So now we go back to the ayat from Sūrah Maryam, the supposedly birth scene as I said. So far, there's no birth has nothing to do with giving birth. It is talking about what her mission is and where she was as Allahh (swt) was preparing her for that mission. And the answer is she was already with her people and then he says, فَإِمَّا تَرَيِنَّ مِنَ ٱلْبَشَرِ أَحَدًا فَقُولِىٓ إِنِّى نَذَرْتُ لِلرَّحْمَٰنِ صَوْمًا فَلَنْ أُكَلِّمَ ٱلْيَوْمَ إِنسِيًّا. And when you see a “Bashar”. Why a Bashar? Remember she said, when she was talking to Zakaryia, she says, Lam yassini bashar. She's referring to that group of people as Bashar. They refer to themselves as Ins or Insan. And we explained all of this earlier in the segment about “Iblees and the seven gateways to Jahannam” and in the segment about Shayāṭan, please refer back to the full detail.

I'm not going to go through it here, but please don't criticize that what you don't understand. The word Bashar is how Allahh (swt) describes them. The way they described themselves is Ins or Insan. Therefore, he's teaching her what to say in case she runs into anyone from the old community of Zakaryia, where she used to be and where she ran away from.

He's teaching her, if you see any of those people coming over to the area where you are because there were caravans traveling back and forth. So, it's obvious that she might run into someone who might recognize her or that she might recognize, or someone coming asking her, etc. He is saying, فَإِمَّا تَرَيِنَّ مِنَ ٱلْبَشَرِ أَحَدًا if you ever see from those people then say, I have pledged silence صَوْمً for the sake of Al-Rahman. And then I shall not talk to any ‘Insy-y’ today. It's just a way to avoid having to answer any questions. That's all it says, confirming that Allahh (swt) told her قَرِّى عَيْنًا keep the secret. Don't explain any details to anyone. This is extremely relevant. And you see it in front of your eyes.

فَأَتَتْ بِهِۦ قَوْمَهَا Now, after she arrived at the geography, at the general area where she went. Now, she went back to her specific neighborhood, her specific family, whatever she used to live, etc. She came and brought Yahya this time to her original community, which is Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ. Again, taking the burden for Ɛīssā. And I told you this little “ho” this little pronoun in here is different than this little pronoun. She's not bringing Ɛīssā and carrying him at the same time. She's bringing forth, meaning expressing her connection to Yahya bringing him forward. We explained this in part two. And she's taking the burden for Ɛīssā تَحْمِلُهُ just like حَمَلَتْهُ in ayat 22 taking the burden.

We explained all of these terms in prior segments, please don't criticize that which you do not understand. There is a full methodology and we are very consistent with every word we use and how we translated and interpreted. So, for the rest of the segment see part two for the full paragraph and the full explanation as to what happened between her and her people when her people accused her of adultery, etc.

As you see, this is the end of this scene. It has nothing to do with the birth. It has nothing to do with shaking a Palm tree. A woman who supposedly pregnant shaking a Palm tree. I don't know how they could imagine that all miracles, everything is miracle. Everything is like a Disney story to them. No, it's very rational. It's very realistic, very detailed. It's very beautiful. It's full of human elements and human aspirations and human emotions. And it's giving us a realistic look at life for a beautiful family that has sacrificed so much for the sake of their faith and their belief. This is the story of Zakariya and Maryam and Yahya and Ɛīssā. Of course, there's a lot more details. Insha'Allah in future part of the series, we've got to talk more about Ɛīssā, about his mission, about the miracles, about his death, supposed return all of those details and Insha'Allah will be coming in future parts. I hope you're patient and persist in watching this channel with future segments.

Maryam Was from Miṣr, i.e., African

So, to answer the question Was Maryam African? Absolutely 100%. She was from Misr from the community of Ɛimrān, and we will see a lot more detail. She was African. Maryam was African. Imagine that Mariam was African.

Now, how do we know this? Again, the word جِذعُ النَخْلَة 'Jidh-3un-Nakh- lati' is a clear linguistic reference to that community where FirƐaoun used that same word. And we know that's in Misr. It is clearly defined in the Qurʿān where FirƐaoun himself is quoting in 43:51 "qāla yā-qawmi ʾa-laysa lī mulku miṣra" قَالَ يَٰقَوۡمِ أَلَيۡسَ لِي مُلۡكُ مِصۡرَ . Do I not have the kingdom over Misr?

He's talking about Misr and Misr means modern day Egypt and all of the Southern part of the rest of the Eastern part of Africa. Possibly going all the way south to Ethiopia and maybe even Somalia. All of that used to be Misr in the old days in the FirƐaounic days. We don't know exactly which part of this, but somewhere where there were a lot of rivers. So maybe by the Delta part of upper Egypt, so to speak. But all of that was Misr; African territory. Maryam was a hundred percent African.

What other evidence do we have? The word قَرِّى عَيْنًا. It is used in the story of Maryam. It's also used in the story of Mūssā and the example that I will show you a little later, where in the case of Mūssā, Imraʿat FirƐaoun used it 28:9 "wa-qālati mraʾatu firʿawna qurratu ʿaynin lī wa-laka" وَقَالَتِ ٱمۡرَأَتُ فِرۡعَوۡنَ قُرَّتُ عَيۡنٖ لِّي وَلَكَۖ and in the story of Mūssā in Sūrah 28 ayat 13 "ʾilā ʾummihī kay taqarra ʿaynuhā” إِلَىٰٓ أُمِّهِۦ كَيۡ تَقَرَّ عَيۡنُهَا. It was talking about the mother of Mūssā. Both of these stories happened in Misr. Therefore, this is a clear locutionary reference to the geography of Misr. Again, this is a relationship to the word قَرِّى عَيْنًا as we just saw from the story of Maryam. This is not coincidence. There is no coincidence in the Qurʿān. So far we have direct links of two specific expressions, and we have a Al-Teen, which we saw FirƐaoun used it. And I gave it as an example, just to kind of prime your thinking, to see how we reflect about these stories.

Now we have one more I'm going to share with you, which is the word إمرأت Imraʿat (with a long Ta) or specifically when it's used in the genitive sense or with the possessive pronoun, we will see in full detail. So, the conclusion when Zakariya use the word إمرأتي Imraʿatee, he's referring to Maryam and he's referring to إمرأت Imraʿat, as we will see in full detail, that word is also a locution of “Ale-Ɛimrān”ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ or the people of Misr. Now, in order to get into this, we need to lay out some historical aspects and we will detail it in a lot more. But now keep in mind that Zakariya refer to إمرأتي Imraʿatee three times, twice in Sūrah Maryam, and one time in Sūrah Ale-Ɛimrān.

إمرأتي Imraʿatee, meaning a genitive case where he referred to his woman possessive kind of reference to a woman. This is not typical. You say my wife, sometimes you say my daughter, but my woman that is not typical. This is not something that Arabs did. This is not Arabic locution. It has nothing to do with the locution of seventh century Arabs. This is specific to the locution of the people about whom the stories are being told. And this is exactly what this channel has been doing since we started talking about ayat 144.

Therefore, we're confirming everything that we have built the methodology on. As you see in front of you, all of these examples confirm that the methodology is playing correctly to deliver the results as promised. So, as I said, now, we have to build some historical references and understand a little bit more in the Qurʿān to understand who Ɛimrān was or what time Ɛimrān was to understand what's the relationship to Mūssā, to FirƐaoun, to Maryam. All of these details will be laid out in front of you. I hope you're patient, take your time and understand the concepts. We're building something really crucial. And I promise you, by the end of this, we're going to get to some phenomenal conclusions. Something totally unexpected, something you've never heard from anybody else. The Qurʿān tells us very clearly in front of our eyes. We just have to be patient, diligent, follow al- Ākhirah, not rush and not speculate.

Who or What Was 3imrān? Where did They reside?

We start with ayat 10: 83 from Sūrah Yunus. The scene is describing Mūssa̅ and how many people believed with him or followed him and believed with him and believed in him. So Allahh (swt) tells us

فَمَآ ءَامَنَ لِمُوسَىٰٓ إِلَّا ذُرِّيَّةٌ مِّن قَوْمِهِۦ عَلَىٰ خَوْفٍ مِّن فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَإِيْهِمْ أَن يَفْتِنَهُمْ وَإِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ لَعَالٍ فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ وَإِنَّهُۥ لَمِنَ ٱلْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿10:83﴾ - يونس

And (in Miṣr) only some progeny (i.e., younger people) from his community believed for Mūssa̅, despite fear of Fir£aoun and their notables, that he might put them through tribulations (i.e. torture). And indeed, Fir£aoun has exalted himself using the scripture, and he is (still considered) among the excessive ones.

Now, remember this story happened after Mūssa̅ escaped, ran away and then came back to Misr after being appointed as an Emissary to Fir£aoun. He was still a prophet. He had not yet exited Misr for a final time, but during that period where he was in Misr, after he returned from Madiyan, there was some exchanges with Fir£aoun and the exchanges with the magicians and all of that stuff.

He invited people to believe in him and his message and his mission, and to follow him on the Exodus. So Allahh (swt) is telling us only some progeny (younger people) from his community believed for Mūssa̅. In other words, accepted the invitation of Mūssa̅, despite fear of Fir£aoun and their notables. Please pay attention. Their notables مَلَإِيْهِمْ . Their notables. In other words, the leaders of their own community were supporting Fir£aoun. These young guys who believed in Mūssa̅ were afraid. Why? Because he might put them through tribulations, example, torture or cutting and exposing to the fire and all of the mutilation that we've talked about before, when we discuss the story of Abou-Lahab and I proved to you that Abou-Lahab was none other than Fir£aoun himself.

And indeed, the ayat continues, Fir£aoun has exalted himself using the scripture وَإِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ لَعَالٍ فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ . He had some people assisted him understand and analyze the scripture they had. Who? The people of £imrān, the supposedly followers of the prior prophets and messengers in that land. Mūssa̅ himself came to repair or to fix what was wrong, but Fir£aoun was benefiting from that scripture, using that scripture to manipulate people. وَإِنَّهُۥ لَمِنَ ٱلْمُسْرِفِينَ and he is still considered among the excessive ones. Excessive in what? In abusing this scripture for political and personal benefits.

This is the situation. This is why the story of Fir£aoun, and the story of the struggle of Mūssa̅ against Fir£aoun is so important in the Qurʿān. Mūssa̅ is mentioned over 136 times.

Fir£aoun is mentioned over 37 Sūrah. This is a phenomenal story, very important story that has been totally hidden from us because they don't want people to awaken to the reality of what Fir£aoun in the past and many many modern day Fir£aoun continues to do.

Now, we continue from Sūrah Ash-Shu'ara Allahh (Swt) tells us in ayat 52-60

وَأَوْحَيْنَآ إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰٓ أَنْ أَسْرِ بِعِبَادِىٓ إِنَّكُم مُّتَّبَعُونَ ﴿26:52﴾ فَأَرْسَلَ فِرْعَوْنُ فِى ٱلْمَدَآئِنِ حَٰشِرِينَ ﴿26:53﴾ إِنَّ هَٰٓؤُلَآءِ لَشِرْذِمَةٌ قَلِيلُونَ ﴿26:54﴾ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَنَا لَغَآئِظُونَ ﴿26:55﴾ وَإِنَّا لَجَمِيعٌ حَٰذِرُونَ ﴿26:56﴾ فَأَخْرَجْنَٰهُم مِّن جَنَّٰتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿26:57﴾ وَكُنُوزٍ وَمَقَامٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿26:58﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ وَأَوْرَثْنَٰهَا بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ ﴿26:59﴾ فَأَتْبَعُوهُم مُّشْرِقِينَ ﴿26:60﴾ - الشعراء

And we enjoined Mūssā that you should journey secretly with my wayfarers: You shall be followed! And thus, Fir£aoun sent compellers (i.e., law enforcers) into the cities that were loyal to him (,proclaiming): 'These (i.e., Mūssā and his followers) are but a disorganized few! And they are enraging to us! And we all are to be vigilantly on guard (i.e., seeking to arrest them)!' And thus (after they failed), we caused them (Fir£aoun and his legions) to come out from 'Jannāt' and wellsprings, and (from) treasures and an honorable position, and we thusly made it the inheritance for Banī Issrāʿīl. And thus, they followed them eastward!

So much information in these few ayats. So again, this is the situation where right before the Exodus and the Exodus itself. Allahh (swt) says, and we enjoined upon Mūssā, meaning we instructed Mūssā. Oh, hyena وَأَوْحَيْنَآ We instructed, we gave instructions. Remember the instructions came to prophets. All prophets receive Wahi. Wahi doesn't mean revelation. Wahi means specific instructions to execute. You're supposed to fulfill a mission to conduct a mission, to execute and succeed in what Allahh (swt) asked you to do with his help. We enjoined Mūssā that you should journey secretly أَسْرِ to journey secretly بِعِبَادِىٓ with my wayfarers.

Don't believe that أَسْرِ means going at night because we will see a little later فَأَسْرِ بِعِبَادِى لَيْلًا that means journey secretly at night. So, when the word لَيْلًا is added, that means it is not inherent in the word أَسْرِ or Isra. So أَسْرِ journey secretly with my wayfarers. Yes. I know some of you caught what I said. You shall be followed. Some people will follow you. Who? Fir£aoun and his legions, of course, and thus Fir£aoun sent compellers, meaning law enforcers حَٰشِرِينَ. They compel some actions. They sort of motivate, or they enforce some instructions directly from Fir£aoun. Where? Into the cities. He sent them into the cities that were loyal to him proclaiming these meaning Mūssā and his followers are, but a disorganized few قَلِيلُونَ. And there were a few here.

We see here ذُرِّيَّةٌ مِّن قَوْمِهِ A few young people. Few, not thousands. Probably in the hundreds at most. وَإِنَّهُمْ لَنَا لَغَائِظُونَ and they are enraging us. So, he's motivating. He sorts of using the propaganda to get people against Mūssa and his followers. Why? Because they already escaped. They already left. Allahh (swt) gave the command to Mūssa and his followers and they left. So, take out of your head that imagery where large group of people, half a million or a hundred thousand or 20,000 people are going with a permission Fir£aoun. No, that's not what happened. Allahh (swt) gave the instructions go out secretly and we will see a little later go out secretly at night.

In other words, they were not going with Fir£aoun giving them permission. As soon as Fir£aoun figured this out, Allahh (swt) told Mūssa you're going to be followed. Therefore, Fir£aoun ended up sending those compellers looking for them. Where are they? Where did they go? And he says, these people are just a disorganized few and they are enraging to us. They're violating the laws. They're violating the commands from us. We are all to be vigilantly on guard, seeking to arrest them. And thus, after they failed, we cause them Fir£aoun and his legions to come out from the Jannats and wellsprings. We know that Allahh (swt) destroyed them with so many various things that he talked to us about in the Qurʿān.

These people came out from their Jannat and wellsprings and from treasures and honorable positions, they had these people of Fir£aoun. They left all of these things behind because Allahh (swt) destroyed them. And we thusly made it the inheritance of Banī Issrāʿīl. So,he's not talking about physical things because Banī Issrāʿīl is the people who went out with Mūssā, as we will see they didn't come out with a lot of property. There were a few. They were not well organized. They were afraid for their lives. They were being followed by Fir£aoun, and his legions. Just forget all of these movies that we've seen. All of those are bogus. The Quran is telling us a totally different story.

So, what did they inherit? They inherited the Jannat. Jannat of what? The Jannat that we talk about, which is the clear understanding of the scripture. The wellsprings. Well did the Fir£aoun and his people have access to it before? Yes, before they went astray, before they started corrupting the scripture, they had treasures and they had an honorable position at one point in time. When? Earlier much earlier, when they still followed the teachings of Ya£qūb and Yusaf etc, and other prophets who came after them.

“And we thusly made it, those things, the inheritance for Banī Issrāʿīl”. Who are Banī Issrāʿīl? These are the people who went out with Mūssā. Those are specifically called Banī Issrāʿīl. “And thus, they followed them eastward”, they followed them مُّشْرِقِينَ toward the east.

Guess where? This confirms that the land of Misr is west of the place where Mūssa̅ and his followers went. Well, what does that mean? It also confirms if you remember in the story of Maryam إِذِ ٱنتَبَذَتْ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا مَكَانًا شَرْقِيًّا, and she went eastward. She went to the same place to where Mūssa̅ initially escaped. In other words, Misr is toward the west. She went east here the same thing. They followed them toward the east. So, Allah is telling us Mūssa̅ and his followers went toward the east.

Now we understand how the stories are really linked. There are so many parallels between the story of Mūssa̅ and the story of Maryam and Zakariya in her coming back and so on and so forth. And the marking I told you earlier in the first ayat of the segment from Sūrah Maryam is a clear marking that I need you to think about. If you reflect about this and come up with some answers, write to me using email marvelous quran@gmail.com. Don't write on the public comments stream. Don't write in a public forum on the website, please.

How do we know Banī Issrāʿīl are the ones who went out with Mūssa̅? Because, the Quran again tells us. We don't need to guess the Quran gives us all of these details. We just have to trace and understand. Allahh (swt) is instructing Mūssa̅ to go to Fir£aoun and say

... قَدْ جِئْتُكُم بِبَيِّنَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ فَأَرْسِلْ مَعِىَ بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ ﴿7:105﴾ - الأعراف

I brought you some clear evidence from your Lord sent with me Banī Issrāʿīl. Therefore, Mūssa̅ is specifically asking for Banī Issrāʿīl to come with him. You get the imagination that the Banī Issrāʿīl are already defined. But in reality, if you read the whole Qur'an Banī Issrāʿīl is used the very first time when Allahh (swt) instructs Mūssa̅ to go to Fir£aoun and ask for those who come with him to be called Banī Issrāʿīl that's what the name is. Allahh (swt) gives that group of people who came out on the Exodus, Banī Issrāʿīl. Pay attention. This is really important because the people who stayed are still referred to as Ale-£imrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ . The people who came out with Mūssa̅ are Banī Issrāʿīl, The people who stayed back in Misr are still referred to as Ale-£imrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰن .

And that's why Mariam was from Ale-£imrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ from the people who stayed behind in Misr, not from the people who came out with Mūssa̅ on the Exodus out of Misr. I hope this is clear. So this is the first reference in 7: 105.

In ayat 20:47 Allahh (swt) is instructing, both Hārūn and Mūssa̅

رَسُولًا here It doesn't mean messengers with scripture. It means emissaries were sent by Allahh (swt) to perform a mission.فَأَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ is the same thing. Send with us Banī Issrāʿīl; the followers of Issrāʿīl. Banī Issrāʿīl does not mean the children or descendants. It's not like Zuriyah. Banī Issrāʿīl is like Banī Adam. The followers of Adam. Banī is the followers.

Banī Issrāʿīl بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ

Banī Issrāʿīl the followers of Issrāʿīl. Banī Issrāʿīl does not mean the children or descendants. It's not like Zuriyah. Banī Issrāʿīl is like Banī Adam. The followers of Adam. Banī is the followers.

Banī Issrāʿīl are the followers of Issrāʿīl, which means Mūssa̅ is Issrāʿīl.

And as we saw earlier, فَمَآ ءَامَنَ لِمُوسَىٰٓ إِلَّا ذُرِّيَّةٌ a group of people who are relatively young. Here Allahh (swt) is giving them a name. So the name Banī Issrāʿīl are the followers of Issrāʿīl, which means Mūssa̅ is Issrāʿīl. And we're going to see this in a lot more details in the future. But for now this is sufficient. Issrāʿīl is not YaƐqūb as they told us. That's what the corrupted version of the Torah said. Issrāʿīl is actually Mūssa̅ himself. We will prove it in future segments, but for now I'm showing you some of the evidence. The very first time it came out in the history of all the events in the Qurʿān is when Allahh (swt) instructed Mūssa̅, go and tell him those who come with me are Banī Issrāʿīl.

And so in Sūrah Ash-Shu'ara 26:17 Allahh (swt) says the same thing teaches us the same thing, أَنْ أَرْسِلْ مَعَنَا بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ. So, the earliest historical mention of Banī Issrāʿīl in the Qurʿān is when Mūssa̅ and Hārūn received instructions from Allahh (swt) to go to FirƐaoun and tell him send with us those who are willing to follow us; Banī Issrāʿīl they are called.

So, what about the ones who stayed behind? The ones who stayed behind will be referred to as “Ale-Ɛimrān”ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ . We will see why Ɛimrān عِمْرَٰنَ ? It is a very specific name. We will understand a little bit more, just a few minutes Insha’Allah. So be patient and bear with us and stay on the segments in Insha’Allah until the end.

So Banī Issrāʿīl said it simply means followers of Issrāʿīl; followers of Mūssā̄ himself.

Now, who or what was Ɛimrā̄n? Where did they reside? We continue. This is another collection of ayats from Sūrah Dukhan Sūrah 44.

فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ أَنَّ هَٰٓؤُلَآءِ قَوۡمٞ مُّجۡرِمُونَ ﴿44:22﴾ فَأَسۡرِ بِعِبَادِي لَيۡلًا إِنَّكُم مُّتَّبَعُونَ ﴿44:23﴾ وَٱتۡرُكِ ٱلۡبَحۡرَ رَهۡوًا إِنَّهُمۡ جُندٞ مُّغۡرَقُونَ ﴿44:24﴾ كَمۡ تَرَكُواْ مِن جَنَّٰتٖ وَعُيُونٖ ﴿44:25﴾ وَزُرُوعٖ وَمَقَامٖ كَرِيمٖ ﴿44:26﴾ وَنَعۡمَةٖ كَانُواْ فِيهَا فَٰكِهِينَ ﴿44:27﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ وَأَوۡرَثۡنَٰهَا قَوۡمًا ءَاخَرِينَ ﴿44:28﴾ فَمَا بَكَتۡ عَلَيۡهِمُ ٱلسَّمَآءُ وَٱلۡأَرۡضُ وَمَا كَانُواْ مُنظَرِينَ ﴿44:29﴾ وَلَقَدۡ نَجَّيۡنَا بَنِيٓ إِسۡرَٰٓءِيلَ مِنَ ٱلۡعَذَابِ ٱلۡمُهِينِ ﴿44:30﴾ مِن فِرۡعَوۡنَ إِنَّهُۥ كَانَ عَالِيٗا مِّنَ ٱلۡمُسۡرِفِينَ ﴿44:31﴾ - الدخان

And he (Mūssā) supplicated his lord: 'These people are a community who detach the interpretation of the scripture from the scripture! (Allahh instructed him:) "Therefore, journey secretly with my wayfarers at night! : You shall be followed! And leave the 'Baḥr' in its current, unchanging state! They are legions that shall be drowned!"

How many a garden and a wellspring they left behind, and plantations and an honorable position, and favors they used to use for supplications! It was so, and we thusly made them an inheritance for another community! And the layer of understanding with the scripture never again 'cried' upon them (i.e., provided the inheritors with divine rain), and they have not been given a promise to come (since that time). And we have safeguarded Banī Issrāʿīl from the humiliating punishment; From Fir̄Ɛaoun: He has exalted himself (using the scripture), among the excessive ones.

أَنَّ هَٰٓؤُلَآءِ قَوۡمٞ مُّجۡرِمُونَ فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ this is Mūssā̄ speaking. Let me go to the very end so that we establish some clear facts that I just shared with you. وَلَقَدۡ نَجَّيۡنَا بَنِيٓ إِسۡرَٰٓءِيلَ مِنَ ٱلۡعَذَابِ ٱلۡمُهِينِ We have safeguarded Banī Issrāʿīl from the humiliating punishment from Fir̄Ɛaoun. He has exalted himself using the scripture among the excessive ones. So therefore, those who are safeguarded, who exuded, who were safe from the punishment of Fir̄Ɛaoun are called Banī Issrāʿīl.

It's very clear. The people who came out are called Banī Issrāʿīl. So, what about the people who remained. Who refuse to believe for Mūssā̄. Rmember only a few believed. So, the remainder are referred to in the Qurʿān as "Ale-Ɛimrā̄n"ءَالَ عِمۡرَٰنَ , and we are going to see even more details. So when you hear Banī Issrāʿīl are all the descendants from Yaɛqūb, that's a lie. The Qurʿān is telling us that's not true. The vast majority of them never left Misr. They remained there and they were punished again and again and again. Allahh (swt) does not talk about them in favorable ways. As we saw in part three, the people who came out are called Banī Issrāʿīl and sometimes the Qur'an refers to them in good ways. Not all of them, but some of them.

Therefore, we understand now that the naming that the Quran uses has nothing to do with ethnic or racial distinction as they themselves claim for themselves. So, the state of Israel belongs to all of those descendants of YaƐqūb, that's bogus. It's not true, has nothing to do with reality. Allahh (swt) is giving us the truth. Unfortunately, some of the books of Tafsir and some of the interpreters and the translators bought the official story of the Zionists in the world. They started pedaling it in our own books. And that's bogus that's because they don't understand the Qurʿān.

Let's go back to this paragraph from Sūrah Dukhan and understand it more. أَنَّ فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ هَٰٓؤُلَآءِ قَوْمٌ مُّجْرِمُونَ this is Mūssa ̄he's applicated to his Lord. “These people are a community who detached the interpretation of the scripture from the scripture itself”. مُّجْرِمُونَ from the root Jarama is the same word you use when you separate the meat from the bone. So, splitting something from its original connection is called Jarama. مُّجْرِمُونَ those who do this type of separation. In the case of the scripture, as we saw, they separate the interpretation from the scripture itself; meaning they came up with interpretations that have nothing to do with the scripture. Does this remind you of some people?

أَسْرِ ̄ َnow Allahh (swt) telling him “therefore, journey secretly with my wayfarers at night” فَأَسْرِ بِعِبَادِى لَيْلًا . Esri is journey secretly with my wayfarers at night لَيْلًا during the night. Meaning they were totally scared. They were totally worried about going out and being pursued. Allahh (swt) told them they're going to be pursued. So, they were running away with their lives and there were not a large group of people. Don't believe those stories and movies, all of this stuff that we were told about the great big exodus out of Misr and all of this celebration. And it's not true.

Qurʿān is telling us the truth. إِنَّكُم مُّتَّبَعُونَ you're going to be followed and leave the ٱلْبَحْرَ I'm going to leave this word untranslated right now, because it's not what you think. وَٱتْرُكِ ٱلْبَحْرَ leave the “Bahr” and its current unchanging stake. Meaning let them be, leave them alone. Don't worry about them. There's no hope for them. Who is he talking about? Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ, of course the people who are left behind. They are legions that shall be drowned إِنَّهُمْ جُندٌ مُّغْرَقُونَ

He's referring to his own community as جُندٌ “legions”. Yes. As we saw the notables who belong to the community, from which Mūssā came and where the progeny few people believes for Mūssā, the leaders were all with FirƐaoun already. Again, this is the same story we're living in most Muslim countries today.

كَمْ تَرَكُوا مِن جَنَّٰتٍ وَعُيُونٍ, how many a garden and a wellspring they left behind. Who? The people of FirƐaoun. Now, he's talking about the people of FirƐaoun. Watch carefully now. They left gardens and wellsprings the same wording, but a totally different indication. And you will see it for yourself.

They left behind plantations and an honorable position, the same wording that we saw a little earlier, but this is a different scene altogether. This is the style of the Qurʿān. We're going to see it in the case of the story of Lut. We're going to see it in the case of the story of Mūssā. You read two different paragraphs and you think you're reading the same thing, but they're totally different. There are some clear signals that tell you this is different than this. So Allahh (swt) is using distraction. Yes. To make you think you're reading the same scene, but they are different scenes. wa-yamkurūna wa-yamkuru llāhu wa-llāhu khayru l-mākirīn. So, Allahh (swt) misguides people who are not paying attention. So, this scene is a totally different scene. You're going to see it for you.

وَنَعْمَةٍ كَانُوا فِيهَا فَٰكِهِينَ and favors they used to use for supplications. كَذَٰلِكَ It was so, “and we thusly made them an inheritance for another community” وَأَوْرَثْنَٰهَا قَوْمًا ءَاخَرِينَ. So, who we're talking about? So Banī Issrāʿīl are already left. FirƐaoun and his legions are, we are told that they left all of the things, but somebody else inherited them. Those who remained from “Ale-Ɛimrān”ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ after FirƐaoun and his legions were destroyed are قَوْمًا ءَاخَرِينَ different group of people. So now Allahh (swt) is referring to them as Ale-Ɛimrānءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ I hope it's clear.

فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ ٱلسَّمَآءُ وَٱلْأَرْضُ وَمَا كَانُوا مُنظَرِينَ pay attention! And the layer of understanding ٱلسَّمَآءُ with this scripture. Again, they may have had some scripture left over but remember they were misinterpreting the scripture as Mūssā was telling us right here أَنَّ هَٰٓؤُلَآءِ قَوْمٌ مُّجْرِمُونَ. They are abusing the scripture and misinterpreting the scripture with interpretations that are different than what scripture is saying.

Therefore, Allahh (swt)is telling us فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ ٱلسَّمَآءُ وَٱلْأَرْضُ وَمَا كَانُوا مُنظَرِينَ the scripture and a layer of understanding, never again cried upon them. What does that mean? That means provided the inheritance with divine rain. That means these inheritors, the new inheritors قَوْمًا ءَاخَرِينَ never received the divine rain again. This is Allahh (swt) speaking. فَمَا بَكَتْ Allahh (swt) is telling us ever since that time they have not received good divine rain; meaning they have not received divine guidance. All of them. Of course, we cannot say all of them because at least the mother of Maryam and Maryam herself were some of those people. There might have been some exceptions, but in general, Allahh (swt) is telling us they did not receive divine guidance.

Ale-Ɛimrān were not good people in general. They have not been given a promise to come since that time; meaning a promise to be revived. And we have safeguarded that Banī Issrāʿīl, as I said before. وَلَقَدْ نَجَّيْنَا بَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ Banī Issrāʿīl have already left. So there are three groups of people right now. We have Banī Issrāʿīl who left. We have FirƐaoun in his legions who are destroyed. And we have the third قَوْمًا ءَاخَرِينَ who actually ended up inheriting the leftovers of all of this misery that happened because of FirƐaoun and his refusal to follow Mūssā.

Three groups of people

1. Banī Issrāʿīl who exited Misr with Mūssā.
2. FirƐaoun and his legions who are destroyed.
3. قَوْمًا ءَاخَرِينَ, Ale-Ɛimrān who actually ended up inheriting the leftovers of all of this misery that happened because of FirƐaoun and his refusal to follow Mūssā.

Here's another paragraph from Sūrah Al-Isra.

وَءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَجَعَلْنَٰهُ هُدًى لِّبَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ أَلَّا تَتَّخِذُوا مِن دُونِى وَكِيلًا ﴿17:2﴾ ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ إِنَّهُۥ كَانَ عَبْدًا شَكُورًا ﴿17:3﴾ - الإسراء

And we have provided Mūssā the opportunity to learn the message of the scripture, and we made it a guidance to Banī Issrāʿīl (who exited with him), that 'You must never take an intermediary between me and you, as an arbiter (in interpreting the scripture), the progeny of those whom 'we carried' with Nūḥ' (i.e., those who were left behind in Miṣr).

Indeed, he (applies to Mūssā and to Nūḥ, both) was a wayfarer who communicated well with Allahh!

وَءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى ٱلْكِتَٰبَ clearly is talking about after the Exodus. Because Mūssā was not given the Kitab before the Exodus. Allahh (swt) is telling us about Banī Issrāʿīl clearly those who exited Misr. I hope you're following all of these details. These are really relevant. We're going to come to some significant conclusions and I'm building with all sorts of historical references and information. So, you can get things organized in your head. When we use different names for different groups, as the Qurʿān is using them, we have the references for these groups.

Allahh (swt) is telling us from Sūrah Al-Isra (Sūrah 17 ayat 2) we have provided Mūssā the opportunity to learn or to receive the message of the scripture. "And we made it a guidance to Banī Issrāʿīl" who exited with him exclusively وَجَعَلْنَٰهُ هُدًى لِّبَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ. Banī Issrāʿīl can only receive the guidance through that Kitab, through that message or that scripture. "That you must never take an intermediary between me and you" as an arbiter وَكِيلًا.

"The progeny of those whom we carried with Nūḥ". What is that? Those who are left behind the Misr. So Allahh (swt) is telling us those whom we carried with Nūḥ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ should never be taken as وَكِيلًا . We talked about what وَكِيلًا in prior segment; that means an arbiter. So whenever there is a disagreement about what a certain sentence or certain idea or verse from a scripture mean, or a contract or any kind of language, there is arbitration required, you refer back to Allahh (swt).

Allahh (swt) taught them, take this guidance, this Kitab to Banī Issrāʿīl, the followers of Mūssā and never allow ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ their enemies. Their old enemies; meaning Ale-Ɛimrān. Don't take them as arbiters, as references for how to understand the scripture. Why? Because FirƐaoun all of those people who are with him, miss interpreted their scriptures and Mūssā described them as Maujrimoon. They violated the proper way of interpreting their scripture. Now, when he gave them the new scripture, the first warning is don't allow those people back there ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ those whom you left Ale-Ɛimrānءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ to be the arbiters over your new scripture.

Then he talks about Nūḥ or Mūssā, both of them إِنَّهُۥ كَانَ عَبْدًا شَكُورًا indeed he meaning either Mūssā or Nūḥ or both was a Wayfarer who communicated well with Allahh (swt). How do we know could be both because we know from Nūḥ he used to make a lot of Duaa and we know from Mūssā, he used to make a lot of accepted duaa, both of them. Therefore, this part or this ayat is separated because it refers to both of them. But it doesn't matter which one, because what matters is ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ should never be allowed to be arbiters over the guidance to Banī Issrāʿīl meaning the Kitab, meaning the scripture that was given to Mūssā.

Summary & Conclusion:

I hope this picture is becoming clearer and clearer. Where are you going with this Dr. Hani? Here's a conclusion.

Where did they reside? They resided in Misr. This is Ale-Ɛimrān. We know exactly where Maryam gave birth to Ɛīssā. So, Ɛīssā too was born in Africa. Imagine this! Not only he was born in Africa, Ɛīssā was half African. Maryam was full African, a hundred percent. Misr is part of Africa. Ɛīssā was half African. Ohh the irony, the blue eyes blonde images that were drawn to represent Ɛīssā or the Chinese images that were drawn to represent Ɛīssā. He turned out to be half African SubahanAllah.

Those who exited Misr with Mūssa and Hārūn were Banī Issrāʿīl. As I said, there were only a few of them. We don't know exactly how many, probably maybe a hundred, 200, 300 no more. And they were the younger people.

Those who stayed behind the Misr had rejected Mūssa. They are labeled in the Qurʿān as those affiliated with Ɛimrān, Ale-Ɛimrānءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ people of Ɛimrān.

In other words, Ɛimrān is not necessarily a person we're going to see more detail. They remained in punishment. As we just saw in disconnection from Allah (swt) فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ ٱلسَّمَآءُ . ٱلسَّمَآءُ never cried over them; meaning gave them divine rain. Ever since Mūssa left them they never received good guidance, except a few people we know about such as Maryam and her mother.

Therefore, the community of people in Misr before Mūssa were known as Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ. It does not mean that they were good people. After Mūssa left. They were also Ale-Ɛimra , except Banī Issrāʿīl who left.

Mūssa was born into Ale-Ɛimrān. Ɛimrān was not his father. If you read someone saying Mūssa Ibn Ɛimrān as happened in some narrations, it doesn't mean Ɛimrān was his father. It's like Maryam Ibnata Ɛimrān or Imraʿat Ɛimrān, the woman of Ɛimrān. It doesn't mean her husband or her man was called Ɛimrān. Or Maryam’s father was called Ɛimrān. It's just a belonging to that clan to that group of people.

Maryam's mother was one of the subordinate women among Ale-Ɛimrānءَالَ عِمْرٰنَ . As we saw, like Imraʿat FirƐaoun. subordinate woman within Ale- FirƐaoun. It doesn't mean she was the wife of FirƐaoun, as they told us it has nothing to do with this. It's just, I laugh or I smile because the amount of misinterpretation is kind of sad, but it's also laughable. It has nothing to do with the type of interpretations they gave us. So, Imraʿat -Ɛimrān not the wife of Ɛimrān, just like Imraʿat FirƐaoun, not the wife of FirƐaoun just the subordinate woman in that group. Meaning a lowly part of the lowly class in that group.

Maryam's mother made a supplication for Maryam to be liberated. إِنِّى نَذَرْتُ لَكَ مَا فِى بَطْنِى مُحَرَّرًا ,ayat 35 from Sūrah Ale-Ɛimrān, from the oppression that she experienced in Ale-Ɛimrān . So that means Maryam's mother was really feeling sorry for this baby in her belly. She didn't want to see him or her. She didn't know at the time she made the duaa to suffer the same kind of conditions that she was going through herself. That means Ale-Ɛimrān were not good people.

Both Ale-Ɛimrān and Banī Issrāʿīl were from the progeny of those carried with Nūḥ. Again, as I said, ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ originally in Misr. Which means Nūḥ resided in the land of Ɛimrān. Ah, so what does Ɛimrān mean? Ɛimrān could either mean Nūḥ himself or the place of high buildings, which is Misr. It has the pyramids and these large, huge humongous statues, Ɛimrān, Amara buildings, constructions. So that land was known as Ɛimrān. Ɛimrān is not a person necessarily. It could be a reference to Nūḥ, but I think it is a geography. When we say Ale-Ɛimrān, the people from that region, from that geography, from Misr from Africa.

Āl-Ɛimrān (in Miṣr) had their Own Locution

Ale-Ɛimrān in Misr had their own locution. We already saw the word الطِّين ‘At-Ṭeen’. We saw the word قَرِّي عَيْنَاً, as we saw the relationship between the story of Maryam and the story of Mūssā. Especially Imraʿat FirƐaoun and how she used the word قَرِّي عَيْنَاً the reference to the mother of Mūssā, etc. They had other words such as the word Shi3ā شِيْعَة, which means faction. It's used in the context of the story of FirƐaoun and Mūssā.

إِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ عَلَا فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ وَجَعَلَ أَهْلَهَا شِيَعًا يَسْتَضْعِفُ طَآئِفَةً مِّنْهُمْ يُذَبِّحُ أَبْنَآءَهُمْ وَيَسْتَحْىِۦ نِسَآءَهُمْ إِنَّهُۥ كَانَ مِنَ ٱلْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿28:4﴾ - القصص

وَدَخَلَ ٱلْمَدِينَةَ عَلَىٰ حِينِ غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ أَهْلِهَا فَوَجَدَ فِيهَا رَجُلَيْنِ يَقْتَتِلَانِ هَٰذَا مِن شِيعَتِهِۦ وَهَٰذَا مِنْ عَدُوِّهِۦ فَٱسْتَغَٰثَهُ ٱلَّذِى مِن شِيعَتِهِۦ عَلَى ٱلَّذِى مِنْ عَدُوِّهِۦ فَوَكَزَهُۥ مُوسَىٰ فَقَضَىٰ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ هَٰذَا مِنْ عَمَلِ ٱلشَّيْطَٰنِ إِنَّهُۥ عَدُوٌّ مُّضِلٌّ مُّبِينٌ ﴿28:15﴾ - القصص

قُلْ هُوَ ٱلْقَادِرُ عَلَىٰٓ أَن يَبْعَثَ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابًا مِّن فَوْقِكُمْ أَوْ مِن تَحْتِ أَرْجُلِكُمْ أَوْ يَلْبِسَكُمْ شِيَعًا وَيُذِيقَ بَعْضَكُم بَأْسَ بَعْضٍ ٱنظُرْ كَيْفَ نُصَرِّفُ ٱلْءَايَٰتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿6:65﴾ - الانعام

إِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ فَرَّقُوا دِينَهُمْ وَكَانُوا شِيَعًا لَّسْتَ مِنْهُمْ فِى شَىْءٍ إِنَّمَآ أَمْرُهُمْ إِلَى ٱللَّهِ ثُمَّ يُنَبِّئُهُم بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿6:159﴾ - الانعام

مِنَ ٱلَّذِينَ فَرَّقُوا دِينَهُمْ وَكَانُوا شِيَعًا كُلُّ حِزْبٍۭ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُونَ ﴿30:32﴾ - الروم
سَلَٰمٌ عَلَىٰ نُوحٍ فِى ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿37:79﴾ إِنَّا كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِى ٱلْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿37:80﴾ إِنَّهُۥ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا ٱلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿37:81﴾ ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا ٱلْءَاخَرِينَ ﴿37:83﴾ - الصافات ﴿37:82﴾ وَإِنَّ مِن شِيعَتِهِۦ لَإِبْرَٰهِيمَ

I will let you read this. This is really not that relevant. I'm just giving you more examples of specific locutions used in these stories. We need to pay attention to the concept of locution. Remember on this channel, we constantly keep teaching you methodology. Methodology is based on the locution and Allahh (swt) told us in a 14:4 that every story brought to us in the Qurʿān contained locution from that region or that geography or that group of people. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is telling us pay attention. Because sometimes he uses locution without telling you whom is he talking about and it's up to you to figure out, ah, he used قَرِّي عَيْنَاً that means it's about somebody from Ale-Ɛimrān.

He used إمرأت Imraʿat with a long Ta. That means it's somebody related to Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ, as we will see in this next slide. And this is really relevant, really important. So now pay attention. So, part of the methodology is that we developed this hypothesis, the word إمرأت Imraʿat with a long Ta refers to the way they spoke like Imraʿat- FirƐaoun, Imraʿat – Alaziz which is also in Misr, Imraʿat- Ɛimrān, which is also in Misr. As we just saw. Now we have a pattern. Now, does it apply to other cases? We can infer that Allahh (swt) is telling us yes, it does. Unless proven otherwise. And if it does, if this hypothesis stands as we will see, it has major, major implications about what the Qurʿān is teaching us. And it's truly amazing. You just watch.

Now I ask you to refer to this segment which is, “YT 18, why are there spelling variations in the Qurʿān” to learn the difference between Imraʿat with a long Ta and Imraʿat with the short Ta. And this is an important distinction. Those of you who don't know about the methodology we use, don't pay attention to the spelling. But according to the methodology we use, and by many many different scholars, they pay a lot of attention to the exact spelling of each word. It turns out that this spelling is very relevant to understand the meanings.

When you see Imraʿat with a round Ta small Ta, it means an independent woman, such as in ayat 27:23 Allahh (swt) is talking about the queen of Sheba. |ʾinnī wajadtu imraʾatan tamlikuhum" إِنِّي وَجَدتُّ ٱمۡرَأَةٗ تَمۡلِكُهُمۡ , she's a woman who is ruling them. Imraʾatan in that case is round Ta. She doesn't have a man over her. Imraʿat with a long Ta as we will see refers to having a man over her. So, it tells us about the socio- economic conditions of that group of people. Women were an underclass. Women were always under the submission to men and men consider these women their possessions. This is not the Islam. This is not Qurʿān. Allahh (swt) is telling us about the economic, socioeconomic and sociopolitical condition of women in that group. Which group? Ale-Ɛimrān, as we will see.

So Imraʿat with the long Ta refers to subordinate women. And my contention is that this is exclusively for Ale-Ɛimrān. Not only that when Allahh (swt) uses the word Imraʿat in a genitive form meaning there's a possessive pronoun attached to it such as Imraʿatu, Imraʿataka, Imraʿati (my woman, his woman, your woman). Every time a woman is attached to a man it is referring to someone that woman being from Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمۡرَٰنَ .This is the hypothesis and you'll see the implications. This is part of the methodology. This is how we prove things. We evaluate all of the instances and we study does it violate that rule? And if we find that it does not violate that rule, that means it applies.

We start from Sūrah Yusuf.

وَقَالَ نِسۡوَةٞ فِي ٱلۡمَدِينَةِ ٱمۡرَأَتُ ٱلۡعَزِيزِ تُرَٰوِدُ فَتَىٰهَا عَن نَّفۡسِهِۦۖ قَدۡ شَغَفَهَا حُبًّاۖ إِنَّا لَنَرَىٰهَا فِي ضَلَٰلٖ مُّبِينٖ ﴿12:30﴾ - يوسف

Remember, this is a story in Misr, Ale-Ɛimrān. Imraʿatu long Ta. Imraʿatu-Al-Azeez she belongs to Alazeez. Alazeez is the ruler of that land at that time.

Again, from Sūrah Yousaf

قَالَ مَا خَطۡبُكُنَّ إِذۡ رَٰوَدتُّنَّ يُوسُفَ عَن نَّفۡسِهِۦۖ قُلۡنَ حَٰشَ لِلَّهِ مَا عَلِمۡنَا عَلَيۡهِ مِن سُوٓءٖۚ قَالَتِ ٱمۡرَأَتُ ٱلۡعَزِيزِ ٱلۡـَٰٔنَ حَصۡحَصَ ٱلۡحَقُّ أَنَا۠ رَٰوَدتُّهُۥ عَن نَّفۡسِهِۦ وَإِنَّهُۥ لَمِنَ ٱلصَّٰدِقِينَ ﴿12:51﴾ - يوسف

Sūrah Al-Qasas, now moving forward to the time of Mūssa

وَقَالَتِ ٱمۡرَأَتُ فِرۡعَوۡنَ قُرَّتُ عَيۡنٖ لِّي وَلَكَۖ لَا تَقۡتُلُوهُ عَسَىٰٓ أَن يَنفَعَنَآ أَوۡ نَتَّخِذَهُۥ وَلَدٗا وَهُمۡ لَا يَشۡعُرُونَ ﴿28:9﴾ - القصص

Imraʿatu FirƐaoun she belongs to the clans or to the gangs or to the group of FirƐaoun. She's their possession.

Sūrah Al-Thareem

وَضَرَبَ ٱللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِّلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا ٱمْرَأَتَ فِرْعَوْنَ إِذْ قَالَتْ رَبِّ ٱبْنِ لِى عِندَكَ بَيْتًا فِى ٱلْجَنَّةِ وَنَجِّنِى مِن فِرْعَوْنَ وَعَمَلِهِۦ وَنَجِّنِى مِنَ ٱلْقَوْمِ ٱلظَّٰلِمِينَ ﴿66:11﴾ - التحريم

Allahh (swt) refers to the same woman using the long Ta Imraʿatu Fir£aoun, or Imraʿata Fir£aoun a genitive relationship possession by Fir£aoun or the people of Fir£aoun.

In the story of a mother of Maryam

إِذْ قَالَتِ ٱمْرَأَتُ عِمْرَٰنَ رَبِّ إِنِّى نَذَرْتُ لَكَ مَا فِى بَطْنِى مُحَرَّرًا فَتَقَبَّلْ مِنِّىٓ إِنَّكَ أَنتَ ٱلسَّمِيعُ ٱلْعَلِيمُ ﴿3:35﴾ - آل عمران

She's described as Imraʿatu 3imrān. She is possessed. She's the possession. She's under the subordination by the leaders of £imrān, etc.

In Sūrah 66 ayat 10 Allahh (swt) tells us

ضَرَبَ ٱللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِّلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ٱمْرَأَتَ نُوحٍ وَٱمْرَأَتَ لُوطٍ كَانَتَا تَحْتَ عَبْدَيْنِ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا صَٰلِحَيْنِ فَخَانَتَاهُمَا فَلَمْ يُغْنِيَا عَنْهُمَا مِنَ ٱللَّهِ شَيْـًٔا وَقِيلَ ٱدْخُلَا ٱلنَّارَ مَعَ ٱلدَّٰخِلِينَ ﴿66:10﴾ - التحريم

Allahh (swt) gave the counterexample to those who disbelieve in Imraʿat Nūḥ meaning not all of those from the other group are bad. Imraʿat Nūḥ and Imraʿat Lut, they violated them or they betrayed them. So Imraʿat long Ta.

Imraʿat Nūḥ, this is the only time it's mentioned with Nūḥ confirming that Nūḥ was from that group. I hope it makes sense. You're seeing the pattern come together beautifully. Therefore, Nūḥ was from that land, from that geography. Allahh (swt) is telling us this one time in the Qurʿān by referring to his woman Imraʿat Nūḥ and defining that term كَانَتَا تَحْتَ عَبْدَيْنِ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا, "they were under" meaning submissive to them, two of our wayfarers, except these two people were good Lut and Nūḥ. Ah, so Imraʿat Lut was also from that land. Yes, that's what it's telling us.

Now we're going to see a little bit more amazing detail. So, the hypothesis is and we're trying to prove it, any occurrence where a woman Imraʿat with a long Ta is referred to as a long Ta, this is a reference to the locution of Ale-£imrān. And it means that that woman, she is from Ale-£imrān from Misr just like Imraʿat 3imrān the mother of Maryam is from Misr; African.

That means Maryam is also African. She came from that group. Again, we're confirming more. We're confirming that the word Imraʿat with the long Ta or in the case of genitive Imraʿati, Imraʿathu, Imraʿatka, all of those references refer to the same thing.

What are the Implications of this Locution Disclosure?

What are the implications of this locution disclosure or this hypothesis? Any occurrence in the Qurʿān where a woman is referred to as Imraʿat with a long Ta of some man with a possessive pronoun, a genitive case, this is a reference to the locution of Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ. It means that she is from Ale-Ɛimrān.

1. ٱمْرَأَتَ لُوطٍ Imraʿat Lūṭ was from Miṣr (from Āl-Ɛimrān): African!

We saw already in Imraʿat Lut is mentioned with a long Ta and is mentioned with the possessive pronouns third-person pronoun Imraʿatahu.

فَأَنجَيْنَٰهُ وَأَهْلَهُۥٓ إِلَّا ٱمْرَأَتَهُۥ كَانَتْ مِنَ ٱلْغَٰبِرِينَ ﴿7:83﴾ - الاعراف
قَالُوا يَٰلُوطُ إِنَّا رُسُلُ رَبِّكَ لَن يَصِلُوٓا إِلَيْكَ فَأَسْرِ بِأَهْلِكَ بِقِطْعٍ مِّنَ ٱلَّيْلِ وَلَا يَلْتَفِتْ مِنكُمْ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا ٱمْرَأَتَكَ إِنَّهُۥ مُصِيبُهَا مَآ أَصَابَهُمْ إِنَّ مَوْعِدَهُمُ ٱلصُّبْحُ أَلَيْسَ ٱلصُّبْحُ بِقَرِيبٍ ﴿11:81﴾ - هود
إِلَّا ٱمْرَأَتَهُۥ قَدَّرْنَآ إِنَّهَا لَمِنَ ٱلْغَٰبِرِينَ ﴿15:60﴾ - الحجر
فَأَنجَيْنَٰهُ وَأَهْلَهُۥٓ إِلَّا ٱمْرَأَتَهُۥ قَدَّرْنَٰهَا مِنَ ٱلْغَٰبِرِينَ ﴿27:57﴾ - النمل
قَالَ إِنَّ فِيهَا لُوطًا قَالُوا نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَن فِيهَا لَنُنَجِّيَنَّهُۥ وَأَهْلَهُۥٓ إِلَّا ٱمْرَأَتَهُۥ كَانَتْ مِنَ ٱلْغَٰبِرِينَ ﴿29:32﴾ - العنكبوت
وَلَمَّآ أَن جَآءَتْ رُسُلُنَا لُوطًا سِيٓءَ بِهِمْ وَضَاقَ بِهِمْ ذَرْعًا وَقَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّا مُنَجُّوكَ وَأَهْلَكَ إِلَّا ٱمْرَأَتَكَ كَانَتْ مِنَ ٱلْغَٰبِرِينَ ﴿29:33﴾ - العنكبوت

So, in Sūrah 7:83 Imraʿatahu and Sūrah 11:81 Imraʿataka the angels are talking directly to Lut. In the case of Sūrah Al-Hijr 15, Imraʿatahu referring to his woman, meaning Lut's woman. In the case of Sūrah Al-Namal Imraʿatahu and Sūrah Al-Ankaboot Imraʿatahu etc. So now this is fitting for Lut. Do we have anything to disprove it? We don't, I couldn't come up with anything to disprove it. And therefore, the hypothesis so far stands and we learned something new that Lut was married to a woman from that region.

2. ٱمْرَأَتَ إبراهيم Ibrāhīm's woman was from Miṣr (from Āl-Ɛimrān): African!

وَٱمْرَأَتُهُۥ قَآئِمَةٌ فَضَحِكَتْ فَبَشَّرْنَٰهَا بِإِسْحَٰقَ وَمِن وَرَآءِ إِسْحَٰقَ يَعْقُوبَ ﴿11:71﴾ - هود
فَأَقْبَلَتِ ٱمْرَأَتُهُۥ فِى صَرَّةٍ فَصَكَّتْ وَجْهَهَا وَقَالَتْ عَجُوزٌ عَقِيمٌ ﴿51:29﴾ - الذاريات

Now, in the case of Ibrāhīm, this is amazing. This is new. This is something you didn't expect. Ibrāhīm 's woman was also from Misr. How do we know? Because she is described Wa Imraʿatahu, with a genitive, with a pronoun attached to Imraʿat. Imraʿat of Ibrāhīm. That means the woman of Ibrāhīm and the mother of Iss-Hāq and YaƐqūb, are you listening, was from Misr. She was African has nothing to do with Sarah and all of this story they told us and the beauty queen and the wealthy noble woman Sarah. She couldn't bear children. Bogus, it all lies.

Qurʿān is telling us it's one woman and she had both of them; Iss-Hāq and YaƐqūb, very clear in the Qurʿān. Take that to your old corrupted versions of the Torah. Tell me if you want to still believe in those corrupted versions of the old Testament and the new Testament. Qurʿān is very clear. فَأَقْبَلَتِ ٱمْرَأَتُهُ the same thing about Ibrāhīm, the woman of Ibrāhīm Sūrah A-Zariat, she was African. Can we confirm that she was Hagar? No, we cannot. The name Hagar was never given. For all we know she was a queen from Egypt. We don't know. She was a woman from Egypt, the Qurʿān referred to her Imraʿatuhu to tell us that she was from Egypt, from Misr, from Ale-Ɛimrān.

3. ٱمْرَأَتَ أبي لَهَب Imraʿat Abou Lahab (Sūrah Al-Massad) was from Miṣr (from Āl-Ɛimrān): It is a clear indication that the Abou Lahab's woman was African!
وَٱمْرَأَتُهُ حَمَّالَةَ ٱلْحَطَبِ ﴿111:4﴾ - المسد

Now the more interesting part Imraʿat Abi Lahab. وَٱمْرَأَتُهُ حَمَّالَةَ ٱلْحَطَبِ Guess what? This proves what we already proven that the Sūrah Al Massad is not talking about any prophet's uncle. It's talking about FirƐaoun and his woman, his subordinate woman وَٱمْرَأَتُهُ حَمَّالَةَ ٱلْحَطَبِ . Exactly as I described it. So, this is further evidence that that woman was African. Unless you can tell me, the prophet's uncle was married to an African woman, then I might accept it. But here it's very clear under this hypothesis that this whole so far as we proved independently, that Abou Lahab is FirƐaoun. Therefore, the woman of FirƐaoun is from Africa, is African and the Qurʿān confirms this. Beautiful confirmation! Everything fits so logically. So consistently integrated without a single flaw, without a single deviation from this hypothesis.

4. ٱمْرَأَتَ زكريا Imraʿat Zakariya was from Miṣr (from Āl-Ɛimrān): African!
قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَقَدْ بَلَغَنِىَ ٱلْكِبَرُ وَٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرٌ قَالَ كَذَٰلِكَ ٱللَّهُ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَآءُ ﴿3:40﴾ - آل عمران
وَإِنِّى خِفْتُ ٱلْمَوَٰلِىَ مِن وَرَآءِى وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا فَهَبْ لِى مِن لَّدُنكَ وَلِيًّا ﴿19:5﴾ - مريم
قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّىٰ يَكُونُ لِى غُلَٰمٌ وَكَانَتِ ٱمْرَأَتِى عَاقِرًا وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ ٱلْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ﴿19:8﴾ - مريم

Now we come to Imraʿat Zakariya. You expect Zakariya to refer to Maryam his woman as Imraʿati using the same locution because Maryam came from "Ale-Ɛimrān"ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ . Indeed in three different places, twice in Sūrah Maryam and one time in Sūrah Ale-Ɛimrān Zakariya refers to Imraʿati confirming again that Maryam is African. She is from Ale-Ɛimrān; from Misr. So Maryam was from Misr.

5. Maryam was from from Miṣr (from Āl-Ɛimrān): African!

وَمَرْيَمَ ٱبْنَتَ عِمْرَٰنَ ٱلَّتِىٓ أَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا فَنَفَخْنَا فِيهِ مِن رُّوحِنَا وَصَدَّقَتْ بِكَلِمَٰتِ رَبِّهَا وَكُتُبِهِۦ وَكَانَتْ مِنَ ٱلْقَٰنِتِينَ ﴿19:8﴾ - التحريم

Allahh(swt) wanted to assure us that this is the right interpretation, the right understanding. He gave us another word with the same characteristic. Remember we said the characteristic is a long Ta. And last time I talked to you about this ayat from Sūrah Al-Tahreem I told you pay attention to how the word ٱبْنَتَ is spelled. Those of you who know Arabic, know that ٱبْنَتَ , should be a round Ta at the end. A round short Ta, not the long Ta. But the Qurʿān spells it with a long Ta telling us it is like this long for Imraʿat that means she's from the same location. She's from the same group from Ale-Ɛimrān. But this time she's described as ٱبْنَتَ عِمْرَٰنَ with a long Ta, confirming our thinking confirming that this hypothesis is correct. So the implications are tremendous.

Who was ādam in Aya 3:33? Reminder from Part 2 in this series

And now we move to a new question in the segment who has Adam in ayat 3:33, I promised you that we will deal with this issue. Ayat 3:33 starts the story in Sūrah Ale-Ɛimrān

Indeed, Allahh selected ādam and Nuḥ, and the followers of Ibrāhīm and the followers of Ɛimrān, in line with all the realms:	إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصْطَفَىٰٓ ءَادَمَ وَنُوحًا وَءَالَ إِبْرَٰهِيمَ وَءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ عَلَى ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:33﴾
A progeny, some of them are from some, and Allahh provides the hearing, and provides the evidence-based knowledge!	ذُرِّيَّةًۢ بَعْضُهَا مِنۢ بَعْضٍ وَٱللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿3:34﴾

إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ ٱصْطَفَىٰٓ ءَادَمَ وَنُوحًا وَءَالَ إِبْرَٰهِيمَ وَءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ عَلَى ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿3:33﴾

Who was adam in this case? So now that we understand Nūḥ is Ɛimrān most likely, or is from Ɛimrān, therefore Adam is Ibrāhīm himself because the ayat has parallels between the first two and the next two. Adam corresponds to Ibrāhīm and Nūḥ corresponds to Ɛimrān. Now it makes perfect sense, which means if Nūḥ is Ɛimrān, as we explained, or is from Ɛimrān, then Ibrāhīm is adam in this ayat.

Why is this important? Because there is an ayat that confirms this, so we don't make it up. We don't have to guess. We look for confirmation. So now Allahh (swt) is telling us in 3:33, that Allahh (swt) selected adam and Nūḥ. We said, Adam is Ibrāhīm and Nūḥ. So, we have two people and their followers and their followers in line with all the realms and made progenies from them, selected such progenies from these two individuals. So, there was Nūḥ and there was Ibrāhīm.

Now watch this. This is the confirmation of what I just told you from Sūrah Al-Hadeed Sūrah 57 ayat 26. Again, we're learning methodology. We're learning how to confirm these discoveries. We're learning that we don't let our imagination lead us in the wrong direction without confirming that there is something in the Qurʿān that affirms or assure us we're on the right track.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا وَإِبْرَٰهِيمَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِى ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا ٱلنُّبُوَّةَ وَٱلْكِتَٰبَ فَمِنْهُم مُّهْتَدٍ وَكَثِيرٌ مِّنْهُمْ فَٰسِقُونَ ﴿57:26﴾ - الحديد

And we have sent Nuḥ and Ibrāhīm, and we assigned within their combined progeny, exclusively, the prophethood and the message of the scripture, and thus, among them are those who seek guidance, and many of them are deviants.

And we have sent Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm. Sent to whom? To various people to whom they were sent. In the case of Nūḥ, he was eventually sent to Misr. In the case of Ibrāhīm, he was sent among other places to Mecca and other places. “And we assigned within their combined progeny” ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا a combined progeny. A progeny that came from both of them. What does that mean? That means when their progeny is intermixed. The results were prophethood and Kitab, ٱلنُّبُوَّةَ وَٱلْكِتَٰبَ. So, the prophethood and the message of the scripture or the scripture. “And thus among them are those who seek guidance, and many of them are deviants”. And therefore, this is not a promise that all of them are good.

Allahh (swt) selected from their combined progeny ٱلنُّبُوَّةَ prophets. What does that say? That means every time you find a prophet mentioned in the Qurʿān, it must be by definition coming from both. So, those who claim that there are prophets of Banī Issrāʿīl coming only from YaƐqūb, that's bogus. That's not true. They're all mixed lineage. Their DNA have been mixed again and again and again, as we saw in Sūrah Ale-Ɛimrān ذُرِّيَّةً بَعْضُهَا مِنْ بَعْضٍ they kept intermarrying. And every time they intermarry, sometimes they end up with prophets. That's the truth. So, this confirms that ذُرِّيَّةً بَعْضُهَا مِنْ بَعْضٍ is exactly what this ayat (57:65) is talking about. ٱصْطَفَىٰٓ “selected” that means gave them Nabuwa and Kitab in their combined progeny.

Now you see how the methodology is absolutely beautiful. It's stunning that it confirms all of these ayats together. Maybe this subject is not that interesting to you, but it confirms that the methodology yields really useful information. And therefore, every time the Quran mentions a Nabyi, we should know it is from the combined progeny of both of these men Ibrāhīm and Nūḥ.

Does the Qurʿān ever refer to Ibrāhīm being of the progeny of Nūḥ?

Answer: No!

Well, they told us that Ibrāhīm is a descendant of Nūḥ. No, it's not true. That's not what the Qurʿān says. Watch this. Does the Qurʿān ever refer to Ibrāhīm being the progeny of Nūḥ? The answer is no. As a matter of fact, there is a clear idea that tells us in addition to what we just saw from Sūrah Aṣ-ṣāffāt

سَلَٰمٌ عَلَىٰ نُوحٍ فِى ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ ﴿37:79﴾ إِنَّا كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِى ٱلْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿37:80﴾ إِنَّهُۥ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا ٱلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿37:81﴾ ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا ٱلْءَاخَرِينَ ﴿37:82﴾ وَإِنَّ مِن شِيعَتِهِۦ لَإِبْرَٰهِيمَ ﴿37:83﴾ - الصّافّات

Exclusivity (in direct guidance from Allahh was granted) upon Nūḥ, in the way of all the realms. This is how we recompense those who seek insight. He is among our believing wayfarers. But then (later) we 'drowned' the others. And indeed, among his faction (who followed his creed and method) was Ibrāhīm!

Exclusivity remember Salam, we will talk a lot more about this in the future, but for now Salam that means the exclusive connection you and Allahh (swt), or one-on-one between you and Allahh (swt). In this case between Nūḥ and Allah (swt). So there was a direct connection; it's called Salam "exclusivity" in direct connection "from Allahh (swt) was granted upon Nūḥ in the way of all the realms". That means in the way that the Allahh (swt) would make it facilitated to every type of classification in this universe. "This is how we recompense those who seek insight إِنَّا كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِى ٱلْمُحْسِنِينَ. He is among our believing wayfarers, but then later we "drowned" the others. Drowned is between single quotes. Leave it aside. We will deal with it Insha'Allah in a future time.

"And indeed, among his faction" وَإِنَّ مِن شِيعَتِهِۦ. Remember شِيعَتِهِۦ is faction. It's one of the locutions of Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ , as we just saw a little earlier and I skimmed over it, I told you, you can read it on your own. شِيعَتِهِۦ does not mean his progeny. So, we saw the word شِيعَتِهِۦ in the story of Al-Qassas of Mūssā and Mūssā was from this شِيعَتِهِۦ. There was an enemy from another شِيعَتِهِۦ faction, just divisions of some sort. So Ibrāhīm was from the شِيعَتِهِۦ of Nūḥ. That means there were other شِيعَتِهِۦ against Nūḥ within Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ and that's what we understood. Now we understand why Ale-Ɛimrān are not necessarily good people. But Ibrāhīm was not necessarily from his progeny, but from his شِيعَتِهِۦ. That means he learned from some of the good people who follow Nūḥ. That's what it means, who follow his creed and method. Ibrāhīm was from that good faction who truly follow Nūḥ.

Does the Quran mention any prophet Nabyi who is not from the combined progeny of Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm?

Answer: No!

This is the clear indication of the ayat (57:26) that we saw a little earlier وَجَعَلْنَا فِى ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا . This is exclusivity. That's why it's brought forth. So, if Allahh (swt) says, if we move this like this, I'm not changing the ayat. I'm just showing you as an example, wa-jaʿalnā nubuwwata wa-l-kitāba fī dhurriyyatihimā. That means it's not exclusive. But because this was brought forth, that means it's exclusive in their combined progeny. So, prophet hood is exclusively in their combined progeny. That means every time you see a prophet, it must be from a combination of Nūḥ and Ibrāhīm.

And when we read about Prophet Mohamed (saws) now we understand that he has two horns "Zul Qarnayn". He comes from two different progenies. Allahh (swt) is confirming that he is partly from Nūḥ and various descendants that came from Nūḥ and partly from Ibrāhīm various descendants that came from Ibrāhīm. Maybe they met with Mohammad somewhere.

How about Iss-Hāq and YaƐqūb? Iss-Hāq and YaƐqūb are the children of one woman from Ibrāhīm. Yes, but the mother was from the people of Ale-Ɛimrān ءَالَ عِمْرَٰنَ . In other words, from the progeny of Nūḥ, as we saw. Both of them were from the same mother and the Quran describes her as Ibrāhīm's woman. Iss-Hāq and YaƐqūb mother was from Ale-Ɛimrān. Ibrāhīm on one side, the woman from the descendants of Nūḥ also Ale-Ɛimrān. That's why I believe Nūḥ is Ɛimrān. They became prophets. Both of them Iss-Hāq nabyi and YaƐqūb Nabyi.

No, we don't know her name. Don't tell me what her name is. Don't believe what the corrupted version of the Torah says. And yes, that means there was no Sarah, there was no other woman. Absolutely not. Cannot be, cannot possibly be. As I showed you that every prophet who came after the Ibrāhīm must have come from two progenies. One coming from Nūḥ one coming from Ibrāhīm. Unless you tell me that he married a second woman, a different woman who was also from Ale-Ɛimrān. And he also had prophets from her that's possible. But the Quran doesn't tell us anything like this. Therefore, we don't accept any possibility that he married so-called noble woman that is not from Misr. The only one who married is from Misr. It must be that his woman who carry Iss-Hāq and who carry YaƐqūb was from Misr. It must be, this is what the Quran is telling us. That's how wrong they are in their stories. So only the woman of Ibrāhīm, the mother of both Iss-Hāq and YaƐqūb who was from Ɛimrān. That's all we know about. We don't know her name and we don't know any other woman.

Why Did Allahh Leave us for 1400 Years?

Is it possible that 1400 years and we are left without truly understanding the Qurʿān?

Answer: Yes!

Now, why did Allahh (swt) leave us? This is a question I get all the time. Look, we just read about the people of Ɛimrān who are left behind after the Mūssā and his followers exited from Misr. What did Allahh (swt) says فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ ٱلسَّمَآءُ The layers of understanding the heavens never cried over them. Meaning we never gave them any direct sustenance, any guidance.

So, who are we Muslims to say, no, we're special people. If we belied the Qurʿān, if we refused to believe the Qurʿān, or if some of our ancestors did that, who are we to say that the Allahh (swt) did not do the same thing as he did to those who are left behind in Misr after Banī Issrāʿīl left. We just read it. So Allahh (swt) in Sūrah Al-A'raf tells us

وَٱلَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِـَٔايَٰتِنَا سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُم مِّنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿7:182﴾ وَأُمْلِى لَهُمْ إِنَّ كَيْدِى مَتِينٌ ﴿7:183﴾ - الأعراف

As for those who belie our ayats: We shall lure them from whence they do not have evidence-based knowledge (i.e., from whence they make claims without evidence from Allahh). And I shall delay them: My plot is impenetrable!

As for those who belie our ayats: We shall lure them from whence they do not have evidence-based knowledge. In other words, based on their imagined assumptions and presumptions and false erroneous biases, we shall pull them to drown further and deeper in those kinds of thoughts. “We shall lure them from whence” meaning by the way they erroneously think. Why? Because they belie our ayats. They don't want to accept the ayats from the Qurʿān. They don't want to accept the truth.

So, when we read (3:44) ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ أَنۢبَآءِ ٱلْغَيْبِ, these stories have never been exposed before you. None of you knew about them before the Qurʿān revealed them. They say, no, no, no. We're going to go get them from the Torah. We're going to go get them from the Injīl. I'm still receiving people today on the comments stream and in private emails, insisting that the current Injīl or the current Torah are the correct ones. We have professors of Islamic studies in Islamic universities, in the U.S who have done their PhDs to prove that the current gospel, this and this or that and that are valid and are confirming of the Qurʿān. They don't get it. They don't understand that the Qur'an told us these books have been corrupted leave them alone. They have expired. We have the Qurʿān don't belie the Qurʿān. So, if we belie or our ancestors belied the ayat of the Qurʿān and we don't fix it, we deserve the same result.

Allahh (swt) tells us وَأُمْلِى لَهُمْ I shall delay them. You know give them more time, pull them further and further into their errancy, into their aberrance, into their abhorrent understanding. Their wrong erroneous understanding. Don't worry my plot is impenetrable. They cannot figure it out on their own without my guidance. This is what I keep telling you. This knowledge is from Allahh (swt). This knowledge is not because we are good. This knowledge is because we are submitting fully willingly and volitionally to the truth primarily from the Qurʿān, from the words of our Lord. When you submit and you apply the discipline, Al-Taqwa, the "Sirat al mustaqeem", the methodology of self-correction, Allahh (swt) will deliver its promise. We'll give you, we'll show you.

If we talk about it, those other people don't believe us unfortunately. Why? Because they're still belying the Qurʿān. That's why you have people who are still attacking me and criticizing me and criticizing you for believing the Qurʿān that clearly says Ɛīssā had a father. He came from a zygote. He came from a sperm. He came from a man. He could not have been done or created from poof, a woman without a man. No, no, no. Somebody says, may Allahh (swt) cut off your tongue for you're saying this, but I'm saying what the Qurʿān says. So, they are belying the Qurʿān. How could Allahh (swt) guide them?

In another AI from Sūrah Al-Qalam

فَذَرْنِى وَمَن يُكَذِّبُ بِهَٰذَا ٱلْحَدِيثِ سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُم مِّنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿68:44﴾ وَأُمْلِى لَهُمْ إِنَّ كَيْدِى مَتِينٌ ﴿68:45﴾ - القلم

(O Muḥammad! Don't worry!) And thus, let me deal with whoever belies this discourse (i.e., the stories of the Qurʿān): We shall lure them from whence they do not have evidence-based knowledge (i.e., from whence they make claims without evidence from Allahh). And I shall delay them: My plot is impenetrable!

"(O Muḥammad! Don't worry!) And thus, let me deal with whoever belies this discourse;" meaning Allahh (swt) will deal with them. Mohammed (saws) you just go ahead and recite publicly everything you are told to recite. Recite all of the ayats from the Qurʿān. Don't worry about them. The stories of the Qurʿān shall be recited. Allahh (swt) will take care of dealing with whoever belies this discourse. We shall lure them, same ordering, from whence they do not have evidence-based knowledge. In other words, if they accept knowledge that has no evidence from the Qurʿān, then Allahh (swt) will use that knowledge to pull them further and further into deeper errancy and aberrance and wrong ways of thinking i.e., from whence they make claims without evidence from Allahh (swt). Allahh (swt) continues I shall delay them.

My plot is impenetrable. Mateen is really strong. No one can crack it without my permission, without Allahh's (swt) permission.

So how come we have access to these details now?

Because the principles of the methodology stand on not belying anything from the Qurʿān. We believe everything in the Qurʿān. We follow "al sirat al mustaqeem" the methodology of self-correction to make sure we don't make mistakes and remain patient willing to receive. Empty our cup as I keep saying, allow Allahh (swt) to fill us in with new information, with new knowledge, with new understanding. This is called Taqwa, discipline and Allahh (swt) confirms this in Sūrah Al-Baqarah

وَٱتَّقُوا ٱللَّهَ وَيُعَلِّمُكُمُ ٱللَّهُ وَٱللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَىْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿2:282﴾ - البقرة

And have discipline with regards to (engaging the words of) Allahh, and Allahh shall teach you, and Allahh is the provider of evidence-based knowledge of everything (in the scripture).

"And have discipline with regards to engaging the words of Allahh (swt). And Allahh (swt) shall teach you". Trust Allahh (swt). It says it right here وَيُعَلِّمُكُمُ ٱللَّهُ Allahh (swt) will teach you. Allahh (swt) is a provider of evidence-based knowledge of everything in this scripture.

With this, we have come to the end of the segment, please don't forget to pick up the notes after subscribing to the website. At the end of the notes, there's this long appendix, which is really useful. I expect you to read it and benefits from it Insha'Allah and I expect you to write me via email if you have some private questions. I gave you a lot of hints. I gave you a lot of new knowledge in this segment. I apologize if it's a little long for some of you, but I hope you have benefited Insha'Allah.

We would continue with future parts of this series. Please note that we're taking two weeks off, two weeks off. I need to catch up with some urgent things that I've left behind for a long time. I've left lagging. So please accept my apology in advance. There will be two weeks off. We will come back after the first week in January of the next year Insha'Allah.

In the meantime, you have plenty of opportunities to review all of these segments that exist on the channel already. Insha'Allah, we will have more and more contact via the website. I thank all of you who are actively supporting either by volunteering your time and skills or by contributing financially or at least by making Duaa. Please don't forget to help us in any way you can. Spread the word Insha’Allah this project is on a great path to success by the will of Allahh (swt) we make the duua.

ٱلۡحَمۡدُ لِلَّهِ ٱلَّذِي هَدَىٰنَا لِهَٰذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لِنَهۡتَدِيَ لَوۡلَآ أَنۡ هَدَىٰنَا ٱللَّهُۖ لَقَدۡ جَآءَتۡ رُسُلُ رَبِّنَا بِٱلۡحَقِّۖ

Thank you very much for watching.
