Salaamun Alaykum,

Fair Warning: This segment will cause you to rethink everything you thought you knew. This segment includes explosive evidence released for the first time. Insha'Allah, you will come to learn how important and profound this methodology from the Qurʿān that we use for discovering the truth that Allahh (swt) revealed for us inside the Qur'an.

بِسۡمِ ٱللَّهِ ٱلرَّحۡمَٰنِ ٱلرَّحِيمِ

ٱلۡحَمۡدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ ٱلۡعَٰلَمِينَ

رَبِّ ٱشۡرَحۡ لِي صَدۡرِي وَيَسِّرۡ لِيٓ أَمۡرِي وَٱحۡلُلۡ عُقۡدَةٗ مِّن لِّسَانِي يَفۡقَهُواْ قَوۡلِي

In this segment, we will answer this important question "Has Jesus returned already?" What Returned already? Insha'Allah, we will see the evidence from the Qur'an. Be ready to unlearn everything you thought you knew. Be ready to approach the Qur'an with a fully empty cup. I mean fully empty cup; everything you thought you knew needs to be pushed aside. And we need to focus specifically on the Qur'an. We will provide evidence from the Qur'an directly, that will leave you speechless. Insha'Allah, it will give you a chance to reflect the aww and the beauty and the amazing discoveries that this methodology enables us based on analyzing the Qur'an correctly, using a Al Sirat Mustaqeem ٱلصِّرَٰطَ ٱلۡمُسۡتَقِيمَ; the methodology for self-correction.

Just a quick reminder. This is part six of the series Ɛīssā son of Maryam. This is part six. So, there are five other parts that have come before this one. If you have not watched the other parts, there is definite chance that you will not understand anything in this segment. I highly encourage you to learn how we extract methodical Qur'anic evidence away from the myth and the legend and the false floors and the fables and all sorts of speculations that were told to us about Ɛīssā son of Maryam.

We base our interpretation and translation exclusively on the Abrahamic Locution. Which is a way of extracting the meanings of the words and the meanings of the expressions from within the Qur'an. We don't make it up. We don't have to look at up depending upon what the Arab authors or the Arab poets of the seventh century decided that's how they want it to understand the Qur'an. We use the Organic Quranic Methodology, which to remind you is fully extracted from inside the Qur'an. We don't make it up. We don't follow the steps of any human made type of methodology. And we let the truth take us where it leads us. We allow the Qur'an to teach us. We don't approach the Qur'an with presupposed ideas, with preconceived notions, with wishful thinking or fancy opinions that we want the Qur'an on to tell us. We let the Qur'an lead us where it wants to lead us. We rely on Allahh (swt) to provide us the understanding of his own signs and his own ayats in the Qur'an.

Please do not ask questions or criticize unless you have watched the whole segment plus all prior parts in this series. Comments that we receive that indicate you have not watched the full series or that you don't understand what the Abrahamic Locution is or the Organic Methodology that we use, which is extracted from the Qur'an, such comments will be swiftly deleted.

This channel is for teaching. It is not for entertainment. It is not for allowing people who hate the engagement of the Qur'an to attack us frivolously. This channel is specifically for people who are really looking to learn from the Qur'an based on these two principles that we just outlined right here.

I remind you that the notes for this segment are available. If you visit the website, www.marvelousquran.org. If you subscribe, you will have access to the notes and you will have a lot of different free gifts that we provide even to our free subscribers.

In this segment

In this segment Insha'Allah, we will cover a lot of material. This is a very important segment. As I mentioned.

1. We will start with some reviews and reminders very briefly. Reminding you of some key concepts that we've discussed before and we will give you references. If you don't understand these concepts, please go back and watch the earlier segments in this series as I mentioned.
2. We also provide clear Qur'anic evidence regarding Ɛīssā's return; return of Jesus. This is evidence that's presented for the very first time. No one has told you about such evidence and you will see it with your own eyes. We will allow the Qur'an to teach us, to lead us, to tell us exactly what Allahh (swt) is trying to tell us.
3. Six pieces of evidence will be presented to answer the question has Ɛīssā already returned? Already returned? Yes, you will see. The Tayr is bringing you six Jannah. If you don't understand what I just said that means you don't belong watching the segment. Please stop and watch the earlier parts in this series and go back and learn about the locution before you allow yourself to watch the rest of the segment.
4. We will also provide a discussion regarding the famous ayat وَإِنَّهُۥ لَعِلۡمٌ لِّلسَّاعَةِ ayat 43:61.

5. We will also discuss the various Hadeeths on Ɛīssā's return.
6. At the end, I will provide a personal declaration regarding this matter. This is something you definitely don't want to miss. I urge you to patiently watch through the whole segment and listen to this declaration.
7. Finally, I will discuss what to do with this type of information.

This is a very important segment. Please find a cozy corner, comfortable corner. Find the time to focus. Grab your pen, paper and your journal. As I always recommend to make some notes, to document some questions as you go. And Insha'Allah, we will have a useful time in the company of the Tayr Insha'Allah, learning what the evidence from the Qur'an teach us about this subject.

4 Keys to understand the story of 3īssā

We start with four keys to understand the story of a Ɛīssā.

1. The first key is that the Qur'an confirmed to us that all those who argued about Ɛīssā were wrong. Let me repeat it. All those, every single person who argued about the Ɛīssā without referring to the Qur'an has been declared wrong erroneous by the Qur'an. We will discuss this a little bit more in detail, but for reference see aya 18:4-5 & aya 4:157. As I said, we will discuss it in a little bit more detail in a few minutes Insha'Allah.
2. The second principle or key is that the name "Ɛīssā ibn Maryam" is the wiped meaning erased name. It's not the real name that's given to Ɛīssā later on. Ɛīssā was later given a more praiseworthy name; Ahmad "more praiseworthy". Referred to part 3 of this series for a detailed discussion if you have not figured out what I'm talking about.
3. Principle number three, he was made a counter example for Banī Issrāʿīl. مَثَلاً لِبَنِي إِسْرَاءِيل this letter lam, right here indicates that he was a counterexample. Meaning an example against the erroneous beliefs and creeds they have. We discussed this in full in part 2 of this series. Again, if you don't understand what this concept and principle is, please go back and watch the earlier parts in the series.
4. Finally, principle number four, the proper understanding of Ɛīssā's story is a prerequisite for "the hour" السَّاعة. You don't understand what the السَّاعة is. We will discuss it in a little bit of detail and we will elaborate on this in a future segment. But for now in this segment, we will discuss it a little later and we will elaborate exactly what this ayat 43:61 is all about. And you're going to be amazed that people have totally, totally missed what this ayat is talking about.

Warning against Belying the signs in the Qurʿān!

With this, we move immediately into a reminder, a warning from the Qur'an that all of those who thought they understood the story of Ɛīssā really did not understand it. We've discussed this in the segment titled “YT 47 How much confidence do you have in the Qur'an?” Please refer back to it if you want the full discussion.

But in summary ayat 18:4 and 18:5 clearly tell us

وَيُنذِرَ ٱلَّذِينَ قَالُوا ٱتَّخَذَ ٱللَّهُ وَلَدًا ﴿18:4﴾ مَّا لَهُم بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ وَلَا لِآبَآئِهِمْ كَبُرَتْ كَلِمَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَفْوَٰهِهِمْ إِن يَقُولُونَ إِلَّا كَذِبًا ﴿18:5﴾ - الكهف

(The Qurʿān was sent) To warn those who claimed that Allahh has taken an intermediary as a son (18:4) They have no knowledge about him (Ɛīssā), and neither did their forefathers. Conceited is that word that comes out of their mouths. Everything they say is but lies (18:5)

The Qur'an was sent to warn those who claimed that Allahh (swt) has taken an intermediary as a son, referring to Ɛīssā of course and others, as we will see in future segments. This was ayat 18:4. Ayat 18:5 continues. They have no knowledge about him. No knowledge, no knowledge, nothing, and then continues. And neither did their forefathers.

If you believe the Qur'an, you have to give up everything you thought you knew based on the corrupted earlier scriptures. Based on what they taught us from the past generations before our beloved (saws). Based on any other source except the Qur'an. Except the Qur'an and I mean it. Because the books of Tafseers, even the books of Hadeeths contain a lot of Israeliyet, references and narrations and stories and reports that were brought from the people of Banī Issrāʿīl and from the Christians who existed either after Islam or before Islam. Therefore, their sources are wrong in accordance with these ayats. We have to internalize the Qur'anic principles and live them and allow ourselves to just restrict ourselves to what the Qur'an teaches us.

The Qur'an is clearly telling us, as it continues with this ayat “conceited is that word that comes out of their mouths”. Everything they say is but lies in إِن يَقُولُونَ إِلَّا كَذِبًا This form of the negation is the strongest form of negation in the Qur'an. They say nothing but lies everything they say. Therefore, the only source of information is from the Qur'an.

Further warning against believing those who guess about Ɛīssās story:

Another warning that comes to us in ayat 4:157 from Sūrah Al-Nisā, we will deal with this ayat specifically a lot more in the future segments on this series. But for now, I just want to remind you that one significant part of this is dedicated to this declaration.

وَقَوْلِهِمْ إِنَّا قَتَلْنَا ٱلْمَسِيحَ عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ رَسُولَ ٱللَّهِ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ وَمَا صَلَبُوهُ وَلَٰكِن شُبِّهَ لَهُمْ وَإِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ لَفِى شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ مَا لَهُم بِهِۦ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِلَّا ٱتِّبَاعَ ٱلظَّنِّ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ يَقِينًا ﴿4:157﴾ - النساء

… and those who have disagreed about him are in great doubt about him: They have no knowledge of him, except following the guesses…

This ayat is clearly talking about Al Masseh Ɛīssā Ibn Maryam. “These people are in great doubt about him”. They themselves doubt what they claim and what they say and what they narrate about him. The Qur'an continues and declares. They have no knowledge of him except following their guesses, their speculations, their empty claims, Allahh (swt) is very clear. So, we have to ask very significant questions in this segment. Do we believe anything we were told? Because everything we were told came from their sources. Remember even our books of Tafseers literally brought from their sources and over imposed their explanations over the Qur'anic stories. It is not what the Qur'an is saying as you will see with your own eyes.

Even his so-called followers, the Christians in various dominations. Yes. Even his so-called followers. They all have disagreed about him. Therefore, the Qur'an is telling us anyone who presented opinions upon which there were disagreements about Ɛīssā are not telling the truth. They're just providing speculation. So, what do we do? We refer back to the Qur'an. That's the only source we have where the Quran tells us some information, we accept it. Where the Qur'an stops and does not provide us the information, we refrain from talking about it. Because the Qur'an told us exactly what we needed to do.

There are some things that Qur'an did not say, and therefore we don't venture and supplement what the Qur'an said with additional speculations. This is the discipline. This is the methodology of self-correction. This is how Allahh (swt) recognizes you as one of the believers who abstains from going beyond what Allahh (swt) told you. Therefore, if we are to receive the direct guidance and understanding from Allahh (swt), we need to have the self-discipline and the self-correction in our methodology.

Reminder: 3īssā did not perform miracles!

Now we continue with another reminder did the 3īssā perform miracles? We answered this question very clearly in part five of this series Insha'Allah, you will refer back to it. It is titled "YT 89 What were the true miracles of Jesus according to the Qur'an?" And the answer is no, he did not perform any miracles. There was one ayat وَجِئْتُكُم بِـَٔايَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ I brought you one sign. That's clearly what the Qur'an says. Allahh (swt) confirmed that Jesus brought one sign, not many miracles. Therefore, when we subject ourselves to the limitations given to us in the Qur'an, we understand the truth. We don't swim in speculation and wishful thinking.

Is there additional evidence? Yes. Further evidence from the Qur'an is included in Sūrah Al Hajj, Sūrah 22 ayat 73, Allahh (swt) tells us.

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ ضُرِبَ مَثَلٌ فَٱسْتَمِعُوا لَهُ إِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِ ٱللَّهِ لَن يَخْلُقُوا ذُبَابًا وَلَوِ ٱجْتَمَعُوا لَهُ وَإِن يَسْلُبْهُمُ ٱلذُّبَابُ شَيْـًٔا لَّا يَسْتَنقِذُوهُ مِنْهُ ضَعُفَ ٱلطَّالِبُ وَٱلْمَطْلُوبُ ﴿22:73﴾ - الحج

Those whom you worship as intermediaries between you and Allahh shall not create a fly, even if they all consented to it (such claim)

I will translate only a part of this. They whom they worship as intermediaries between you and Allahh (swt) shall not create a fly, even if they all consented to it. وَلَوِ ٱجْتَمَعُوا لَهُ even if they all consented to it. What do you mean? Well, the Qur'an is telling us, even if they all agreed, even if all the Christians came together and believed that Jesus is to be taken as an intermediary, they will not change the fact. The fact is Allahh (swt) telling us anybody they take as intermediaries did not create even a fly, even a single fly. So, is this an important example for us? Yes. Pay attention to this expression. يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ ضُرِبَ مَثَلٌ. This same expression it's provided for us in Sūrah Al-Zukhruf, Sūrah 43 Allahh (swt) tells us

وَلَمَّا ضُرِبَ ٱبْنُ مَرْيَمَ مَثَلًا إِذَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْهُ يَصِدُّونَ ﴿43:57﴾ وَقَالُوٓا ءَأَٰلِهَتُنَا خَيْرٌ أَمْ هُوَ مَا ضَرَبُوهُ لَكَ إِلَّا جَدَلًا بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ خَصِمُونَ ﴿43:58﴾ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا عَبْدٌ أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَيْهِ وَجَعَلْنَٰهُ مَثَلًا لِّبَنِىٓ إِسْرَٰٓءِيلَ ﴿43:59﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَآءُ لَجَعَلْنَا مِنكُم مَّلَٰٓئِكَةً فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ يَخْلُفُونَ ﴿43:60﴾ وَإِنَّهُۥ لَعِلْمٌ لِّلسَّاعَةِ فَلَا تَمْتَرُنَّ بِهَا وَٱتَّبِعُونِ هَٰذَا صِرَٰطٌ مُّسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿43:61﴾ وَلَا يَصُدَّنَّكُمُ ٱلشَّيْطَٰنُ إِنَّهُۥ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِينٌ ﴿43:62﴾ - الزخرف

Here we go مَثَلًا لِّ "Masalan Lee", a counterexample to Banī Issrāʿīl. Again, this ayat (22:73) is confirming this ayat (43:59) with a unique marking. The verb ضُرِبَ مَثَلٌ occurs only twice in the Qur'an. This is a unique marking exclusive marking of the highest order of the highest significance. Allahh (swt) is telling us that the example given in this ayat 43:57 is the example that is given to people earlier in this ayat from Sūrah Al-Hajj. And then Allahh (swt) is confirming that person whom they take as intermediary between them and Allahh (swt) does not create. Does not create even a fly. So therefore, it's very clear.

The Qur'an gives us the information. If we let it lead us to the truth. Allahh (swt) confirmed that this ضُرِبَ مَثَلٌ is an exclusive marking clearly demonstrating that Ɛīssā did not create anything. Therefore, all those interpretations of ayat 5:110 from Sūrah Al-Mā'idah that talked about Ɛīssā creating birds and blowing into them and all of this stuff is bogus. The Qur'an rejects these interpretations in its own clear indications, as we just saw.

Reminder: Linguistic Analysis of المَائِدَة Al-Māʿidah

Now we move to another reminder, the linguistic analysis of المَائِدَة Al-Māʿidah, which is the word given to Sūrah five in the Qur'an المَائِدَة Al-Māʿidah. In segment YT 77, we discussed the question "Were Jesus's disciples mentioned in the Qur'an?". We conclusively reached the conclusion that no, they were not discussed. 'Ḥawāriy-yūn' are not the disciples. To the contrary, they were people who rejected Ɛīssā and who played tricks and games and plotted against the Ɛīssā. As we demonstrated in that segment. Again, please go back and watch it if you have not seen that segment. It's a phenomenally important segment to understand this current segment.

In that segment, we discussed that المَائِدَة or مَائِدَة as a word, as a term is the active participle إسم فاعل in the feminine form إسم فاعل مؤنَّث from the gerund or the root مَيَدَ to sway, to confuse, to shift, to give implications that are not real. Therefore Allahh (swt) told us that المَائِدَة Al-Māʿidah is something that may cause confusion. It is the Qur'an. Why do we say it is the Qur'an? Because the Qur'an describes itself Allahh (swt) told us

إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ لَا يَسْتَحْيِۦٓ أَن يَضْرِبَ مَثَلًا مَّا بَعُوضَةً فَمَا فَوْقَهَا فَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا فَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّهُ ٱلْحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّهِمْ وَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَيَقُولُونَ مَاذَآ أَرَادَ ٱللَّهُ بِهَٰذَا مَثَلًا يُضِلُّ بِهِۦ كَثِيرًا وَيَهْدِى بِهِۦ كَثِيرًا وَمَا يُضِلُّ بِهِۦٓ إِلَّا ٱلْفَٰسِقِينَ ﴿2:26﴾ - البقرة

… With this declaration, he (Allahh) misguides many and guides many…

The Qur'an is not an elementary school book. Please get it through your head. The Qur'an is a very advanced piece of literature if you want to call it that way. Like all other pieces of literature, it requires a lot of thinking and it could be confusing to people who make the wrong assumptions about it. It is not for elementary school. It is not for an eight-year-old as some people have been claiming. It is not so simple that anybody can understand it. No, that's not true. The Qur'an is for all times and all peoples and all nations, and it will be forever revealing its depth and its secrets and its new knowledge. Therefore, no one can claim that with a simple interpretation based on some dictionaries and in some Google searches you can understand exactly what it's saying. That's not true. The Qur'an has a lot of depth and it is liable to be misunderstood. And therefore, if you approach the Qur'an with the wrong intentions and with the wrong assumptions Allah (swt) will misguide you with the Qur'an. As you see right in front of your eyes. If you don't accept this then your knowledge about the Qur'an is really amateurish, is really superficial, is really childish. You don't really belong explaining the Qur'an to anyone. So please go back and learn and study the Qur'an and understand how these issues are discussed in the Qur'an.

As we discussed in the segment, YT 77, we provided details from. Sūrah Al-Nahl 16:15.

وَأَلْقَىٰ فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ رَوَٰسِىَ أَن تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ وَأَنْهَٰرًا وَسُبُلًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ ﴿16:15﴾ - النحل

And he (Allahh) provided in the scripture anchors, lest it causes you to sway…

Allahh (swt) laid down in ٱلْأَرْضِ in this scripture anchors رَوَٰسِىَ and أَن تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ lest it causes you to sway. In other words, the Qur'an provides these principles. If you find them and apply them, the Qur'an is not a مَيَدَ Mā'idah for you. The Qur'an does not sway does not lead you in the wrong direction. But without these principles, you can easily be misled.

One of these principles is that you give up what you thought you knew before entering the Qur'an. You provide full submission to Allahh (swt) before entering to engage the Qur'an.

This is another ayat from Sūrah Luqmān, very similar terminology, 31:10 from Sūrah Luqmān.

خَلَقَ ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا وَأَلْقَىٰ فِى ٱلْأَرْضِ رَوَٰسِىَ أَن تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ وَبَثَّ فِيهَا مِن كُلِّ دَآبَّةٍ وَأَنزَلْنَا مِنَ ٱلسَّمَآءِ مَآءً فَأَنۢبَتْنَا فِيهَا مِن كُلِّ زَوْجٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿31:10﴾ - لقمان

And he (Allahh) provided in the scripture anchors, lest it causes you to sway…

So duaa from Ɛīssā in Sūrah Al-Mā'idah that we discussed again in this segment YT 77. The duaa of Ɛīssā was for Allahh (swt) to make accessible a second time upon the last one of the messengers a scripture that could cause confusion to the rejectors. The rejectors, not the believers. Therefore, if you really submit, and you are a true believer in the veracity and the integrity and the completion of the Qur'an, then you would not be misled, but with guide the true believers as I just described.

Therefore, المَائِدَة Al-Māʿidah is the Qur'an. We discussed this before. I just remind you for the sake of completeness on this segment. This is the paragraph from Sūrah Al-Māʿidah, where Allahh (swt) completed that paragraph by saying,

قَالَ اللَّهُ إِنِّي مُنَزِّلُهَا عَلَيْكُمْ فَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بَعْدُ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنِّي أُعَذِّبُهُ عَذَابًا لَا أُعَذِّبُهُ أَحَدًا مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿5:115﴾ - المائدة

Allahh said: "I shall be making it accessible to you repeatedly, but then, whoever among you rejects afterwards, I shall punish him a punishment unlike any punishment I deal to anyone else."

قَالَ اللَّهُ إِنِّي مُنَزِّلُهَا Allahh (swt) said I shall be making it accessible to you repeatedly. In other words, in segments or in portions, or again. Therefore Allahh (swt) made that promise. And Allahh (swt) does not lie. This is one of the critical principles of the methodology. Therefore, Allahh (swt) promise Ɛīssā to make accessible Al-Māʿidah, as we said, Al-Māʿidah is the Qur'an. Otherwise, when did this happen? Ah, when did this happen? Perhaps not during the first time Ɛīssā was on this earth. Now you're starting to think. Now you're starting to link things and understand how the Quran gives you clues so that you can go search for them and engage the Qur'an in earnest.

Is it possible that some messengers or prophets were killed?

Now we ask a very important question. Is it possible that some messengers or prophets were killed? Many scholars today on the internet and on YouTube and in various books that are published during the last 1400 years, told us that no, Allahh (swt) protects the messengers and Allahh (swt) protects the prophets. That's not true. Allahh (swt) told us very clearly that he takes from them martyrs and Allahh (swt) gave us a clear example. The ayat from 2:259, the man who died 100 years, we said that was Yaya, and we gave the evidence for this. Refer to the series on Sūrah 3abassa segments YT60-YT63. We clearly explained. The Qur'an clearly tells us that this man died for 100 years. Allahh (swt) brought him back to life. Not only brought him back to life, but gave us physical signs for him to look at where it's clear that this bringing back to life is physical. It is not metaphorical. It's not a figure of speech.

Therefore Allahh (swt) clearly gave us an example of at least one prophet. And as I discussed in this series on Sūrah 3abassa he was killed. Therefore, the Qur'an told us that some messengers or prophets were killed. Not only this, but even for our beloved (saws), there is an ayat that allows for that possibility. The ayat from Sūrah Āl-Ɛimrān 144.

وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ أَفَإِين مَّاتَ أَوْ قُتِلَ ٱنقَلَبْتُمْ عَلَىٰٓ أَعْقَٰبِكُمْ وَمَن يَنقَلِبْ عَلَىٰ عَقِبَيْهِ فَلَن يَضُرَّ ٱللَّهَ شَيْـًٔا وَسَيَجْزِى ٱللَّهُ ٱلشَّٰكِرِينَ ﴿3:144﴾ - آل عمران

Muḥammad is but a messenger before whom all messengers have gone. Should he die or be killed, will you then turn about on your heels? …

وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ أَفَإِين مَّاتَ أَوْ قُتِلَ this is discussing Muhammad our beloved (saws). Muhammad is the messenger before whom all messengers have gone. Should he die or be killed? Allahh (swt) would not have put “be killed” if it was not a real possibility. Allahh (swt) does not make mistakes. This is not random or arbitrary filling in as if Allahh (swt) astugfirullah is a poet. Allahh (swt) means what he says. So, if this is a possibility, that means it is a possibility. Therefore, is it possible that some messengers or prophets may be killed or were killed? Absolutely. Absolutely there is nothing in the Qur'an that goes against this. Therefore, Allahh (swt) answers this question in the affirmative.

Did the Qurʻān tell us exactly how any of the messengers or prophets died?

Here we asked another question did the Qur'an tell us exactly how any of the messengers or prophets died. And the answer is no. Not even our own beloved (saws) or Ɛīssā or Mūssā or Ibrāhīm or any of the messengers or prophets we were told how they died. So, let's put these speculations aside and restrict ourselves to what Allahh (swt) taught us about ghyab about the undisclosed type of information. If Allahh (swt) wanted to keep it as undisclosed, we're not to go exploring and speculating and filling in the blank and making things up. If we have evidence from the Qur'an that Allahh (swt) told us something, we follow it. Otherwise, we remain quiet about it. We restrict ourselves; we are disciplined to what Allahh (swt) taught us.

Does the Qurʻān provide us evidence that some people may return, physically?

So now we deal with another question. Does the Qur'an provide us evidence that some people may return physically? I mean, physically. The answer is yes, as I just showed you from ayat 2:259 regarding the man who died 100 years, which we claim and proved, that it was Yahya. Therefore, when you go back and refer to this segment YT60-YT63, you will see the evidence for yourself.

Do we understand what "returning means"?

Do we understand what returning means and how it works? How exactly it actually takes place? The answer is absolutely No. So don't venture there. Don't go investigating what is called reincarnation based on some presupposed notions and fake speculations from other sources. Limit yourself to what Allahh (swt) told us. He told us it is possible. He gave us examples. He even allowed for the possibility that our own beloved (saws) may actually be killed. However, Allahh (swt) allowed it as a possibility. Therefore, we limit ourselves to that possibility and we stop. We don't go investigating things that Allahh (swt) did not tell us and kept as part of ghayb.

Clear Qurʻānic evidence regarding 3īssā's return

Now we move to beautiful evidences relating to our Ɛīssā's return. Ɛīssā's return based on the Qur'an. The Qur'an alone, we're not going to make things up based on this Hadeeth or this narration or this story, or this person said this or this generation believed this. We don't care about any of these things when the Qur'an is speaking. The Qur'an speaks we follow and we obey and we say this is what Allahh (swt) wants us to learn. So, we start from ayat 4:173. This evidence has never been presented before by anyone as far as we know in the documented history of Islamic tradition. The question is will Ɛīssā return? And the answer is provided in the Quran itself as you will see. Not only it's provided in the Qur'an, but the Qur'an calls it proof, evidence that is undeniable. Let me read the ayat and then you will decide for yourself.

لَّن يَسْتَنكِفَ ٱلْمَسِيحُ أَن يَكُونَ عَبْدًا لِّلَّهِ وَلَا ٱلْمَلَٰٓئِكَةُ ٱلْمُقَرَّبُونَ وَمَن يَسْتَنكِفْ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهِۦ وَيَسْتَكْبِرْ فَسَيَحْشُرُهُمْ إِلَيْهِ جَمِيعًا ﴿4:172﴾ فَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا۟ وَعَمِلُوا۟ ٱلصَّٰلِحَٰتِ فَيُوَفِّيهِمْ أُجُورَهُمْ وَيَزِيدُهُم مِّن فَضْلِهِۦ وَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ٱسْتَنكَفُوا۟ وَٱسْتَكْبَرُوا۟ فَيُعَذِّبُهُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا وَلَا يَجِدُونَ لَهُم مِّن دُونِ ٱللَّهِ وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا ﴿4:173﴾ - النساء

The wiped (erased) shall not refuse to be a wayfarer of Allahh, and neither shall the angels who are brought near (to him). And whoever refuses to engage in devotion to him (Allahh) and chooses to be conceited, then he (Allahh) shall assuredly compel them towards him, all of them. And as for those who believed, who toiled on the scripture (in accordance with the divine lexicon), then he (Allahh) will requite them their reward, and he (Allahh) will increase them from his benediction; and as for them who disdain, and choose to be conceited, them he will punish a painful punishment, and they shall not find for themselves, apart from Allahh, a patron or supporter.

I want you to focus on this highlighted part right here in yellow. The wiped or erased. Remember ٱلْمَسِيحُ means erased or wiped or not the name that stuck over time. That means it changed over time. So, the wiped or the erased one shall not refuse to be a wayfarer for Allahh (swt). Let's analyze this a little bit in a little bit more detail.

لَّن ”Lan” is an instrument for future action. This is well understood by everybody who knows Arabic. It is never applicable to the past. “Lan” is strictly for the future. يَسْتَنكِفَ “Yastankif” is a verb that implies today and the future also لَّن يَسْتَنكِفَ. Therefore, shall not refuse. Refuse to do what? أَن يَكُونَ عَبْدًا لِّلَّهِ a wayfarer for Allahh (swt). Some people may say, well, this is applying to the afterlife. No, in the afterlife, you don't have a choice. This verb in here لَّن يَسْتَنكِفَ clearly indicate that he will have a choice, but will not do so. In other words, he will not refuse. In other words, he had the chance to refuse or he has or will have the chance to refuse will have the chance to refuse, but will not refuse.

Clearly Allahh (swt) is telling us this is something about Ɛīssā in this life and this is something about Ɛīssā’s choice to fulfill Allahh’s (swt) instruction to him, and to be a wayfarer meaning an obedient “Abad” and obedient wayfarer in the way of Allahh (swt). وَلَا ٱلْمَلَٰٓئِكَةُ ٱلْمُقَرَّبُونَ and neither shall the angels who are brought near to him, meaning to Allahh (swt).

وَمَن يَسْتَنكِفْ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهِ وَيَسْتَكْبِرْ فَسَيَحْشُرُهُمْ إِلَيْهِ جَمِيعًا and whoever refuses to engage in devotion to him, to Allahh (swt) and chooses to be conceited, then he Allahh (swt) shall assuredly compelled them toward him. Well, this is a form of punishment or a form of reprisal or a form of requitting against those people for decisions they make for optional choices they were given. Therefore, this is indicating again, that لَّن يَسْتَنكِفَ is a choice he's making. During this life as human beings we're given that choice. So, it's very clear. This ayat is telling us about a choice Ɛīssā shall have in the future. Shall have in the future compared to what? Compared to when this ayat was revealed.

I apologize that electricity is flickering. We are suffering a significant storm. I'm sorry, but there's nothing I can do about it. I hope you are patient. I remind you one more time from Sūrah Al-Māʿidah 5:115, Allahh (swt) told Ɛīssā and the people around him قَالَ اللَّهُ إِنِّي مُنَزِّلُهَا عَلَيْكُمْ I shall be making it accessible to you repeatedly again and again. Therefore, it's not just one time. But the interesting part about this ayat is what comes after this. فَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بَعْدُ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنِّي أُعَذِّبُهُ عَذَابًا لَا أُعَذِّبُهُ أَحَدًا مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ but then whoever among you rejects afterwards, I shall punish him a punishment unlike any punishment ideal to anyone else. This language is very reminiscent of what came in this paragraph right here (4:173) فَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا ٱلصَّٰلِحَٰتِ فَيُوَفِّيهِمْ أُجُورَهُمْ وَيَزِيدُهُم مِّن فَضْلِهِۦ this language is very reminiscent of everything that applies to the Qur'an. Please pay attention.

وَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ٱسْتَنكَفُوا وَٱسْتَكْبَرُوا But as to those who disdain, who reject, who refuse and choose to be conceited, then he will punish them a painful punishment. Very similar language to this one (5:115). Is this direct evidence? No, of course not. But it tells us that this is the exact same description that was given to Ɛīssā when Allahh (swt) promised him that he will make accessible Al-Māʿidah. Therefore, now we start thinking Allahh (swt) fulfilled this promise إِنِّي مُنَزِّلُهَا عَلَيْكُمْ I shall make accessible that meant Māʿidah later, not necessarily during the days of Ɛīssā the first time he was on earth.

Has Jesus Returned Already? Evidence 1

Are these 2 ayats clear evidence that 3īssā already returned and completed his mission?

Now we move on to start presenting direct evidence, more convincing evidence so to speak. Has Jesus returned already? Evidence Number one. As you remember in the introduction, I told you, there will be six. So be patient be comfortable in listening, pay attention, stay focused. Most importantly, unlearn everything you thought you knew and listen, and watch. Just watch the ayats and allow the Qur'an to teach us. That's all I'm asking you. I'm not asking you to believe me. I'm asking you to look with your own eyes and watch how the Qur'an provides the evidence.

We start from a pair of ayat, a couple of ayat. The first one is from Sūrah Āl-Ɛimrān 3:144. We just saw it a few minutes earlier.

وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ أَفَإِين مَّاتَ أَوْ قُتِلَ ٱنقَلَبْتُمْ عَلَىٰٓ أَعْقَٰبِكُمْ وَمَن يَنقَلِبْ عَلَىٰ عَقِبَيْهِ فَلَن يَضُرَّ ٱللَّهَ شَيْـًٔا وَسَيَجْزِى ٱللَّهُ ٱلشَّٰكِرِينَ ﴿3:144﴾ - آل عمران

The second ayat is from Sūrah Al-Māʿidah 5:75.

مَّا ٱلْمَسِيحُ ٱبْنُ مَرْيَمَ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ وَأُمُّهُۥ صِدِّيقَةٌ كَانَا يَأْكُلَانِ ٱلطَّعَامَ ٱنظُرْ كَيْفَ نُبَيِّنُ لَهُمُ ٱلْآيَٰتِ ثُمَّ ٱنظُرْ أَنَّىٰ يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿5:75﴾ - المائدة

I want you to listen and watch the exact same expression. The amazing match between these two ayats leave you speechless. It must mean something indicative. Because as you remember the Qur'an does not have coincidences. Coincidences come from an imperfect author or an imperfect source. Allahh (swt) is perfect. He does not have coincidences. He could have chosen a different language. The fact that he used the exact same expression is a clear marking. It cannot be a coincidence. We should not brush it aside and move on as if we didn't see anything or notice anything. We do this kind of thing as the three monkeys. No, Allahh (swt) is giving us a clear pointer. We watch it. We observe it. We reflect on it and we hear it.

This marking is unique to Muhammad وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ. It is also unique to Al-Maseeh Ibn Maryam, Ɛīssā مَّا ٱلْمَسِيحُ ٱبْنُ مَرْيَمَ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ. So what does this expression mean? Let's look at some of the translators. I'm going to let them speak. I'm not going to make it up. I'm going to let you see how they change the meanings on purpose, perhaps to avoid dealing with the issue. The issue is very clear. The same description that is given to Muhammad is given to the son of Maryam. Very clear the language and the highlighted parts are right in front of your eyes. Therefore, we have to deal with this clear marking.

M.A.S Abdel Halim this is the Oxford translation.

M.A.S. Abdul Haleem:

- Muhammad is only a messenger before whom many messengers have been and gone. If he died or was killed, would you revert to your old ways? If anyone did so, he would not harm God in the least. God will reward the grateful. ﴾3:144﴿
- The Messiah, son of Mary, was only a messenger; other messengers had come and gone before him; his mother was a virtuous woman; both ate food [like other mortals]. See how clear We make these signs for them; see how deluded they are. ﴾5:75﴿

By the way, the blogging theology guy believes this is the highest form of translation and the best translation. And it's bogus. In my opinion, it is the worst translation that is available today. The worst, the absolute worst. I've seen so many mistakes in it and I'm just amazed that people actually believe this guy in his translation. I'm going to show you with your own eyes. So he says, "Muhammad is only a messenger before whom many messengers have been and gone" قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلِهِ ٱلرُّسُلُ that means they come and they've gone. Except one problem. Here the Arabic says Al-Russal the messengers; meaning all of them. The plural in here Abdel Halim says many messengers. Well, what happened to Alif Lam Altareef which means all, which means all of them. What happened to that one? He conveniently dropped it and replaced it with many meaning some messengers.

Well, what does that mean? Are there messengers coming after Muhammad? The answer is absolutely not according to the Qur'an. Therefore Al-Russal is clearly all messengers and yet he failed to recognize this simple fact. Why did he do this? Because he knew he would have a problem translating this other ayat right here (5:75), which used exactly the same language. So, what did he do regarding the Messiah? Again, this is his translation not mine. The Messiah, son of Mary was only a messenger; other messengers have come and gone before him. Here (3:144) he said many and here (5:75) he said other. Why did he make that choice? Who knows? It is wrong, obviously wrong. Because in both cases, it says exactly the same thing. It says all messengers have come and gone before him. Hmm that's exactly what it says. You don't believe me just watch.

We go to Sahih International. This is another translation, more modern translation.

Sahih International:

- Muhammad is not but a messenger. [Other] messengers have passed on before him. So if he was to die or be killed, would you turn back on your heels [to unbelief]? And he who turns back on his heels will never harm Allah at all; but Allah will reward the grateful. ﴿3:144﴾
- The Messiah, son of Mary, was not but a messenger; [other] messengers have passed on before him. And his mother was a supporter of truth. They both used to eat food. Look how We make clear to them the signs; then look how they are deluded. ﴿5:75﴾

The same thing in the first ayat they say other messengers. In the second ayat they say other messengers. Consistent. Great but wrong because the ayat in the Arabic language says Al-Russal; all the messages. Al-Russal, Al-Tareef the definite article, which means no room for doubt about what is this referring to?

Again you don't believe me. Watch what Mohammad Asad does.

Muhammad Asad:

- And Muhammad is only an apostle; all the [other] apostles have passed away before him: if, then, he die or is slain, will you turn about on your heels? But he that turns about on his heels can in no wise harm God – whereas God will requite all who are grateful [to Him]. ﴾3:144﴿
- The Christ, son of Mary, was but an apostle: all [other] apostles had passed away before him; and his mother was one who never deviated from the truth; and they both ate food [like other mortals]. Behold how clear We make these messages unto them: and then behold how perverted are their minds! ﴾5:75﴿

Muhammad Asad is another modern translator and what he did with the first ayat 3:144 Mohamad Asad says all the other apostles have passed away before him. He recognizes Al-Russal means all of them. He is consistent with regards to what he refers to as the Christ son of Mary, we don't call him the Christ. We call him the erased name and Al-Maseeh son of Mary was but an apostle in his language, by the way, that means messenger. All other apostles have passed away before him. He is consistent and he's very clear that the ayat is referring to all apostles Al- Russal.

What does that mean? Because the ayat is giving the exact same description for Muhammad (saws) and exact same description for the son of Maryam. Hmm. So those of you who know a little bit of math, listen to this example, and you will figure it out immediately. If I give you a list of people and I say the very last person in this list is wearing a green jacket. And then later on, I tell you the very last person in this same list is wearing red pants. Is it possible that these two people are different? No, because I described them as the very last person in the list. So that means the very last person in the list is at the same time wearing a green jacket and red pants. Therefore, when I tell you that that's the very last person in the list, it means one person. So, Muhammad (saws) is a messenger and he was the last in the list. And the son of Mary is also the last in the list. What does that mean? I leave it to you to think.

Major Dilemma for any who reject:

And in case you need a little help, we have a major dilemma for anybody who denies this evidence I just shared with you. And as you saw, Mohammad Asad had recognized this and was faithful in interpreting and translating it. The dilemma is this:

- If you say Mohammad (saws) was the last messenger, that means that Ɛīssā was the last messenger too.

- If you say Mohammad was not the last messenger, then you have the onus. The onus is on you to come up with evidence as to what the Qur'an is talking about.

Clearly, Allahh (swt) is giving us clear evidence. Very, very clear evidence.

Has Jesus Returned Already? Evidence 2

An Intriguing Marking: رُوحُ ٱلْقُدُسِ Rūḥul Qudus

Now we move to the second evidence. Has Jesus already returned? Here we have an intriguing marking with the expression رُوحُ ٱلْقُدُسِ 'Rūḥul Qudus' from the ayat 2:87 from Sūrah Al-Baqarah

وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَقَفَّيْنَا مِن بَعْدِهِ بِٱلرُّسُلِ وَءَاتَيْنَا عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱلْبَيِّنَٰتِ وَأَيَّدْنَٰهُ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ أَفَكُلَّمَا جَآءَكُمْ رَسُولٌ بِمَا لَا تَهْوَىٰٓ أَنفُسُكُمُ ٱسْتَكْبَرْتُمْ فَفَرِيقًا كَذَّبْتُمْ وَفَرِيقًا تَقْتُلُونَ ﴿2:87﴾ - البقرة

And we allowed Ɛīssā, son of Maryam, to learn the 'Bayyinat' (instruments for extracting evidence), and we endorsed him with the support of the divine emissary of the holy…

وَأَيَّدْنَٰهُ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ remember this expression رُوحُ ٱلْقُدُسِ Rūḥul Qudus. It means the Emissary or the divine Emissary from the holy, from Allahh (swt) the same expression is given in an ayat 2:253 from the same Sūrah Al-Baqarah.

تِلْكَ ٱلرُّسُلُ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ مِّنْهُم مَّن كَلَّمَ ٱللَّهُ وَرَفَعَ بَعْضَهُمْ دَرَجَٰتٍ وَءَاتَيْنَا عِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱلْبَيِّنَٰتِ وَأَيَّدْنَٰهُ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ وَلَوْ شَآءَ ٱللَّهُ مَا ٱقْتَتَلَ ٱلَّذِينَ مِنۢ بَعْدِهِم مِّن بَعْدِ مَا جَآءَتْهُمُ ٱلْبَيِّنَٰتُ وَلَٰكِنِ ٱخْتَلَفُوا فَمِنْهُم مَّنْ ءَامَنَ وَمِنْهُم مَّن كَفَرَ وَلَوْ شَآءَ ٱللَّهُ مَا ٱقْتَتَلُوا وَلَٰكِنَّ ٱللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيدُ ﴿2:253﴾ - البقرة

And we allowed Ɛīssā, son of Maryam, to learn the 'Bayyinat' (instruments for extracting evidence), and we endorsed him with the support of the divine emissary of the holy…

وَأَيَّدْنَٰهُ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ Again, this is talking about Ɛīssā.

Again, a third time from Sūrah Al-Māʿidah,

إِذْ قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَى ٱبْنَ مَرْيَمَ ٱذْكُرْ نِعْمَتِي عَلَيْكَ وَعَلَىٰ وَٰلِدَتِكَ إِذْ أَيَّدتُّكَ بِرُوحِ ٱلْقُدُسِ تُكَلِّمُ ٱلنَّاسَ فِي ٱلْمَهْدِ وَكَهْلًا وَإِذْ عَلَّمْتُكَ ٱلْكِتَٰبَ وَٱلْحِكْمَةَ وَٱلتَّوْرَىٰةَ وَٱلْإِنجِيلَ وَإِذْ تَخْلُقُ مِنَ ٱلطِّينِ كَهَيْـَٔةِ ٱلطَّيْرِ بِإِذْنِي فَتَنفُخُ فِيهَا فَتَكُونُ طَيْرًۢا بِإِذْنِي وَتُبْرِئُ ٱلْأَكْمَهَ وَٱلْأَبْرَصَ

بِإِذۡنِى وَإِذۡ تُخۡرِجُ ٱلۡمَوۡتَىٰ بِإِذۡنِى وَإِذۡ كَفَفۡتُ بَنِىٓ إِسۡرَٰٓءِيلَ عَنكَ إِذۡ جِئۡتَهُم بِٱلۡبَيِّنَٰتِ فَقَالَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنۡهُمۡ إِنۡ هَٰذَآ إِلَّا سِحۡرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿5:110﴾ - المائدة

When I endorsed you with the support of the divine emissary of the holy…

Addressing Ɛīssā this time, Allahh (swt) reminds him that إِذۡ أَيَّدتُّكَ بِرُوحِ ٱلۡقُدُسِ I endorsed you with the support of the divine Emissary from the holy رُوحُ ٱلۡقُدُسِ 'Rūḥul Qudus'. Therefore Allahh (swt) is clear that Ɛīssā received the divine Emissary from the holy, from himself.

Here in this ayat 16:102 from Sūrah Al-Nahal

قُلۡ نَزَّلَهُ رُوحُ ٱلۡقُدُسِ مِن رَّبِّكَ بِٱلۡحَقِّ لِيُثَبِّتَ ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهُدًى وَبُشۡرَىٰ لِلۡمُسۡلِمِينَ ﴿16:102﴾ - النحل

Say (O Muḥammad): "The divine emissary of the holly repeatedly made it accessible in truth…"

Allahh (swt) uses the exact same expression, the same marking but this time to Muhammad (saws). This time to our beloved (saws). قُلۡ "say" نَزَّلَهُ رُوحُ ٱلۡقُدُسِ مِن رَّبِّكَ بِٱلۡحَقِّ This is رُوحُ ٱلۡقُدُسِ 'Rūḥul Qudus' who has made it accessible in truth to you. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is using this marking right here (16:102) again, to tell us that there is some commonality between Ɛīssā and Muhammad, our beloved (saws).

Has Jesus Returned Already? Evidence 3

Another Intriguing marking: The verb أَيَّدَ "Ay-yada" is exclusively used for Ɛīssā and Muḥammad SAWS and his followers

We move on to evidence number three. And in this part, we have another intriguing marking based on the same ayat that we just saw, but a little bit different. The verb أَيَّدَ 'Ay-yada' is a verb that means to provide support and to endorse those kinds of meanings and semantics. The verb أَيَّدَ 'Ay-yada' is exclusively used in the Qur'an for Ɛīssā on one hand and Muhammad (saws) and his followers on the other hand. I want you to pay attention to this. This is not random. There are no coincidences in the Qur'an.

In the Qur'an for Ɛīssā these ayat right here (2:87, 2:253, and 5:110) use the verb. أَيَّدَ 'Ay-yada' clearly pointing to Ɛīssā. Also, in the Qur'an these ayat (3:13, 8:26, 8:62, 9:40, 58:22, and 61:14) refer to Mohammad (saws) or Mohammad (saws) plus his followers. In other words, the group that existed during the life of Mohammad (saws) exclusively. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is pointing us to another marking. Again no coincidences. You want to believe these are all coincidences, keep counting because you're going to see even more amazing evidence.

Has Jesus Returned Already? Evidence 4

Now we move to evidence number four. Has Jesus returned already? And we have some ayat that provide clear evidence regarding 3īssā's return. Again, as I showed you before لَّن يَسْتَنكِفَ the wiped or erased Massih shall not refuse. Meaning he will not make the choice, the choice that he has, but will not make that choice to refuse. Therefore, Allahh (swt) continues. Remember, this is ayat 4: 173. If we continue to 4:174

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدْ جَآءَكُم بُرْهَٰنٌ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ وَأَنزَلْنَآ إِلَيْكُمْ نُورًا مُّبِينًا ﴿4:174﴾ فَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِٱللَّهِ وَٱعْتَصَمُوا بِهِۦ فَسَيُدْخِلُهُمْ فِى رَحْمَةٍ مِّنْهُ وَفَضْلٍ وَيَهْدِيهِمْ إِلَيْهِ صِرَٰطًا مُّسْتَقِيمًا ﴿4:175﴾ - النساء

O people! You have received a proof from your lord, and we have made accessible for you a 'manifest' illumination. As to those who believed in Allahh and took refuge in him, then he (Allahh) shall admit them into a mercy from him and a benediction, and shall guide them towards him a methodology of self-correction.

Please pay attention now. Allahh (swt) tells us here "O people I have just given you بُرْهَٰنٌ 'Burhan'. قَدْ جَآءَكُم بُرْهَٰنٌ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ You have just received a proof from your Lord and we have made accessible to you. وَأَنزَلْنَآ إِلَيْكُمْ نُورًا مُّبِينًا and manifest illumination. 'Manifest', I'm not really happy with this translation. I will leave it as it is for now. But the important thing is Allahh (swt) is telling us two things in ayat 174 from Sūrah Al-Nissa.

The first thing is there has been just given to you a proof. And this is the proof that I just described لَّن يَسْتَنكِفَ. This is something that will happen in the future as of the time of revelation of the Qur'an. That means as of the time of revelation of the Qur'an, Al- Massih has not yet returned to be a servant and wayfarer to Allahh (swt). It doesn't mean that it is far in the future by the way. This is only saying it's coming in the future. That's it? We don't know how soon in the future this ayat doesn't say. So, all of the other evidences have to be matched with this ayat.

Now you want to see more amazing relationship to this ayat. Watch this, the expression يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدۡ جَآءَكُمۡ, which is right here from ayat 4:174, occurred in the Qur'an three times. This is a marketing again. Let's trace it and chase it and see where this ayat also occurred. In Sūrah Al-Nisa the same Sūrah but 170. So, in the few ayat just before this one, watch this.

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدۡ جَآءَكُمُ ٱلرَّسُولُ بِٱلۡحَقِّ مِن رَّبِّكُمۡ فَـَٔامِنُواْ خَيۡرٗا لَّكُمۡ وَإِن تَكۡفُرُواْ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَٱلۡأَرۡضِۚ وَكَانَ ٱللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمٗا ﴿4:170﴾ - النساء

يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدۡ جَآءَكُمُ ٱلرَّسُولُ بِٱلۡحَقِّ مِن رَّبِّكُمۡ It's talking about our beloved (saws). فَـَٔامِنُواْ خَيۡرٗا لَّكُمۡ this is better for you. This is more amenable to your proper understanding. وَإِن تَكۡفُرُواْ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ وَٱلۡأَرۡضِۚ وَكَانَ ٱللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمٗا But if you choose to reject meaning he's addressing people reading the Qur'an. So clearly this is ٱلرَّسُولُ referring to our beloved (saws). So here (4:174) Allahh (swt) is using the same expression يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدۡ جَآءَكُمُ and it is giving us this proof right here about Al-Massih and Allahh (swt) is telling us قَدۡ جَآءَكُمُ ٱلرَّسُولُ Al-Massih over there Al-Rassul Muhammad our beloved (saws) over here.

Again, in Sūrah Yunus ayat 108,

قُلۡ يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ قَدۡ جَآءَكُمُ ٱلۡحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّكُمۡ فَمَنِ ٱهۡتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهۡتَدِي لِنَفۡسِهِۦۖ وَمَن ضَلَّ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيۡهَاۖ وَمَآ أَنَا۠ عَلَيۡكُم بِوَكِيلٖ ﴿10:108﴾ - يونس

Allahh (swt) uses the exact same expression, the exact same marking. And in this case, it is referring to our beloved (saws) and the Qur'an that came with our beloved (saws).

So again, the evidence is really starting to become undeniable. We cannot just shove it away and move on, pretending that we're not watching what we're watching in front of our eyes.

Do you want more evidence? Yes. There is more evidence. In this ayat (4:174) Allahh (swt) refer to نُورًا مُّبِينًا which is the Qur'an that was given with the revelation of this proof. Allahh (swt) describes our own beloved (saws) in Sūrah Al-Māʿidah ayat 15

يَٰٓأَهۡلَ ٱلۡكِتَٰبِ قَدۡ جَآءَكُمۡ رَسُولُنَا يُبَيِّنُ لَكُمۡ كَثِيرٗا مِّمَّا كُنتُمۡ تُخۡفُونَ مِنَ ٱلۡكِتَٰبِ وَيَعۡفُواْ عَن كَثِيرٖۚ قَدۡ جَآءَكُم مِّنَ ٱللَّهِ نُورٞ وَكِتَٰبٞ مُّبِينٞ ﴿5:15﴾ - المائدة that Allahh (swt) has sent قَدْ جَآءَكُم مِّنَ ٱللَّهِ نُورٌ وَكِتَٰبٌ مُّبِينٌ. And here (4:174) وَأَنزَلْنَآ إِلَيْكُمْ نُورًا مُّبِينًا. No coincidences. Again, all of these are markings.

Here's another one from Sūrah Al-Shūrā Sūrah 42:52

وَكَذَٰلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَآ إِلَيْكَ رُوحًا مِّنْ أَمْرِنَا مَا كُنتَ تَدْرِى مَا ٱلْكِتَٰبُ وَلَا ٱلْإِيمَٰنُ وَلَٰكِن جَعَلْنَٰهُ نُورًا نَّهْدِى بِهِۦ مَن نَّشَآءُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا وَإِنَّكَ لَتَهْدِىٓ إِلَىٰ صِرَٰطٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿42:52﴾ - الشورى

And he's talking to our beloved (saws) telling him you did not know what the scripture was, nor what was 'Iman' belief or faith or certainty in faith وَلَٰكِن جَعَلْنَٰهُ, but we have made it نُورًا نَّهْدِى بِهِۦ مَن نَّشَآءُ we have made this 'kitab' the scripture that we gave you نُورًا. Again, this is not exclusive right here to Al Qur'an, but clearly Al Qur'an is described as نُورً. Therefore, when Allahh (swt) says in this ayat 4:174 from Sūrah al- Nissa, we have given you proof and we have given you نُورًا مُّبِينًا it is referring to the Qur'an. Therefore, this proof is right here in the Qur'an. It is addressing Al-Massih who will come in the second return in the future, not necessarily in the far distant future, to make a choice to be a servant of Allahh (swt).

فَـَٔامِنُوا۟ بِٱللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِۦ وَٱلنُّورِ ٱلَّذِىٓ أَنزَلْنَا وَٱللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿64:8﴾ - التغابن

Has Jesus Returned Already? Evidence 5

Whom did Allahh Address in aya 3:55-58?

Now we continue with evidence number five has Jesus already returned? We look at the ayat 55 to 58 from Sūrah Āl-Ɛimrān and we ask whom did Allahh (swt) address in these ayat? And we're going to see. So, I need you to pay attention and focus on these ayat right here, which are laid out in front of you. This is ayat 3:55 to 3:58 and they start with

إِذْ قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَىٰٓ إِنِّى مُتَوَفِّيكَ وَرَافِعُكَ إِلَىَّ وَمُطَهِّرُكَ مِنَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا۟ وَجَاعِلُ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱتَّبَعُوكَ فَوْقَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوٓا۟ إِلَىٰ يَوْمِ ٱلْقِيَٰمَةِ ثُمَّ إِلَىَّ مَرْجِعُكُمْ فَأَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ فِيمَا كُنتُمْ فِيهِ تَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿3:55﴾ فَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا۟ فَأُعَذِّبُهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا فِى ٱلدُّنْيَا وَٱلْءَاخِرَةِ وَمَا لَهُم مِّن نَّٰصِرِينَ ﴿3:56﴾ وَأَمَّا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا۟ وَعَمِلُوا۟ ٱلصَّٰلِحَٰتِ فَيُوَفِّيهِمْ أُجُورَهُمْ وَٱللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ ٱلظَّٰلِمِينَ ﴿3:57﴾ ذَٰلِكَ نَتْلُوهُ عَلَيْكَ مِنَ ٱلْءَايَٰتِ وَٱلذِّكْرِ ٱلْحَكِيمِ ﴿3:58﴾ - آل عمران

When Allahh said: “O 3īssaī. I am requiting you, (and I am) raising you to me, and (I am) ridding you of those who rejected, and making those who follow you above those who rejected, toward the time of ‘Qiyāmah’, and then to me shall be your mission reassignment, and I judge among you in matters regarding which you used to disagree. As for those who rejected, I shall punish them (with separation) a grievous punishment in this life and in the delayed, diligent understanding, and no supporters of any kind shall be available for them. And as for those who believed and toiled in the scripture (in accordance with the divine lexicon), then he (Allahh) requites them their rewards, and Allahh dislikes the transgressors. That (above) we recite upon you (O Muḥammad – not Jesus) is from the signs (given to you) and the Dhikr that is the source of linguistic discernment (given to you)!

When Allahh said: “O 3īssaī. Only 3īssā, not Ya 3īssā Ibn Maryam. Now we go search through the Qur'an again. Again, this is the methodology we search and we let the Qur'an point us in the right direction. We allow the Qur'an to provide us these markings. This is part of the methodology. We're not making it up. No coincidences. So here Allahh (swt) is saying قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَىٰٓ but in two other places in ayat 5:110 and ayat 5:116 قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَى ٱبۡنَ مَرۡيَمَ. Now the question is did Allahh (swt) not named him 3īssā Ibn Maryam? Of course, he did. And he referred to him twice يَٰعِيسَى ٱبۡنَ مَرۡيَمَ. with the wiped name. For when? For the first life he had. But what about the second life? No, he did not use the wiped name. He used the new name. 3īssā just 3īssā إِذۡ قَالَ ٱللَّهُ يَٰعِيسَىٰٓ. Now he's addressing a different, a different existence of the same person. يَٰعِيسَىٰٓ he's no longer Ibn Maryam in the second.

إِنِّي مُتَوَفِّيكَ I am requiting you meaning recollecting or recompensing you for some things that you've done. And this is a unique word used in the Qur'an that describes a specific process that we described before. And that takes place during the daze. If you don't know what I just talked about, this is another proof that you have not seen the prior segments. So please don't criticize something you don't understand ‘Atawafee’ right here is referring to what happens during the daze based on the ayat, where Allahh (swt) says

ٱللَّهُ يَتَوَفَّى ٱلۡأَنفُسَ حِينَ مَوۡتِهَا وَٱلَّتِي لَمۡ تَمُتۡ فِي مَنَامِهَاۖ (39:42)

Allahh (swt) requits the ‘anfus’ the persons at the time of their death and those that have not died during their sleep. This is exactly the word تَوَفَّى ‘Tawafi’ or مُتَوَفِّيَ ‘Mutawafi’. So, to whom Allahh (swt) addressing this discourse? Let's continue. وَرَافِعُكَ إِلَيَّ and raising you toward me, or to me. It doesn't mean physical raising by the way, because our beloved (saws) is described وَرَفَعۡنَا لَكَ ذِكۡرَكَ, and we have raised your mentioned or your Zikr. Then Allahh (swt) continues وَمُطَهِّرُكَ مِنَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا and ridding you of those who rejected. Hmm those who rejected. Did this happen to our beloved (saws). Of course, it did. So, all of these so far apply very, very well to our beloved (saws).

وَجَاعِلُ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱتَّبَعُوكَ فَوْقَ ٱلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوٓا۟ إِلَىٰ يَوْمِ ٱلْقِيَٰمَةِ And making those who follow you above those who rejected toward the time of ‘Qiyama’. Does this apply to Muhammad? Of course, it does. It does not apply to anybody else because the Qur'an is the last revelation to mankind. Therefore, Allahh (swt) is confirming what we know about our beloved (saws) and what we know about the Qur'an. This cannot possibly apply to any other form of revelation or earliest scripture, or even earlier messenger.
