Yes. Let's look at that analysis and you'll see it for yourself. Again, The Quran is very simple If you apply the methodology. But if you don't want to think, and if you want to rush, then it's not simple at all. You're only going to confuse yourself and others. تَّرَآئِبِ is plural of تَرِيبَة, and is from the same root as أَتْرَاب (Atrāb), which means contemporaries or multiples, many different people who are at the same age, or in the same location, or they grew up together. Any Arabic speaker knows the word أَتْرَاب (Atrāb) right here. It's actually used even in the Qurʿān.

So, this is like what Dr. Hany? Well, like the following words:

مَدَآئِن plural of مَدِينَة = place of Deen
خَزَآئِن plural of خَزِينَة = Depository
طَرَآئِق plural of طَرِيقَة = way
بَصَآئِرَ plural of بَصِيرَة = insight
كَبَآئِر plural of كَبِيرَة = something major (like a sin)
شَعَآئِر plural of شَعِيرَة = ritual or milestone
حَدَآئِق plural of حَدِيقَة = garden

So, we're not making it up. We're letting the Qurʿān teach us morphology. So تَّرَآئِبِ, it is like مَدَآئِن, خَزَآئِن, طَرَآئِق, بَصَآئِرَ, etc. And we know the singulars for all of these things. So therefore, we just apply the same thing. So تَرِيبَة means a contemporary. It's a single person, but we don't usually say single تَّرَآئِبِ. We say plural because there's usually multiple contemporaries.

So therefore (the verse continues): "that comes out from between (those having) intercourse and contemporaries." Well, eh, it's not really convincing. Let's look at some more. There's plenty more.

This is from Sūrah Al Hajj (22:5):

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ إِن كُنتُمْ فِى رَيْبٍ مِّنَ ٱلْبَعْثِ فَإِنَّا خَلَقْنَٰكُم مِّن تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ مِن مُّضْغَةٍ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ وَغَيْرِ مُخَلَّقَةٍ لِّنُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ وَنُقِرُّ فِى ٱلْأَرْحَامِ مَا نَشَآءُ إِلَىٰٓ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ نُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوٓا۟ أَشُدَّكُمْ وَمِنكُم مَّن يُتَوَفَّىٰ وَمِنكُم مَّن يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰٓ أَرْذَلِ ٱلْعُمُرِ لِكَيْلَا يَعْلَمَ مِنۢ بَعْدِ عِلْمٍ شَيْـًٔا وَتَرَى ٱلْأَرْضَ هَامِدَةً فَإِذَآ أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا ٱلْمَآءَ ٱهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ وَأَنۢبَتَتْ مِن كُلِّ زَوْجٍۭ بَهِيجٍ ﴿22:5﴾ - الحج

O people! If you were in doubt about the revivification, then (know that) we indeed created you (plural) from 'Turāb' (multitude), then from a zygote, then from a clinging clot….

Note that خَلَقْنَٰكُم is a reference to plural, that is "created you (plural)." تُرَابٍ 'Turāb' means multitude, we're going to see this in a minute, just be patient. In here نُّطْفَةٍ means zygote. It's right there. The verse says all people are created from a zygote. You cannot deny it, but is that enough? No, there's more.

This is from Sūrah An Najm (53:45-46):

وَأَنَّهُۥ خَلَقَ ٱلزَّوۡجَيۡنِ ٱلذَّكَرَ وَٱلۡأُنثَىٰ ﴿53:45﴾ مِن نُّطۡفَةٍ إِذَا تُمۡنَىٰ ﴿53:46﴾ - النجم

And he has created the pair, male and female, from a zygote when it is inseminated

إِذَا تُمۡنَىٰ means "when it is inseminated." So, he's defining نُّطۡفَةٍ 'zygote', as something that must be inseminated. This is exactly what is meant by: "from a zygote when it is inseminated." Again, this is becoming clearer and more convincing.

Sūrah Al Qiyamah (75:36-37):

أَيَحۡسَبُ ٱلۡإِنسَٰنُ أَن يُتۡرَكَ سُدًى ﴿75:36﴾ أَلَمۡ يَكُ نُطۡفَةً مِّن مَّنِيٍّ يُمۡنَىٰ ﴿75:37﴾ - القيامة

Does the directly guidable man think that he would be left untethered. Was he not a zygote from a discharged seminal fluid?

In other words: "was he not formed as a zygote as a result of the insemination that came from the seminal fluid?" نُّطۡفَةٍ again. So, the rule that we're seeing here (and we're going to see more) is that every time Allahh (SWA) talks about the creation of insan, the source is always نُّطۡفَةٍ, zygote, inseminated ovum. This is very clear.

Sūrah 'Abasa (80:17-19):

قُتِلَ ٱلۡإِنسَٰنُ مَآ أَكۡفَرَهُۥ ﴿80:17﴾ مِنۡ أَيِّ شَيۡءٍ خَلَقَهُۥ ﴿80:18﴾ مِن نُّطۡفَةٍ خَلَقَهُۥ فَقَدَّرَهُۥ ﴿80:19﴾ - عبس

The designee (i.e., that person referenced in the opening of this Sūrah, and whom the reader should be able to recall) was killed! What caused him to be (labelled as) a rejecter? (It was) Because of any of the things (from which) he created him (i.e., physically, spiritually, and intellectually): (First) From a zygote (i.e., when it is inseminated) he (Allahh) had created him and then apportioned his formation (in due measure),

Remember this is from Sūrah 'Abasa, and we've talked about this in that whole series. مِن نُّطۡفَةٍ خَلَقَهُۥ فَقَدَّرَهُۥ "(First) From a zygote (i.e., when it is inseminated) he (Allahh) had created him and then apportioned his formation (in due measure)" So this is about that specific person, but the naming insan applies to every insan. I hope it's clear. It's really very obvious if you just allow the Qurᶜān to teach you. I'm not making things up. I'm just asking you to read with your own eyes.

We continue from Sūrah Al Insan:

إِنَّا خَلَقۡنَا ٱلۡإِنسَٰنَ مِن نُّطۡفَةٍ أَمۡشَاجٍ نَّبۡتَلِيهِ فَجَعَلۡنَٰهُ سَمِيعَۢا بَصِيرًا ﴿76:2﴾ - الإنسان

Verily, we have created the directly guidable man from a zygote formed by merging: To enable him to learn, we endowed him with the ability to hear and see مِن نُّطْفَةٍ أَمْشَاجٍ means "from a zygote formed by merging." This makes it clear that the zygote is not just the ovum, it's the ovum that has been inseminated. Something else merged with it. And you know that's the operation of the sperm entering the ovum. This is very obvious, and very clear, if you just look.

Sūrah An Nahl (16:4)

خَلَقَ ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿16:4﴾ - النحل

(Allahh) created the directly guidable man from a zygote, and then he turned into a clear opponent.

Allahh (SWA) is teaching us. You are a zygote, remember this, you are all zygotes. And therefore, don't get so hardy and arrogant, and start questioning, and being an opponent to Allah (SWA). And this is a statement for all of the atheists out there, and all of those who reject the Qurʿān, and all of those who refuse to listen to the evidence from the Qurʿān. It applies to all of those people because when you're refusing to make the Qurʿān dominant over everything else, you're becoming an opponent to Allahh (SWA). Let me repeat it. And I want everyone to hear this: When you're refusing to make the Qurʿān dominant over everything else you know, you are becoming an opponent to Allahh (SWA). And Allahh is reminding you that you too were created from a نُّطْفَةٍ, a zygote.

Here are some more ayat:

Surah Al Mu'minun (23:12-13):

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ مِن سُلَٰلَةٍ مِّن طِينٍ ﴿23:12﴾ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَٰهُ نُطْفَةً فِى قَرَارٍ مَّكِينٍ ﴿23:13﴾ - المؤمنون

Again, this is a proof that the zygote must be inseminated. The zygote must have the sperm enter the ovum in order for it to become a zygote. Allahh (SWA) is telling us this zygote is placed in a very secure, secret component, or secret place, which as we know is the womb of the mother. The zygote attaches itself to the wall in order to start forming into the baby, et cetera. So Allahh (SWA) is describing this process فِى قَرَارٍ مَّكِينٍ, "in a place secure and secretive."

Allahh (SWA) also gives us more information in Sūrah Fatir (35:11). (Correct the reference in the notes)

وَٱللَّهُ خَلَقَكُم مِّن تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَكُمْ أَزْوَٰجًا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنثَىٰ وَلَا تَضَعُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِۦ ۚ وَمَا يُعَمَّرُ مِن مُّعَمَّرٍ وَلَا يُنقَصُ مِنْ عُمُرِهِۦٓ ۚ إِلَّا فِى كِتَٰبٍ إِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى ٱللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿35:11﴾ - فاطر

“From تُرَابٍ and then from نُّطْفَةٍ” Who? خَلَقَكُم meaning “all of you (plural, everyone)”

Finally, from Sūrah Ya Sin:

أَوَلَمْ يَرَ ٱلْإِنسَٰنُ أَنَّا خَلَقْنَٰهُ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿36:77﴾ - يٰس

“Insan has been created from نُّطْفَةٍ.” Some of you are saying, whoa, how come we didn't read all of these ayat? How come we still believe that 3īssās birth was different? Well, “it was a miracle,” some say. If it was a miracle, it should be told in the Qurʿān. If you believe that the birth of 3īssā (AS) was a miracle, that means Allahh forgot to tell you about that exception, and that possibility in all of these ayat. Is this possible, or is it possible that what they taught us is wrong? I think the second one. What they taught us is wrong, these ayat are correct. There are no exceptions.

And this is the conclusion:

إِنْسَان Insān is always created from a zygote, a fertilized ovum. And إِنْسَان Insān is always the result of intercourse between contemporaries (even with artificial insemination).

And I know what some of you are going to tell me. By the way, cloning does not apply because cloning has not proven that it produces human beings yet. So Allahh (SWA) is telling us the truth. And insha Allahh, cloning will be disproven. It's already invalidated in many scientific circles as a legitimate way to proceed.

Therefore, the Qurʿān is correct. There are no exceptions to this rule, and 3īssā (AS) must have been subjected to the same rule. And that's why, as we will see, both Maryam and Zakariya understood this, and in their questions assume that it must take a man and a woman. We will see this insha Allahh.

The 2 Parents Law

So now we move to the second proof. The two parents law is given by Allahh (SWA) himself. The first proof was about zygote. Now we need to talk about the two parents. And this piece of evidence has been used by other Islamic scholars before, so I'm not the first one to talk about this. But all the other evidences, insha Allahh, this is presented and disclose for you for the first time on this channel.

In Sūrah Al An’am (6:101) Allahh (SWA)says:

بَدِيعُ ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَٱلْأَرْضِ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لَهُۥ وَلَدٌ وَلَمْ تَكُن لَّهُۥ صَٰحِبَةٌ وَخَلَقَ كُلَّ شَىْءٍ وَهُوَ بِكُلِّ شَىْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿6:101﴾ - الانعام

How would he have a child when he did not have a female mate…

Now think about this. Allahh (SWA) is teaching us the logic that there is no way to have a child without having a mate, without having two: one male and one female. I repeat even to disprove that Allahh himself does not have a child, Allahh used the logic that in order for Allahh to have a child, astagfirullah, he should have had a mate from the opposite sex. First of course, Allahh (SWA) does not have a male or a female sex. We know that, but Allahh is teaching us the logic of how to think about someone claiming that he has a son himself.

Therefore, we apply the same logic to a human being. So, if someone is having a son, such as a Maryam, it must be that she has a mate. This is the same logic that is given to us in here. If you refuse to believe that 3īssā had a father, and not just a mother, then you are belying this ayah too. And you've already belied all of the prior ayat from part 1 of the 10 proofs that I'm sharing with you.

So, we continue. There's a famous paragraph that supports the two parents law, as we said, and it has no exceptions. Again, this is a continuation of the same proof. This is from Sūrah Al ‘Ankabut (29:8):

وَوَصَّيْنَا ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ حُسْنًا وَإِن جَٰهَدَاكَ لِتُشْرِكَ بِى مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَآ إِلَىَّ مَرْجِعُكُمْ فَأُنَبِّئُكُم بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿29:8﴾ - العنكبوت

And we counseled the directly guidable man, with insight, in regard to his two parents…

This ayah talks about the two parents بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ of ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ. There are no exceptions given in this ayah. Allahh (SWA) did not forget to include the exception of the miraculous condition of 3īssā. Allahh (SWA) does not forget. Allahh (SWA) told us ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ were counseled to have a good relationship with his two parents بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ means two. No exceptions.

This is just a quick confirmation that this law really applies throughout the whole Qurʿān.

وَوَصَّيْنَا ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُۥ وَهْنًا عَلَىٰ وَهْنٍ وَفِصَٰلُهُۥ فِى عَامَيْنِ أَنِ ٱشْكُرْ لِى وَلِوَٰلِدَيْكَ إِلَىَّ ٱلْمَصِيرُ ﴿31:14﴾ - لقمان

And we counseled the directly guidable man in regard to his two parents…

وَوَصَّيْنَا ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ بِوَٰلِدَيْهِ إِحْسَٰنًا حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُۥ كُرْهًا وَوَضَعَتْهُ كُرْهًا وَحَمْلُهُۥ وَفِصَٰلُهُۥ ثَلَٰثُونَ شَهْرًا حَتَّىٰٓ إِذَا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُۥ وَبَلَغَ أَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً قَالَ رَبِّ أَوْزِعْنِىٓ أَنْ أَشْكُرَ نِعْمَتَكَ ٱلَّتِىٓ أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَىَّ وَعَلَىٰ وَٰلِدَىَّ وَأَنْ أَعْمَلَ صَٰلِحًا تَرْضَىٰهُ وَأَصْلِحْ لِى فِى ذُرِّيَّتِىٓ إِنِّى تُبْتُ إِلَيْكَ وَإِنِّى مِنَ ٱلْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿46:15﴾ - الاحقاف

And we counseled the directly guidable man, with insight, in regard to his two parents…

The No Miraculous Pregnancy Law

This is proof number 3. The question here is: Did Zakariya or Maryam believe in miraculous virgin conception? This is so beautiful. Just watch, it's really stunning. The question is: Did Maryam herself, for example, believe that she could become a pregnant person without a man? Did Zakariya believe that it is possible to have his woman "ٱمْرَأَتِى" become pregnant without having a man. So Allahh (SWA), in a beautiful pattern, explains to us that it wasn't even on their mind.

In the first ayah 19:8 (we've gone through this in part two by the way):

Zakariya: قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ ٱلْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ﴿19:8﴾ مريم

قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ ﴿19:9﴾ - مريم

Here, Zakariya is asking about how he can have a Ghulam, and how his woman has been pinned down عَاقِرًا, and how he is being harassed by the elders, as I explained before, etc. So, he's talking about himself, a male and ٱمْرَأَتِى, a female, and 'neither of us are having intercourse.' This is the clear understanding from here. Allahh (SWA) answered: قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ "it's exactly as you said, it takes two of you. So, one of you is not sufficient, it takes two of you." Is this just my own thinking My own imagination. That happens to be in one ayah? No. Watch, all four cases, as I described last time, have the same pattern.

In the case of Maryam, she said the same thing.

Maryam: قَالَتْ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا ﴿19:20﴾ - مريم

قَالَ كَذَٰلِكِ ﴿19:21﴾ - مريم

She also asked about how she could have a ghulam. And we said this ghulam is Yahya. Whereas walad, which is mentioned in Sūrah Ali 'Imran is about 3īssā. So she says: أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ "How can I have a ghulam," وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ "while I have not been approached or harmed or affected by a basher (a human being)," وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا "and I didn't go out to seek it." That means again, "I didn't have a man join me."

Therefore, in her case, she is thinking man and woman. Herself being the woman, and she's saying: "no man approached me. No man harmed me." So therefore, Allahh (SWA) said: قَالَ كَذَٰلِكِ, "it's exactly, as you're thinking, it takes two. So therefore think, you know, what other options do you have?"

And therefore, the messenger, who was Zakariya, approached her with the option: "I will grant you a ghulam. So I am the answer to this dilemma you're having."

The third example, from Sūrah Ali 'Imran.

Zakariya: قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَقَدْ بَلَغَنِىَ ٱلْكِبَرُ وَٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرٌ ... ﴿3:40﴾ - آل عمران

قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ ... ﴿3:40﴾ - آل عمران

This is Zakariya speaking. The same thing. I am a man, and I'm being harassed, and my woman is pinned down, meaning she cannot go out and get married. So therefore, a male and a female, a man and a woman. And Allahh (SWA) answered: قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ "exactly the same way you said, a man and a woman."

And finally, in the case of 3īssā (AS), Allahh (SWA) tells us:

Maryam: قَالَتْ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى وَلَدٌ وَلَمْ يَمْسَسْنِى بَشَرٌ ... ﴿3:47﴾ - آل عمران

قَالَ كَذَٰلِكِ ... ﴿3:47﴾ - آل عمران

Maryam is saying: "and I have not been harmed or affected by anyone after Zakariya to have a child." She didn't even know she was pregnant from Zakariya already. She thought the angels are telling her about the future. So Allahh (SWA) says: قَالَ كَذَٰلِكِ "it's already happened. It's already happened because you have been with Zakariya."

So the last sentence was about 3īssā as we explained in the last segment. In all four cases above, Allahh (SWA) tells us "it's exactly as you said, you can be pregnant from a man and a woman only." No thought of a miraculous conception. None of them says: "Oh yeah, it's easy. Allahh does what he wants, and I can become pregnant without a man." She didn't say that. And Zakariya never said: "Oh, my woman can become pregnant even without me approaching her." So Allahh (SWA) is confirming in these four cases, a clear pattern that neither Zakariya nor Maryam thought about the possibility of miraculous conception.

Now, why is this so important? It's a lot more than you think. Just wait and learn. Allahh (SWA) is telling us this because according to the old Testament, in the book of Isaiah, there is a mention of someone coming in the future to be born of a virgin woman. Now, if the book of Isaiah was true, then Zakariya and Maryam would know about it. With both of them living in the Jewish community of the people of Zakariya, and both of them receiving guidance from Allahh (SWA). However, if both of these people had no clue of the possibility of the Virgin birth, then the book of Isaiah is bogus. It's a lie. It's not true because the Qurʿān is teaching us. Neither of them even thought about the possibility of a virgin birth. So Allahh (SWA) is telling us there are some people who had an interest in hiding the truth that the Qurʿān was revealing to us in order not to create problems for the old Testament.

And by the way, it's not just old Testament. It's also the new Testament, as you know. So, there were plenty of enemies against the Qurʿān who are interested in smothering the truth of the Qurʿān, and bringing their own claims, and make them up as the interpretation in the tafseer of the Qurʿān. I hope this is shocking you, but this is obviously clear as I just showed you.

Now we continue. Why was Mariam surprised in ayah 3:45 if this was not her first pregnancy? And I've already given you part of the answer: because Zakariya had died recently and she did not know she was pregnant. Therefore, the angels had to come to tell her really early. Why? Because they needed her to run away and escape. So, they needed her to know that those after Zakariya, as he was afraid of them, are going to end up competing for her, and fighting to get her, to get their hands on her, so to speak. And you know the rest of the story.

So, the angels were in a hurry to tell her very early on, after the death of Zakariya. She did not necessarily know about the scientific aspect of pregnancy, by the way. It's not like they knew it takes exactly so many days and so many weeks, et cetera. As a matter of fact, even the early Muslim scholars, such as Imam Malik, a very famous scholar from Medina, in the second century after our beloved (SAW). He himself (Imam Malik) claimed that pregnancy could take up to four years, and that's in his book by the way.So yes, they did not know all the scientific facts.

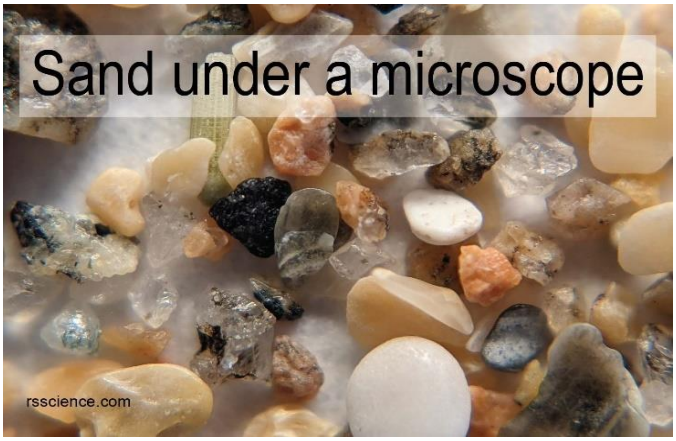
And if you're surprised that Malik saying that. Obviously, he did not read the Qurʿān very carefully, because the Qurʿān speaks very clearly about the duration. So, it's very obvious that it cannot be correct that it's four years. Why he said it, or why somebody wrote about him that he said it, that we really don't know, and we don't care to be honest with you. But I'm just giving you a fact that even the earliest scholars of Islam did not have the scientific knowledge about pregnancy, and therefore Maryam herself, did not have that knowledge.

So Allahh (SWA) recounted the dialogue with the angels to teach us some facts about the recent death of Zakariya, as I just explained to you a little earlier. Therefore, we extracted so much information from this dialogue. So, it is not frivolous or useless type of information that Allahh put in the Qurʿān for us. Even if she knew about her being pregnan,t or recent intercourse with Zakariya, Allahh (SWA) had very, very important reasons to include that dialogue in the Qurʿān for us.

The Turāb Law

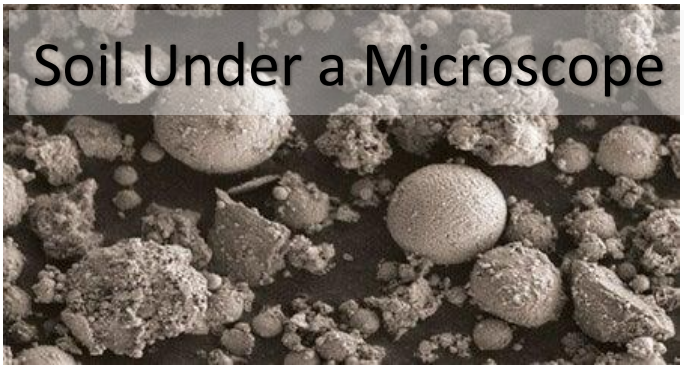
Now we move to proof number 4 out of 10 irrefutable Qurʿānic proofs against the traditionalist story, including the virgin conception claim. I hope you're paying attention because this is very important to the whole understanding of everything in the Qurʿān. So, the question that I ask is: what does Turāb تُرَاب mean? Does Turāb literally mean soil. Let's analyze a little bit. The answer is it simply means 'plurality' or 'multitude.' Multitude of grains of dirt or sand is an example of the word to Turāb. So, Turāb itself is not the soil, it's not the dust, and it's not the collection of the things in which we plant a seed. It is actually the fact that there are multiple grains in that handful or shovelful of sand, or whatever you grab to call Turāb.

Let me give you the proof and you'll see for yourself,



The image on the left-hand side is a microscopic image of a few grains of sand. It happens to be beach sand as you see on the right-hand side. So, on the left-hand side is the same thing under the microscope from what is on the right-hand side right here. Now the question is, if I give you one single piece such as this black piece in here, or this white or orange piece in here, and if I put it on a blank, white sheet of paper, or whatever color you want, and bring it to you, and I ask you what name would you give this? If you didn't know this came from under the microscope of a bunch of sand that we're looking at, would you call it Turāb? If you know Arabic, please answer me. And the answer is absolutely No. You will refer to this as a crystal, or you would refer to this as a micro rock. You would refer to it as a grain of something because it's so small. And yet it's right there, individual. So, one single thing is not Turāb. The multitude of this makes it Turāb. When you have so many of them, now you can say, ah, this is Turāb. So Turāb is the multitude, not the single individual thing.

Let's take another example.



This is soil, which is something we plant on, again, called Turāb in Arabic. Under the microscope the soil looks like this (on the left). If I bring you one single piece or two or five or 10, and put them on a sheet of paper without telling you where they came from, there's no way you could correctly call them Turāb. If you didn't know where they came from and I just brought a sheet with a handful of these single elements right here, you would not call them Turāb. So Turāb is the multitude itself, not the single elements.

I hope this is clear, but if you're not convinced there's more. Let's look at the Qurʿān (16:59):

يَتَوَٰرَىٰ مِنَ ٱلْقَوْمِ مِن سُوٓءِ مَا بُشِّرَ بِهِۦٓ أَيُمْسِكُهُۥ عَلَىٰ هُونٍ أَمْ يَدُسُّهُۥ فِى ٱلتُّرَابِ أَلَا سَآءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ ﴿16:59﴾ - النحل

... Shall he retain it despite contempt, or bury it in the soil?...

This is talking about people who would bury their infants, especially the female infants, because they consider this a bad omen, bad news, or bad information they are given. So very often some people would bury the very young female baby under the soil, under the dirt. This is exactly what this is talking about. Now pay attention because Allahh (SWA) did not call it تُرَاب Turāb. Allahh (SWA) called it ٱلتُّرَابِ At-Turāb "the dirt", which is a known entity. So, what is تُرَاب Turāb? It is not talking about the same thing because there is no لام التارف (Laam Al-tarif) in here. And as I explained in the last part, there's a difference between 'Salaam' and 'As-Salaam'. That meaning changes totally when you have the definite article added to a word. The 'al' right here ٱلتُّرَابِ. So, in the Qurʿān ٱلتُّرَابِ At-Turāb is "the dirt", تُرَاب Turāb is not the dirt, it simply means multitude.

This is the Qurʿānic language Habibi. This is the beauty of the Abrahamic locution. You have to really pay attention to how the Qurʿān uses the words, not how the Arabs use the words. What do you mean how the Arabs use the word, did they use the word تُرَاب Turāb? No, in general they always use ٱلتُّرَابِ At-Turāb, which is the known soil they look at when they walk, or the sand.

So therefore, ٱلتُّرَابِ At-Turāb is "the soil", تُرَاب Turāb is not the soil, it simply means plurality or multitude of something. Why is this so important? Because Allahh (SWA) created all of us from a multitude. That's what he's saying. He's not creating us from dirt, or from soil. He created us from multitude, from many, that's all it means.

How about Adam? Yes, Adam too. And you're going to see it. And this is why we've been saying Adam is not the very first human being. Adam is someone designated, who accepted the mission and became an intermediary to communicate to other human beings. This is how we defined Adam in the segment called: "who was Adam?" if you remember, go back and watch that segment.

Still not convinced? Let's look at some more information from Sūrah Al Baqarah (2:264):

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تُبْطِلُوا صَدَقَٰتِكُم بِٱلْمَنِّ وَٱلْأَذَىٰ كَٱلَّذِى يُنفِقُ مَالَهُۥ رِئَآءَ ٱلنَّاسِ وَلَا يُؤْمِنُ بِٱللَّهِ وَٱلْيَوْمِ ٱلْءَاخِرِ فَمَثَلُهُۥ كَمَثَلِ صَفْوَانٍ عَلَيْهِ تُرَابٌ فَأَصَابَهُۥ وَابِلٌ فَتَرَكَهُۥ صَلْدًا لَّا يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَىٰ شَىْءٍ مِّمَّا كَسَبُوا وَٱللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِى ٱلْقَوْمَ ٱلْكَٰفِرِينَ ﴿2:264﴾ - البقرة

O you who believed, do not invalidate your charities with prideful reminders (to the recipients) or injury (by declaring such charity to others) as does one who spends his wealth to brag to people and does not believe in Allahh and the last day. His similitude is like that of a self-selected practice upon which is a 'Turab' (i.e., a multitude of people), but then (the 'Turab') is hit by a deluge (of unfavorable conditions) that leaves it (i.e., the 'Turāb', the multitude) hard (like barren boulders), such that they have no effect regarding anything of what they have earned. And Allahh does not guide the rejecting people!

This ayah speaks about avoiding prideful reminders of charity by the givers, and harming the reputation of those who received the charity. صَفْوَانٍ means "a self-selected practice." Something groups of people select as a favorite practice, such as Du£āʿ with Allahhumma, making the wrong prayers that have nothing to do with what the Qurʿān taught us to do, and many other such صَفْوَانٍ that we will discuss in the future insha Allahh. Allahh (SWA) is warning us not to do this. صَفْوَانٍ عَلَيْهِ تُرَابٌ means "self-selected practice upon which is a multitude of people (تُرَاب Turāb). In other words, a multitude of people start practicing this self-selected practice.

Incidentally not long ago, about maybe two centuries ago or even less. There were in many Muslim cities, a very favorite practice of finding your favorite tomb, or your favorite cemetery, and people actually do Tawwaf (circumambulation) around those tombs and cemeteries. This is true. This is absolutely documented in history. That was their صَفْوَانٍ. Allahh (SWA) is teaching us that people are crazy. They make up their own things. You know, people want to do a certain way of dancing as a way of worshiping Allahh for example. This is صَفْوَانٍ, they chose this. Or a certain chant, or something that appeals to them in the way of saying Allahhumma in Du£āʿ. All of this is صَفْوَانٍ. They chose this, and it appeals to them. And with a large group of people, it becomes very hard to undo this learning. This is what Allahh (SWA) is talking about. So, this ayah is saying multitudes of people are following such صَفْوَانٍ and such random and arbitrary selected practice.

The ayah goes on to tell us that "but then (the 'Turab') is hit by a deluge (of unfavorable conditions) …" In other words, Allahh (SWA) brings them unfavorable conditions to wake them up. فَأَصَابَهُ وَابِلٌ "a deluge of unfavorable conditions." Think about the state of the Muslim community right now. I think we're under وَابِلٌ. But Allahh (SWA) is also being merciful to us because he's sharing with us the disclosures that I'm sharing with you. But then after this deluge, the Turāb is left hard (صَلْدًا), unable to receive. And this is a figurative word that's used consistently, like 'Hijara'. The rocks and boulders that don't receive the rain, and don't allow the rain to permeate its core. Allahh (SWA) uses these similar metaphors in this ayah. And then continues لَّا يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَىٰ شَىْءٍ "such that they have no effect regarding anything…" يَقْدِرُون is plural. And this proves what I'm saying, that تُرَاب Turāb is a multitude is not just one.

So, the word تُرَاب Turāb is singular in the syntax of Arabic, but its meaning is multitude. It's like قَوْم, which is singular, as a word in grammar, but its meaning is multitude. It's the same thing in here. تُرَاب Turāb is a singular word, but it really means a multitude. I hope the meaning is really clear.

The ayah concludes: وَٱللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِى ٱلْقَوْمَ ٱلْكَٰفِرِينَ "And Allahh does not guide the rejecting people!" And this is proof to the way I'm explaining it and translating it; that it's talking about a people, a group of people.

Now to another question: What does Turāb mean in the Qurʿān? Well, it depends on who's speaking. Remember when we talked about bauda, and before that, about how to circumcise a she-cow. And we said how the Banī Issrāʿīl would play on words, and how they would argue with Musa. We described that different groups have their own definitions of the words, and Allahh (SWA) was teaching us not to follow their definitions, but to seek the definitions of Allahhs Hukm and linguistic discernment.

Therefore, when Allahh (SWA) quotes some people using the word Turāb in the wrong way, it doesn't mean we should follow it. Watch this. Allahh (SWA) quotes people who reject monotheism, and the concept of 'the day after.' Watch how they use Turāb. They use it in the wrong way. And therefore, this is how some of the Mufassiroon and books of tafseer came up with the wrong conclusion. They didn't think about who is speaking. When Allahh is speaking, the word تُرَاب Turāb consistently means multitude, as I showed you. When Allahh (SWA) uses the word ٱلتُّرَابِ AL-Turab with the 'Al' , it means the soil. But when the non-believers use the word تُرَاب Turāb, they use it in the wrong way. And this is where the confusion comes in. So, if you really want to understand how Allahh (SWA) meant the word Turāb to be, don't listen to the rejecters and deniers, and those who 'kafaru'.

Let's look at some examples:

أَيَعِدُكُمْ أَنَّكُمْ إِذَا مِتُّمْ وَكُنتُمْ تُرَابًا وَعِظَٰمًا أَنَّكُم مُّخْرَجُونَ ﴿23:35﴾ - المؤمنون

(The disbelievers say:) "Does he promise that, when you have died and become 'Turab' (i.e., soil) and bones, then you are brought forth?"

In this case Turāb means "soil" according to the people speaking. That's how their thinking.

Another example:

قَالُوٓا أَءِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظَٰمًا أَءِنَّا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ ﴿23:82﴾ - المؤمنون

(The disbelievers say:) "When we have died and become 'Turab' (i.e., soil) and bones, then we are brought forth?"

The disbelievers again are questioning: "when we have died and become 'Turab' (i.e., soil) and bones." Yes, that's their definition. It is not the definition of Al Hukm, of the divine lexicon that Allahh (SWA) wants us to understand. So, did this cause confusion for earlier scriptures? Absolutely.

We're not created from soil. We're not. We're created from multitude. What does that mean? Where's the origin of human beings? Go research. The Qurʿān did not necessarily talk about that, but Allahh (SWA) is telling us: 'all of you who are reading the Qurʿān were created from multitude.' That's all its saying. It's talking about people who are reading the Qurʿān, and the earlier scriptures. That means as far back as the first scripture talking about تُرَاب Turāb, Allahh (SWA) is telling us 'you were created from multitude.'

That’s all it means. People took that word, misinterpreted it, and injected all sorts of mythology and fake information, and claimed that Allahh (SWA) does not know what he's talking about, astagfirullah.

It is not the scriptures that are to blame. It is people who use the word Turāb in the wrong way. I hope this is leaving an impact on you because this is phenomenal. And the evidence, as I show you, is right in front of our face. You can read the last example here:

وَقَالَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوٓا۟ أَءِذَا كُنَّا تُرَٰبًا وَءَابَآؤُنَآ أَئِنَّا لَمُخْرَجُونَ ﴿27:67﴾ - النمل

(The disbelievers say:) “When we have died and become ‘Turab’ (i.e., soil) and bones, then we are brought out?”

So, the disbelievers always use the word ‘Turāb’ (in the Qurʿān) to mean ‘soil’, due to their ignorance of the ‘Hudūd’ (semantic boundaries) and how Allahh used the word ‘Turāb’ in the ayat in his own voice! When Allahh (SWA) speaking directly in his own voice, the word Turāb is never used to mean soil, dirt, dust or any of that stuff. It is used to mean multitude.

The Ɛīssā and ādam Similarity Claim.

Now we continue with proof number four, but we answer a different question. So what is the similarity between Adam and 3īssā in the famous ayah 3:59?

إِنَّ مَثَلَ عِيسَىٰ عِندَ ٱللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ ءَادَمَ خَلَقَهُۥ مِن تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُۥ كُن فَيَكُونُ ﴿3:59﴾ - آل عمران

The similitude of Ɛīssā in the dominion of Allahh is as that of ādam: He created him from a multitude, and then said to him: “Be” and he is!

Remember we're still in the irrefutable Quranic proofs against the virgin conception claim, and against the traditionalist story regarding the miraculous conception by Maryam. So, this is the similarity between 3īssā and Adam claim. What this ayah is saying is that the similitude of 3īssā in the dominion of Allahh, in the eyes and consideration of Allahh, is like that of Adam. Well, how is he like Adam, if you guys claim that Adam is fatherless and motherless, and yet 3īssā is only fatherless? So right away, the similitude does not stand. These two are different things. How do you claim that that's the intention? They told us the intention is that they are a miraculous existence, you know, they existed out of nothing in the case of Adam. Well in the case of 3īssā, she was pregnant with him. We don't know how long, but then did he come out miraculously? No, she delivered him. So already very different. But why is Allahh (SWA) telling us that there is a similitude?

Now watch, and you're going to see the answer is so obvious and clear. Its staring us right in the face. خَلَقَهُۥ مِن تُرَابٍ “He created him from a multitude,” both of them. Adam and the 3īssā, both of them are created from multitude. What does that mean? That means there were multiple human beings before them. It also means at least two people got together to cause the conception. It's very obvious. It's right there.

The ayah continues: "and then said to him: " 'Be' and he is!" Ah, right there, this is a miracle? No, it's not. " 'Be' and he is" is the situation with every single thing in this universe.

إِنَّمَا أَمْرُهُ إِذَا أَرَادَ شَيْئًا أَنْ يَقُولَ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ(36:82)

Every single thing in this universe is كُن فَيَكُونُ. Therefore, when Allahh (SWA) is sharing with us the aspects that make them similar, right there in this ayah (3:59), which are:

- First, they were created from تُرَاب Turāb
- Second, that they were created by كُن فَيَكُونُ.

These two aspects are the basis of the similitude. It is not your right, or anyone's right to come and invent a new aspect of similitude by claiming a miracle. It does not say this. As a matter of fact, it denies that it's a miracle. Let's watch and see. In ayah (40:68), Allahh (SWA) says:

هُوَ ٱلَّذِي خَلَقَكُم مِّن تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوٓاْ أَشُدَّكُمْ ثُمَّ لِتَكُونُواْ شُيُوخًا وَمِنكُم مَّن يُتَوَفَّىٰ مِن قَبْلُ وَلِتَبْلُغُوٓاْ أَجَلًا مُّسَمًّى وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ (40:67) هُوَ ٱلَّذِي يُحْيِۦ وَيُمِيتُ فَإِذَا قَضَىٰٓ أَمْرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُۥ كُن فَيَكُونُ (40:68) - غافر

He is the one who created you from 'Turāb' (multitude), then from a zygote (a fertilized egg), then from a clot, then he brings you out as a baby, then until you reach your toughness, then for you to become capable of judging - and some of you are recompensed earlier – and for you to reach a named duration, and perchance you engage your core. He is the one who causes life and causes death. And if he decrees any matter he says it: "Be" and it is!

خَلَقَكُم is plural. "Created all of you (plural) from Turāb (from multitude)." Therefore, it's not just special to 3īssā or ādam.

In Sūrah Fatir (35:11):

وَٱللَّهُ خَلَقَكُم مِّن تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِن نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَكُمْ أَزْوَٰجًا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنثَىٰ وَلَا تَضَعُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِۦ وَمَا يُعَمَّرُ مِن مُّعَمَّرٍ وَلَا يُنقَصُ مِنْ عُمُرِهِۦٓ إِلَّا فِى كِتَٰبٍ إِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى ٱللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ (35:11) - فاطر

Again: خَلَقَكُم مِّن تُرَابٍ "Created all of you (plural) from Turāb (from multitude)." Therefore, being from Turāb is not unique to ādam or 3īssā.

So he's telling you the example of 3īssā is like that of any Adam. And remember, Adam is a variable to us, meaning multiple Adams. And every Adam, and every Banī ādam is created from multitude. That's all it is saying. So therefore, he's not special. Allah is telling you he is not special. The books of tafsir took this simple ayah and reversed it. And gave us the exact opposite of what it's trying to tell us.

In Sūrah Maryam (19:35):

مَا كَانَ لِلَّهِ أَن يَتَّخِذَ مِن وَلَدٍ سُبْحَانَهُ إِذَا قَضَىٰ أَمْرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُ كُن فَيَكُونُ (19:35) - مريم

إِذَا قَضَىٰ أَمْرًا "Whenever he decreased any matter," Allahh (SWA) says to it: " 'Be' and he is!" So, it is not just the 3īssā or ādam. And therefore, here again, they're not unique. There is nothing unique about either 3īssā nor ādam. I hope this is striking you compared to the disastrous interpretations that we've been subjected to. They took an ayah that is so simple, evident and positively confirming that there is nothing unique about ādam or 3īssā, and they twisted it to say the exact opposite by the wrong tafseer. That's the heart of the issue, the wrong tafseer.

To conclude. When Allahh is telling you the exact basis of similarity in ayah 3:59, no one has the right to make up their own basis of similarity. You cannot say, oh, they're similar because this and this. No, you can't do this because Allahh told you why he's saying that. And he gave us the two basis that I just shared with you.

So, what is the similarity between ādam and 3īssā?

Answer:

- Both are from 'Turāb'; i.e., from multitude!
- Both are like the rest of mankind, and everything in the universe: Both are the result of Allahh's decree for us to exist!

You want more? Watch. This is phenomenal. This is amazing.

The Recurrence of Ɛīssā and ādam Law.

We continue now with a concept that is called the recurrence of 3īssā and ādam law. This is a new law. Item number 5. So why did the Qurʿān not say say كُن فَكَانَ, "Be" and he was? What are you talking about Dr. Hany? Watch this. This is ayah 3:59 again from Sūrah Ali 'Imran:

إِنَّ مَثَلَ عِيسَىٰ عِندَ ٱللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ ءَادَمَ خَلَقَهُۥ مِن تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُۥ كُن فَيَكُونُ

﴿3:59﴾ - آل عمران

Not "كُن فَكَانَ"

The similitude of Ɛīssā in the dominion of Allahh is as that of ādam. He created from a multitude, and he then said to him: "Be" and he shall be!

This is the ayah, this is the Qurʿān I just read to you. Now they told us by the time this ayah was revealed, 3īssā was in the past. That's true. They also told us ādam was in the past. Their claim is ādam was the first human being. Fine. Allahh (SWA) says خَلَقَهُ "he created (in the past tense) before." That's fair. So, the ayah is confirming that this ādam he's talking about, or 3īssā that he's talking about was created. Fair enough. We continue. They say from Turāb. And I proved to you that Turāb does not mean soil, dirt or dust. It means multitude.

The ayah continues: ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُۥ كُن فَيَكُونُ "and he then said (past tense) to him: "Be" and he shall be!" You would expect فَكَانَ "he was" rather than فَيَكُونُ "he is." In other words, all the encircled words are in the past. Why is this present and future? يَكُونُ. So remember, in Arabic and the Qurʿān specifically, when we see a present tense referring back to something that Allahh does, it means present and future. It's non-stop because it's a present situation. So, every time in the future, it's always present.

Therefore, Allahh says يَكُونُ. Whereas, everything he is talking about is supposedly in the past. 3īssā is definitely in the past. Adam, as they claimed in the past. خَلَقَهُ is past tense. قَالَ is past tense. Therefore, you expect فَكَانَ "he was" rather than فَيَكُونُ "he is." My Arabic speaking brothers right now are alert, their ears are perked up, and they're listening. Yes, you're right. Why didn't he say فَكَانَ "Be" and he was? Why didn't the Qurʿān say this? Again, this is the power of observation. If you apply yourself, and you allow the methodology to guide you, then Allahh (SWA) discloses things to you.

So 3īssā is past, ādam is supposedly passed, as they told us, which is wrong. 'Created' in the past, 'said' in the past. You expect this to be followed with "he was". But the ayah says يَكُونُ "he shall be". What's going on in here? Why did the Qurʿān use the present tense? يَكُونُ. I know this is a little bit too advanced for some people, but please pay attention. It's so beautiful. It is stunning in its expressiveness, and ability to disclose all sorts of information. When Allahh (SWA) said يَكُونُ for something that's supposed to be in the past, there is something unusual. You stop whenever you trip on something, because that's where the treasure is. Allahh (SWA) is telling you stop, stop. You could have expected فَكَانَ because he's talking about in the past. And indeed, the verbs 'created' and 'said' are both in the past, but yet فَيَكُونُ is present and future. The question is why?

Answer:

- The present tense, as it relates to Allahh, always indicates the present with potential for future الحاضر مع إحتمال المستقبل !!!
- Both characters, ādam and Ɛīssā (that were supposed to be in the past) may materialize (Allahh willing) in the future (after this ayah was revealed).

That's the reason. So Allahh (SWA) is telling us both of these characters may happen in the future. Well, what does that mean may happen in the future? Well, 3īssā may happen in the future. This is what this ayah is saying. This is where our beloved (SAW) learned about the possibility of 3īssā returning in the future. Allahh (SWA) used present tense with يَكُونُ. This is not the only evidence by the way, there are other evidences that we will disclose, insha Allahh, in future parts of the same series. So, stay tuned. You will be stunned with additional evidence that nobody shared with you. And it has not been disclosed to anyone before, Allahh (SWA) is disclosing this to us by the blessings of this channel. Alhamdulillah. So, stay tuned because there's a lot more to come, but this is just one of the stunning evidences.

يَكُونُ does not apply to something in the past. يَكُونُ must imply that something is coming in the future. In this case, 3īssā. Well, what about ādam? Yes. As I told you, ādam also is not only in the past. يَكُونُ applies to other people in the future who are ādam. And that's why we have a segment called: "I am ādam, are you too?" This segment has been severely underrated and under watched. I don't know why. But it's one of the most important segments that we have on this channel. So, I hope you go back and watch it if you have not done so. This is why we said "I am ādam, are you too?" Are you going to choose volitionally to become an ādam? Allahh (SWA) is telling us, when you choose, Allahh (SWA) will tell you كُن فَيَكُونُ, and you shall be ādam. It's so beautiful. It's so amazing the way it's presented in this ayah.

The Family of Zakariya Law

So now we continue with part 6 of the 10 irrefutable Qurʿānic proofs against the virgin conception claim. Again, Allahh (SWA) gave us all sorts of information in the Qurʿān. We're just sharing it, and displaying it for you. Alhamdulillah. This law is called the family of Zakariya law. So Zakariya, Yahya, Maryam and 3īssā are consistently mentioned together, as I explained. In Sūrah Maryam (19), Sūrah Ali 'Imran (3), and Sūrah Al Anbya (21). In all three cases, all of them are mentioned together as a family. You think this is a coincidence? Be my guest. If you think there are coincidences is in the Qurʿān, especially a coincidence that is repeated three times, then there's something wrong with what you believe about the Qurʿān. You believe that Allahh (SWA) is not perfect. He did not mean such coincidence. This is just a fluke. It's a coincidence. No, coincidences, as we said before, come from imperfect beings. A perfect being does not have coincidences. Everything where you see a clear pattern is intended. Allahh (SWA) does not have coincidences in the Qurʿān.

The story that 3īssā was Yahyas cousin is a pure lie, a fabricated concoction that is totally unsupported by the Qurʿān. He was not a cousin to Yahya. The Qurʿān gave us clear evidence that Maryam escaped from her clan Ali 'Imran, and took refuge with Zakariya, to a totally different geographical location. So, Maryam's sister had nothing to do with Zakariya, that was a totally different city, a different geography. And we're going to prove it in more details insha Allahh. We're going to tell you exactly where that location was. The Qurʿān tells us exactly, down to the city, where Ali 'Imran was, where Maryam came from, and we're going to see it. Then youre going to be amazed how come all of these details in the Qurʿān? They are in the Qurʿān. You're going to see them in part 4 insha Allahh.

In Sūrah Maryam, Allahh tells us:

1. وَٱذْكُرْ فِى ٱلْكِتَٰبِ مَرْيَمَ إِذِ ٱنتَبَذَتْ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا مَكَانًا شَرْقِيًّا ﴿19:16﴾ - مريم
   And mention in the scripture Maryam, when she withdrew away from her cohorts to an eastern location.
2. فَحَمَلَتْهُ فَٱنتَبَذَتْ بِهِ مَكَانًا قَصِيًّا ﴿19:22﴾ - مريم
   And thus, she accepted the burden for him (Ɛīssā) and she withdrew away, with him, to a faraway location.

In 19:16, he's using شَرْقِيًّا "a place that's eastwardly, an eastern location," and he's mentioning مَكَانًا "location associated with the direction of going east."

Later on, Allahh (SWA) tells us in 19:22, after she was given the news that she was pregnant: "she accepted the burden for him (3īssā), and she withdrew away, with him, to a faraway location." مَكَانًا قَصِيًّا. And again, you think this is not a pattern? This is a coincidence that Allahh (SWA) is putting the words in here? We're going to see in part 4, insha Allahh, that he's telling us very, very specifically where her family was.

Zakariya Supplicated for progeny, NOT just one son!

Moving on to part 7 of the: 10 irrefutable proofs. Zakariya supplicated for progeny, not just one. We saw it in Sūrah Maryam: فَهَبْ لِي مِنْ لَدُنْكَ وَلِيًّا. Here وَلِيًّا could mean a singular, but it is also the indefinite noun, which means plural. So therefore, this is confirmed in Sūrah Ali 'Imran (3:38):

هُنَالِكَ دَعَا زَكَرِيَّا رَبَّهُۥ قَالَ رَبِّ هَبْ لِى مِن لَّدُنكَ ذُرِّيَّةً طَيِّبَةً إِنَّكَ سَمِيعُ ٱلدُّعَآءِ ﴿3:38﴾

There, Zakariya supplicated his lord, saying: "My lord! Grant me from your ways a volitional progeny. Indeed, you are receptive to supplication!"

ذُرِّيَّةً "progeny". So, he didn't ask for just one, he asked for multiple. Why would Allahh (SWA) tell us that he asked for a ذُرِّيَّةً, and then only tell us that he gave him one? Of course not. Allahh (SWA) does not do this. This happens, again, from sources that are imperfect. With perfect sources, Allahh (SWA) tells us the Du£āʿ to show us that it was given to him. The same with the Du£āʿ of Maryam's mother: وَإِنِّي أُعِيذُهَا بِكَ وَذُرِّيَّتَهَا. "and her progeny." That means Maryam had more than one. So why would Allahh (SWA) tell us Zakariya had more than one, Maryam had more than one, all of their stories are interlinked throughout the Qurʿān, and then at the end we say, oh, they each just had one. Thats silly. It is not observant. It is not giving the due reverence to the words of Allahh (SWA).

I hope you're impressed. I hope you're happy because the Qurʿān is so full of information. If we just let it teach us. And if we reject the concoctions that we received through these books of unknown origins, and then we allow Allahh and his words to teach us.

The Whole Story in Sūrah Āl-£imrān is about progeny, not just one son!

We continue with the next part, which is part 8 of the 10 Quranic proofs. The whole story in Sūrah Ali 'Imran is about progeny. It is not just about one son. Allahh (SWA) begins the story in ayaj 33 of Sūrah Ali 'Imran.

Indeed Allahh selected ādam and Nūḥ, and the followers of Ibrāhīm and the followers of Ɛimrān, in line with all the realms:	إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصۡطَفَىٰٓ ءَادَمَ وَنُوحٗا وَءَالَ إِبۡرَٰهِيمَ وَءَالَ عِمۡرَٰنَ عَلَى ٱلۡعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:33﴾
A progeny, some of them are from some, and Allahh provides the hearing, and provides the evidence-based knowledge!	ذُرِّيَّةَۢ بَعۡضُهَا مِنۢ بَعۡضٖۗ وَٱللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿3:34﴾
Such as when the subordinate woman from 3imrān said: "My lord! I have dedicated what is in my belly, emancipated, and thus, accept from me. You are the provider of hearing, the provider of evidence-based knowledge!	إِذۡ قَالَتِ ٱمۡرَأَتُ عِمۡرَٰنَ رَبِّ إِنِّي نَذَرۡتُ لَكَ مَا فِي بَطۡنِي مُحَرَّرٗا فَتَقَبَّلۡ مِنِّيٓۖ إِنَّكَ أَنتَ ٱلسَّمِيعُ ٱلۡعَلِيمُ ﴿3:35﴾

This word ذُرِّيَّةً is a description, its sort of an adverb, as we say in English. "A progeny". So, the whole story is about a progeny. How do we know this? Because in the very next ayah: إِذۡ قَالَتِ "Such as when the subordinate woman from 3imrān said..." Meaning this is the ذُرِّيَّةً that happens when the woman from 3imrān started by making that DuƐāʿ. So, the whole story is about progeny. Progeny of whom? Progeny of these two groups: Ali Ibrahim and Ali 3imrān, they came together, ذُرِّيَّةً بَعۡضُهَا مِنۢ بَعۡضٖ "Some of them are from others." And we're going to tell you the story of their ذُرِّيَّةً, a progeny, multiple, not just one.

What else?

Breathing into Maryam is Not Unique to her!

We moved to number 9: Breathing into Maryam is not unique to her. So they told us, oh, فَنَفَخۡنَا فِيهَا مِن رُّوحِنَا and then the other ayah that we discussed in part 2 فَنَفَخۡنَا فِيهِا مِن رُّوحِنَا. And they made it such a big deal as if it's something really unique. مِن رُّوحِنَا "from the soul, from the spirit of Allahh" they say. No, no, no. Just wait, apply the methodology, and you will learn that this is not unique to her. It is not unique to 3īssā neither. So watch this:

وَٱلَّتِيٓ أَحۡصَنَتۡ فَرۡجَهَا فَنَفَخۡنَا فِيهَا مِن رُّوحِنَا وَجَعَلۡنَٰهَا وَٱبۡنَهَآ ءَايَةٗ لِّلۡعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿21:91﴾ - الأنبياء

And the one who guarded her cavity, and thus we breathed into her from our divine message, and we made her and her son signs for all the realms.

And we said فَرۡجَهَا is her cavity, and it could be her ear, or it could be her mouth because she's required to be quiet. So Allahh (SWA) says فَنَفَخۡنَا فِيهِا "we breathed into her" مِن رُّوحِنَا "from our divine message." And we described 'Rooḥ' means the divine message or the divine messenger. We're going to see this in more detail in the next episode, insha Allahh, in the next segment. The ayah concludes: “and we made her and her son signs for all the realms.” And we talked about the signs for all the realms, for all the people. So, this is about Maryam.

In another place, in Sūrah As Sajdah (32:7-9), Allahh (SWA) tells us:

وَبَدَأَ خَلْقَ ٱلْإِنسَٰنِ مِن طِينٍ ﴿32:7﴾ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ نَسْلَهُۥ مِن سُلَٰلَةٍ مِّن مَّآءٍ مَّهِينٍ ﴿32:8﴾ ثُمَّ سَوَّىٰهُ وَنَفَخَ فِيهِ مِن رُّوحِهِۦ وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ ٱلسَّمْعَ وَٱلْأَبْصَٰرَ وَٱلْأَفْـِٔدَةَ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿32:9﴾ - السجدة

And he began the creation of the divinely guidable man from moldable substance, and then made his descendants from a chain from a lowly fluid, and then he proportioned him and breathed into him from his divine message. And he provided for you the hearing and the eyesight and the perception. Little do you properly communicate with the divine.

This ayah is talking about the creation and proportioning of ٱلْإِنسَٰنِ. وَنَفَخَ فِيهِ مِن رُّوحِهِ “And then he breathed into him from his divine message” its very clear, the same word رُّوحِنَا and رُّوحِهِ both related to Allahh (SWA). Therefore, this is applicable to all ‘insan’. It is not just Maryam. It is not just the 3īssā. Don't make it up to be more than it is. The Qurʿān is telling us 3īssā is not unique in that respect, and Maryam is not unique in that respect. Every human being is liable to receive the breadth of the divine message, which we explained in the past to mean the direct guidance from Allahh (SWA). So, this ayah is very clear.

And he continues: “And he provided for you the hearing and the eyesight and the perception. Little do you properly communicate with the divine.” ‘Al fuhad’ is ‘the conscious perception’. And we also defined ‘Shukur’ before. Shukur is after receiving this divine message, to communicate with Allahh using the divine lexicon, using the Abrahamic locution, and using the Qurʿānic words that Allahh (SWA) taught us to use to talk to him.

So therefore, فَنَفَخْنَا فِيهَا مِن رُّوحِنَا “we breathed or we blew into her from our divine message” is nothing unique to her. It doesn't make him (3īssā) a miraculous baby. It doesn't make her conception immaculate or miraculous. She was not a virgin on the basis of anything we've read so far. So, the Qurʿān is disproving the concept again and again. It is telling us there's nothing unusual about what's going on with Maryam and her baby. She had him from a father, and the father is mentioned right there. Just look, it is Zakariya. it's in front of you, and repeated in so many different places.

A ‘Rooḥ’ from Allahh to Maryam is Not Unique to her!

And finally, proof number 10: A ‘Rooḥ’ from Allahh to Maryam is not unique to her, as we just described. But it's more than that. Now we're reading about رُوحٌ مِّنْهُ. This is unique vocabulary. Some people said just that it applies to 3īssā, you know, ‘the spirit from Allahh, or the spirit of Allahh.’ No, bogus. It is not unique. Just read the Qurʿān. The problem is there are people talking about this story without being familiar with the style of the Qurʿān, and without really understanding the Qurʿān. Subhanallah, they speculate, they concoct their own fictitious explanations, and they impose them on the billions of Muslims that have lived for the last 1400 years. Alhamdulillah that Allahh (SWA) is allowing us to see, with fresh virgin eyes, the truth of the Qurʿān.

Watch this. 'Rooḥ' from Allahh is not unique to 3īssā. This is amazing. In Sūrah An-Nisa (4:171), Allahh (SWA) tells us:

يَٰٓأَهۡلَ ٱلۡكِتَٰبِ لَا تَغۡلُواْ فِي دِينِكُمۡ وَلَا تَقُولُواْ عَلَى ٱللَّهِ إِلَّا ٱلۡحَقَّۚ إِنَّمَا ٱلۡمَسِيحُ عِيسَى ٱبۡنُ مَرۡيَمَ رَسُولُ ٱللَّهِ وَكَلِمَتُهُۥٓ أَلۡقَىٰهَآ إِلَىٰ مَرۡيَمَ وَرُوحٞ مِّنۡهُۖ فَـَٔامِنُواْ بِٱللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِۦۖ وَلَا تَقُولُواْ ثَلَٰثَةٌۚ ٱنتَهُواْ خَيۡرٗا لَّكُمۡۚ إِنَّمَا ٱللَّهُ إِلَٰهٞ وَٰحِدٞۖ سُبۡحَٰنَهُۥٓ أَن يَكُونَ لَهُۥ وَلَدٞۘ لَّهُۥ مَا فِي ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَمَا فِي ٱلۡأَرۡضِۗ وَكَفَىٰ بِٱللَّهِ وَكِيلٗا
النساء - ﴿4:171﴾

…The wiped Ɛīssā, son of Maryam, is but a messenger of Allahh, and his dignified supplication that he delegated to Maryam, and a divine message from him (that he delegated to Maryam)…

Remember ٱلۡمَسِيحُ means 'wiped'. And I explained to you earlier, that ٱسۡمُهُ ٱلۡمَسِيحُ "the wiped name" is 3īssā ibn Maryam. So that means the name 3īssā ibn Maryam will be wiped out, and there's another name when and if he returns again. As we saw, the possibility is clearly in front of us, and we're going to present more evidence. So, ٱلۡمَسِيحُ is "the one that's wiped." In other words, the past personality. He was a messenger of Allahh and he was كَلِمَتُهُۥٓ. What does كَلِمَتُهُۥٓ mean? It means 'dignified supplication.' Dignified supplication from whom? From Zakariya, and from Maryam's mum, both supplicated for a ذُرِّيَّةً for Maryam, and for a ذُرِّيَّةً for Zakariya. Therefore, there is a supplication that Allahh (SWA) is dignifying. The performance of this supplication, the execution, the realization of this DuƐāʿ, of this supplication was delegated to Maryam. أَلۡقَىٰهَآ إِلَىٰ مَرۡيَمَ. That's what it means.

What else? وَرُوحٞ مِّنۡهُ "and a divine message from him…" From whom? From Allahh. There was a divine message delegated to Maryam to deliver to 3īssā. Therefore, she was delivering this divine message from Allahh to 3īssā. This is absolutely beautiful because when Zakariya approached Maryam, Allahh (SWA), in Sūrah Maryam, describes Zakariya as 'Rooḥana', 'our divine message or messenger' materialized in front of her as a human being, as a proportion human being. Therefore, Zakariya became the messenger, bringing the divine message to Maryam. Maryam learned this. She had to learn this because she would also become someone carrying a divine message. To whom? To 3īssā. Yes, she carried a divine message to 3īssā.

What does that mean? That means that Maryam was herself a messenger from Allahh, but to 3īssā alone. Let me repeat. She was a messenger, carrying a divine message from Allahh, to 3īssā alone. This is what these ayat are saying. He delegated this supplication to Maryam, to fulfill, and he delegated the message, the divine message, to Maryam to fulfill by teaching 3īssā.

Now we see another example from Sūrah Al Mujadila (58:22):

لَّا تَجِدُ قَوْمًا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِٱللَّهِ وَٱلْيَوْمِ ٱلْآخِرِ يُوَآدُّونَ مَنْ حَآدَّ ٱللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُۥ وَلَوْ كَانُوٓا۟ ءَابَآءَهُمْ أَوْ أَبْنَآءَهُمْ أَوْ إِخْوَٰنَهُمْ أَوْ عَشِيرَتَهُمْ أُو۟لَٰٓئِكَ كَتَبَ فِى قُلُوبِهِمُ ٱلْإِيمَٰنَ وَأَيَّدَهُم بِرُوحٍ مِّنْهُ وَيُدْخِلُهُمْ جَنَّٰتٍ تَجْرِى مِن تَحْتِهَا ٱلْأَنْهَٰرُ خَٰلِدِينَ فِيهَا رَضِىَ ٱللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا۟ عَنْهُ أُو۟لَٰٓئِكَ حِزْبُ ٱللَّهِ أَلَآ إِنَّ حِزْبَ ٱللَّهِ هُمُ ٱلْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿58:22﴾ - المجادلة

…Those are the ones in whose core Allahh has 'written' the belief, and whom he reinforced with a divine message from him…

Here again, بِرُوحٍ مِّنْهُ, the exact same concept, رُوحٌ مِّنْهُ is given to all believers. It is not just Maryam by the way, and it is not just about 3īssā. This is what I keep telling you. Those who read the Qurʿān can become familiar with the diversity of styles and expressions, and how Allahh (SWA) consistently uses the expressions. These things become very easy to understand.

The ayah is talking about believers, قَوْمًا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِٱللَّهِ وَٱلْيَوْمِ ٱلْآخِرِ "group of people who believe in Allahh, and the day of judgment, the last day…" And they do this, and they don't do that. And Allahh (SWA) described them: أُو۟لَٰٓئِكَ كَتَبَ فِى قُلُوبِهِمُ ٱلْإِيمَٰنَ وَأَيَّدَهُم بِرُوحٍ مِّنْهُ, "…Those are the ones in whose core Allahh has 'written' the belief, and whom he reinforced with a divine message from him…" Remember the whispering in their ear. So, was that a miraculous birth to these people? No, of course not. It just means divine message given to them through the whispering in their ear that we're talking about.

So therefore, there's nothing special about Maryam due to this special word (Rooḥ). And there's nothing special about 3īssā due to this special word. I hope it's really clear.

Now. I just showed you that Maryam was a divine messenger from Allahh to 3īssā. What else? She was also his teacher because Allahh (SWA) describes 3īssā as "Wa atainahu al kitab, wal hikmata, wa taurata, wal injil." The word "atainahu" means "we have given him the opportunity to learn." The question is Maryam and her son 3īssā were gone away from Ali Ibrahim, from the place where Zakariya was, and now she's back with her old community. And we saw that her old community, the group of 'Imran, were not righteous people. So, who was teaching 3īssā? Only Maryam. That's why Allahh (SWA) selected Maryam to go learn from Zakariya, and then carry from him 3īssā. So, when she returned to her old community, she could train him and teach him in quietude, without being oppressed, without being suppressed, and without being influenced by the corrupt community of whom Zakariya was afraid.So, Allahh (SWA) secluded them away from the corruption, into a non-suspicious context, where she could really, and clearly teach him. And that's what happened.

So, 3īssā was taught by Maryam. Maryam was his nabiy. A nabiy for one? Yes. A messenger for one? Yes. If you don't believe me, those of you who read the Hadith, go look for the Hadith that talks about a messenger, or a nabiy coming on the day of judgment with one follower. If you don't believe what I'm saying, you should believe the Hadith that talks about that. But again, I'm showing you the evidence directly from the Qurʿān, and the Qurʿān should be sufficient for those of you who take the Qurʿān above all.

رُوحُ الْقُدُس ‘Rooḥ’ Al-Quduss is Not Unique to Ɛīssā

Well, what about رُوحُ الْقُدُس ‘Rooḥ’ Al-Quduss Dr. Hany? It is very unique to 3īssā. No, it's not. Watch this:

وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَقَفَّيْنَا مِنۢ بَعْدِهِۦ بِٱلرُّسُلِ وَءَاتَيْنَا عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱلْبَيِّنَٰتِ وَأَيَّدْنَٰهُ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ أَفَكُلَّمَا جَآءَكُمْ رَسُولٌۢ بِمَا لَا تَهْوَىٰٓ أَنفُسُكُمُ ٱسْتَكْبَرْتُمْ فَفَرِيقًا كَذَّبْتُمْ وَفَرِيقًا تَقْتُلُونَ ﴿2:87﴾ - البقرة

… We reinforced him with the divine messenger from the Holy…

‘Al-Quduss’ is one of the names, attributes, or descriptors of Allahh (SWA).

And another ayah from Sūrah Al Baqarah (2:235) said the same thing about 3īssā ibn Maryam:

تِلْكَ ٱلرُّسُلُ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ مِّنْهُم مَّن كَلَّمَ ٱللَّهُ وَرَفَعَ بَعْضَهُمْ دَرَجَٰتٍ وَءَاتَيْنَا عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱلْبَيِّنَٰتِ وَأَيَّدْنَٰهُ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ وَلَوْ شَآءَ ٱللَّهُ مَا ٱقْتَتَلَ ٱلَّذِينَ مِنۢ بَعْدِهِم مِّنۢ بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَتْهُمُ ٱلْبَيِّنَٰتُ وَلَٰكِنِ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فَمِنْهُم مَّنْ ءَامَنَ وَمِنْهُم مَّن كَفَرَ وَلَوْ شَآءَ ٱللَّهُ مَا ٱقْتَتَلُوا وَلَٰكِنَّ ٱللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيدُ ﴿2:253﴾ - البقرة

… We reinforced him with the divine messenger from the Holy…

Meaning there was a messenger from Allahh. That was his mom; his mom was teaching him. That's what I keep saying. There was a divine messenger, and it was her teaching him, and giving him reinforcement. Allahh (SWA) is showing this to us in a slightly different narrative.

Allahh (SWA), in Sūrah Al Ma’idah (5:110) says the same thing:

إِذْ قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱذْكُرْ نِعْمَتِى عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَىٰ وَٰلِدَتِكَ إِذْ أَيَّدتُّكَ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ تُكَلِّمُ ٱلنَّاسَ فِى ٱلْمَهْدِ وَكَهْلًا وَإِذْ عَلَّمْتُكَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَٱلْحِكْمَةَ وَٱلتَّوْرَىٰةَ وَٱلْإِنجِيلَ وَإِذْ تَخْلُقُ مِنَ ٱلطِّينِ كَهَيْـَٔةِ ٱلطَّيْرِ بِإِذْنِى فَتَنفُخُ فِيهَا فَتَكُونُ طَيْرًۢا بِإِذْنِى وَتُبْرِئُ ٱلْأَكْمَهَ وَٱلْأَبْرَصَ بِإِذْنِى وَإِذْ تُخْرِجُ ٱلْمَوْتَىٰ بِإِذْنِى وَإِذْ كَفَفْتُ بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ عَنكَ إِذْ جِئْتَهُم بِٱلْبَيِّنَٰتِ فَقَالَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْهُمْ إِنْ هَٰذَآ إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿5:110﴾ - المائدة

… I reinforced you with the divine messenger from the Holy…

Right here, he's talking about his mother, right there in front of us. So, Allahh (SWA) is telling 3īssā “remember my favor upon you and upon your mother.” Why upon your mother? Because designating her as a messenger for such a great messenger is a great distinction. Allahh (SWA) selected her twice. Selected her for Yahya, and then selected her again for 3īssā. Not only to carry him, but to take him away to a safe location, to teach him and to oversee his education in the scripture that she learned from Zakariya, and directly from Allahh, and to be a messenger to one. Such a great designation. That's why our beloved (SAW) referred to Maryam as the top woman that ever lived 'Seyyidat nisa al alamin.'

So, Maryam was a messenger to 1 person, and he turned out to be a great messenger himself. إِذْ أَيَّدتُّكَ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ "The messenger of the holy." That was her in that case, of course, because the messenger of the holy is whatever Allahh chooses.

In the case of our beloved (SAW), Allahh (SWA) tells us in Sūrah An Nahl:

قُلْ نَزَّلَهُۥ رُوحُ ٱلْقُدُسِ مِن رَّبِّكَ بِٱلْحَقِّ لِيُثَبِّتَ ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهُدًى وَبُشْرَىٰ لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿16:102﴾ - النحل

Say: "the divine messenger from the Holy made it repeatedly accessible in truth, in order to give steadiness to those who believed, and as a guidance and glad tidings to the submitters".

It's talking about the Qurʿān, the 'Rooḥ', the messenger of the holy from your Lord has brought it down, brought down the Qurʿān successively. نَزَّلَهُۥ "repeatedly or successively". بِٱلْحَقِّ "in truth". For what? لِيُثَبِّتَ ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا. So that means the understanding that Allahh (SWA) is talking about in here. نَزَّلَهُۥ is not just the text, but the understanding of Al kitab, the message. And that's why رُوحُ الْقُدُس 'Rooḥ' Al-Quduss is bringing this information directly from your Lord. To whom? ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا "those who believe." And it is هُدًى "guidance" and good news, glad tidings. To whom? 'Muslimin', those who truly submit.

Therefore, 'Rooḥ' Al-Quduss is coming not just with the Qurʿān, it is also bringing the understanding of the Qurʿān live to you, and to me, insha Allahh. I hope you see the beauty of the words, and the beauty of the methodology. When we apply it everything unravels. the hur becomes so potent, so powerful and so easy to understand, and they stick in your core. You don't forget this. This is not something you forget. If you truly understand them, they stick, and they remain permanently there because Allahh (SWA) and the angels and 'Rooḥ' Al-Quduss is bringing this information to you. And Allahh knows you more than any other teacher.

A Narration about Ɛīssā referring to Yahya as "Brother"

I want to share with you this Hadith, just in case you are some of those people who don't believe the Qurʿān, but you really believe the Hadith. Well take this Hadith.

There are NO narrations about the virgin birth or about Ɛīssā being without siblings

This myth did not come from our beloved SAWS

لم ترد أي روايةٍ نبويةٍ صحيحةٍ عن مريم او زكريا او يحيى او عيسى، بما فيه ذكر ولادة عيسى من غير والد، ولكن وردت الرواية الآتية: روى الحارث الأشعري رضي الله عنه أن رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: إن الله أوحى إلى يحيى بن زكريا بخمس كلمات أن يعمل بهن ويأمر بني إسرائيل أن يعملوا بهن، فكأنه أبطأ بهن، فأتاه عيسى فقال: إن الله أمرك بخمس كلمات أن تعمل بهن وتأمر بني إسرائيل أن يعملوا بهن فإما أن تخبرهم وأما أن أخبرهم، فقال: يا أخي لا تفعل فإني أخاف إن سبقتني بهن أن يخسف بي أو أعذب، قال: فجمع بني إسرائيل ببيت المقدس حتى امتلأ المسجد وقعدوا على الشرفات ثم خطبهم فقال: إن الله أوحى إلي بخمس كلمات أن أعمل بهن وآمر بني إسرائيل أن يعملوا بهن أولاهن: لا تشركوا بالله شيئا فإن مثل من أشرك بالله كمثل رجل اشترى عبدا من خالص ماله بذهب أو ورق ثم أسكنه دارا فقال اعمل وارفع إلي، فجعل يعمل ويرفع إلى غير سيده! فأيكم يرضى أن يكون عبده كذلك! فإن الله خلقكم ورزقكم فلا تشركوا به شيئا، وإذا قمتم إلى الصلاة فلا تلتفتوا فإن الله يقبل بوجهه إلى وجه عبده ما لم يلتفت، وأمركم بالصيام ومثل ذلك كمثل رجل في عصابة معه صرة مسك كلهم يحب أن يجد ريحها وإن الصيام أطيب عند الله من ريح المسك. وأمركم بالصدقة ومثل ذلك كمثل رجل أسره العدو فأوثقوا يده إلى عنقه وقربوه ليضربوا عنقه فجعل يقول: هل لكم أن أفدي نفسي منكم؟ وجعل يعطي القليل والكثير حتى فدى نفسه، وأمركم بذكر الله كثيرا ومثل ذلك كمثل رجل طلبه العدو سراعا في أثره حتى أتى حصنا فأحرز نفسه فيه، وكذلك العبد لا ينجو من الشيطان إلا بذكر الله. (الحديث رواه الترمذي والنسائي بعضه وابن خزيمة في صحيحة واللفظ له وابن حبان في صحيحه والحاكم وقال: صحيح على شرط البخاري ومسلم، وصححه الألباني.)

We don't have any narration that is deemed ‘sahih’ about the story of Maryam and Zakariya and 3īssā. We don't have any narration on the traditionalist erroneous story. I challenge you to come up with anything declared ‘sahih’ (quote-unquote). We have one narration reported by Al Harith Al Ash’ariy, where 3īssā challenged Yahya. Reminding him to do his task of prophetic mission. And then Yahya responded: يا أخي “o my brother.” This is in a Hadith? Yes, it is. It is deemed ‘sahih’ by Albani. I don't care. I have the Qur‘ān to tell me this, but if you insist on seeing something in the Hadith, here it is in front of your eyes. Go see it, go seek it, go search for it. And then come back to question what I'm saying. You want to tell me well يا أخي means metaphorical brotherhood. That's your choice. But right there, it does not say metaphorical. It says, يا أخي . You have no right to say it is metaphorical or not, because this is the words of human beings. So, people who reported this thought يا أخي means يا أخي . If this is a correct narration, and I'm not saying it is. I'm telling you it is there in your books. Go search. And then learn before you come back.

This is a special gift that I'm including in the notes file. It is a map of all the related ayah from Sūrah 3 and Sūrah 19. Remember Sūrah 3 and Sūrah 19 include all of the ayah that talk about the stories of Zakariya, Maryam, Yahya and 3īssā, but they're interspersed within one another. So, you have to tease them apart, and put them in the right sequence in order to understand what's going on. This is the right sequence. This is the map that is included in the notes file. Hopefully, you have downloaded the notes file before watching the segment. If you have not done so, please go back and download the notes file by subscribing to the website. And then you can print this single page, and you see all of the details of the story in the sequence of ayat, depending on where it comes in the chronological series of events of the story.

I hope this will be very helpful, and I hope you can actually take advantage of it. If there is something you did not understand from this segment, then review this map, internalize the events, and then revisit this segment again and again, until you really understand it. I advise you to memorize all 10 irrefutable proofs I have given you. In case you are to teach the story to your children, or to your grandchildren, you can review these 10 irrefutable evidences in front of them, and insha Allahh, they will remember it. They will stick in their kalb, insha Allahh. So please take this segment very seriously.

Now we did have a couple of questions, and we will close insha Allahh.

Are we risking alienating the Christians who may be considering Islam? But they're in love with the story of 3īssā, and the miraculous birth, and the virgin conception, and all of this stuff.

Answer: Wrong question because the Qurʿān does not offer answers that people like, but rather, it offers them the truth, and the answers that people need to hear!

We are not in the marketing business. We are rather in the business of delivering the truth. If the Quran gives us the answers, that means it's the answers that people need to hear. Now, if they like to hear these stories, there are other places for them. If they're attached to mythology, and children's stories, and miraculous conception, and all of this stuff, well, they stay where they are. But if they're interested in the truth of the Qurʿān. The Qurʿān that stands in honesty and truthfulness against all the currents. With courage we stand up and say, this is what the Qurʿān is saying. You take it or leave it. You want to believe in miracles, mythology and conceptions that are out of thin air, it's up to you. We believe in what the Qurʿān is teaching us. Nowhere in the Quran does it say that her delivery was virgin, or that she had a miraculous conception, or what's called immaculate conception. Nowhere does the Qurʿān say that. Nowhere did our beloved (SAW) say that even a single time. So therefore, we believe the Qurʿān.

The truth is: There are tens of millions of Christians who do not believe that Maryam had a virgin birth! And they're waiting for us to confirm their suspicions. There are many more who need a reason to reject the myth and fables around Ɛīssā! We learned from the Qurʿān my brothers and sisters. So, this is not a concern for us whatsoever. On the opposite, insha Allahh, Allahh will give us the strength, and the wherewithal, and the convincing arguments to carry this forward to a lot more people.

And now we have a very important question. Is this affecting our 3aqeedah (Creed)? I answered this a little bit in segment number 2.

Answer: Yes! In a good way! Because it is correcting something that we have believed wrongly for over 1400 years after our beloved (SAW). And after the first generation of close companions. As I keep telling you, Islam was hijacked, the capital of Islam was moved from Medina to Damascus, which remained, majority Christian for 300 years. Let me repeat it. The capital of Islam was moved from Medina, by force, to Damascus, which remained for 300 years, majority Christian. So, this was not a majority Muslim capital of the Islamic Khalifah. No, it was a capital that was majority Christian who hijacked Islam, and reshaped it, and reimagined the translation and interpretation of the Qurʿān as they pleased. This is the result that we're suffering. We have billions of people who have had the wrong 3aqeedah. I am, and hopefully you too will join me in correcting this mistake. And I say this very proudly, and very humbly, because if it was not for Allahh disclosing this information to us, none of us would even have a clue of what has happened.

3aqeedah, my brothers and sisters, is what Allahh tells us in the Qurʿān, and cannot be obtained from anywhere or anyone else.

When people belie and reject the irrefutable evidence from the Qurʿān (I just shared with you 10 proofs), they are the ones who corrupted our Ɛaqeedah. They are the ones who are going against the Qurʿān.

Our Ɛaqeedah includes believing in the veracity of the Qurʿān! If you don't believe the Qurʿān is correct and truthful, where's your 3aqeedah? What 3aqeedah are you talking about?

To force a concocted Christian Ɛaqeedah upon the Qurʿān is to corrupt the Ɛaqeedah of Billions of Muslims! And this is what we've been suffering for 1400 years.

They have to answer to this, not us. We are following the 3aqeedah from the Qurʿān. We are following what the Qurʿān teaches us, and taught us.

Future Questions?

We have several questions that we did not get to in this segment. I apologize due to the shortness of time, and because it's going to take more than four parts. Insha Allahh, we will leave some of these questions to future parts.

Who Was ādam in Sūrah 3?

إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصۡطَفَىٰٓ ءَادَمَ وَنُوحٗا وَءَالَ إِبۡرَٰهِيمَ وَءَالَ عِمۡرَٰنَ عَلَى ٱلۡعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:33﴾ - آل عمران

إِنَّ مَثَلَ عِيسَىٰ عِندَ ٱللَّهِ كَمَثَلِ ءَادَمَ خَلَقَهُۥ مِن تُرَابٖ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُۥ كُن فَيَكُونُ ﴿3:59﴾ - آل عمران

Insha Allahh, we will talk more about this in the next segment.

Who Was Ɛimrān? or What is Ɛimrān?

What is جذع النَّخلة (The trunk of the palm tree)? And where exactly was that?

Ɛīssā's Miracles: We will see 3īssā's true miracles, not what they taught us, not the bogus concocted miracles that they made us imagine from the text. We're going to look at the texts, and you're going to say: we really did not know anything about the story of 3īssā, because everything they told us was lies as Sūrah Al Kahf confirmed for us, as I shared with you at the beginning of the segment.

Ɛīssā's death and possible return

THERE IS A LOT MORE TO COME!

FOR NOW, PLEASE REFLECT, AND ASK ALLAHH TO GUIDE YOU TO SEE THE TRUTH!

Take the time to internalize what you have just learned, allow it to sink in. Beg, pray and supplicate to Allahh to seed the truth in your heart, and to allow the truth to sink in. And empty your cup from everything you thought you knew, and everything they taught us as children

When the truth takes hold in your qalb, it becomes qurrah! He will make it stick permanently.

With this, insha Allahh, we come to the conclusion of the segment. And we make Du£āʿ, insha Allahh, you will join me.

أَعُوْذُ بِاللهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطٰانِ الرَّجِيْمِ

الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ هَدٰىنَا لِهٰذَا ۫ وَ مَا كُنَّا لِنَهْتَدِىَ لَوْ لَآ اَنْ هَدٰىنَا اللّٰهُ ۚ لَقَدْ جَآءَتْ رُسُلُ رَبِّنَا بِالْحَقِّ

I thank you very much for watching. Salaamun Alaykum.
