِيعُ ٱلدُّعَآءِ , again, سَمِيعُ we saw this earlier in ayat 34 and 35, all of these markings, Allahh (swt) is telling us pay attention. This is all about these duaas that are being made. One by Zakaryia and one by the woman from 3imrān and so on and so forth. Therefore, the progeny that he's about to tell us about is all related to all of these duaas and notice how they're starting to be interweaved.

Notice هُنَالِكَ at that specific point. After Maryam told him it is from Allahh (swt) who gives whoever wills without bounds. That's exactly when Zakaryia says, this is the woman I want for my children. This is the woman I wish I can have my children with her. So that's why he made the duaa. And that's why Allahh (swt) told us there at that point, he made the duaa. Now you see this explains the parts from Sūrah Maryam where it didn't say this. This clue was kept from us in Sūrah Maryam, which came before, if you remember. Therefore, the companions did not know everything. For a long time, they did not know the interpretation of Sūrah Maryam until that Sūrah Al- Ɛimrān came most of them did not understand Sūrah Maryam. Did our beloved Prophet (saws) understand it Allahh (swt) knows because Sūrah Al- Ɛimrān provides critical clues without which you cannot understand Sūrah Maryam.
